pain and suffering. "For years my wife suffered from what the foctors called prolepans of the uterus." writes in the second second second second second second feet, paipitation, headache, backache, constipa-tion, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down paina and no appetite. She got so weak she could not get around. I am only a laborer, and was always in debt to the doctors, and all for no good, as none of them did her any good. She began taking pr. Pierce's Ravorite Prescription and it seemed to work like a charm. She has taken about thirteen bottles and is today as stout and healthy as any woman in the United States."

Miss Ignes Shepherd and John Schaff United Vesterday Morning. Miss Agnes Shepherd and John Schaff, two well known residents of this city, were quietly wedded at 9.45 yesterday morning by Rev. T. F. Coffey. The ceremony took place in St. Rose parochial residence. Mr. and Mrs. Schaff will have the best wishe of their many friends.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

MARRIED.

The Hendrick mission held its annual tea and election of officers yesterday afternoon.

Tuesday evening, at her home on Canaan street, Mrs. J. A. Dennis enter-tained the following: Mesdames George Dow, Clarence Rose, Charles Lee, F. E. Burr, Austin Benscoter, J. D. Bryden, W. Rivenburg, C. Hall, Francis Budd, Misses Ida Snyder, Stella Hunter, Grace Bagley and Olina Herring. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Kimball are entertaining Mrs. Van Alen and daughter, Anna, of Northumberland. Mrs. Bert Colwell and Messrs. Sidney Colwell and William Isgar are in Jersey City.

Mrs. Marvina Vaughan, who has been visiting relatives in town, has returned to her home in Providence. The storm yesterday, although very evere, did but little damage around the city. Railroad traffic north and south was not interfered with, but trains on the Gravity road were each nearly an hour late in reaching here. Mrs. W. W. Fletche: was called to New York today to attend the funeral of her uncle, J. Wadsworth Tyler.

OLYPHANT.

The returns having been all in from the various districts of the borough, the count shows that M. J. Cannan defeated his Republican opponent, W. J. Schubmehl, by about seventy votes. P. Farrel (Dem.) was elected auditor and P. H. Gibbons (Dem.), high constable The ward officers elected were as follows: First ward-Council, three years, M. Nealon (Dem.); two years, E. J. Howard (Dem.). School director, John Walsh (Dem.); assessor, Edward Mc-Ginty (Dem.).

Second ward-Council, R. J. Gallagher (Dem.): school director, J. W. Patton (Rep.): assessor, John Penman BAUER'S ORCHESTRA-MUSIC FO (Rep.)

Third ward-Council, Thomas Robinson (Dem.); school director, W. G. Holleran (Rep.); assessor, P. Ingolsby (Dem.).

Fourth ward-Council, Joseph Marks (Rep.); school director, James E. Williams (Rep.); assessor, H. Pritchard (Rep.).

In the Second district of the Third ward, Patrick Langan, candidate for school director, failed to get a vote. Langan charges the election board with crookedness, and will ask court for a re-count. He was defeated by three votes.
