HONESDALE.

On Tuesday, Feb. 22, the Erio railroad company will run an excursion to New York. Fare, $1.50, "The Bible in Our Mother Tongue," will be the theme of Rev. William H. Swift's discourse in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

It is expected that the Honesdale Shirt factory will occupy the building adjoining the T. B. Clark & Co. Cutting shop, which was formerly used as a silver factory. At the borough election all on the Republican ticket were elected with the exception of Walter A. Wood, who wes defeated for town council by George Checkley with a majority of thirty-one votes. On Tuesday evening next will occur the annual Martha Washington supper in the Presbyterian chapel.

The chairman of the Republican county committee has appointed as the executive committee: M. E. Simons, F. H. Baumann and W. E. Bennett. Prof. Heft's dancing class will give on Monday evening next.

A new eleven-ton safe was placed in saving bank building yesterday. Workmen from the factory are now engaged putting up the vault, Fred Cory, who underwent an opera tion for apendicitis a few weeks ago

Business in No Way Affected by the Maine Disaster Save in the Matter of Stock Speculation.

New York, Feb. 18.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade: The dreadful disaster to the Maine, much as it has affected all the hearts has not much affected business. Only in the stock market, where there was elling on Wednesday by speculators on thin margins, but in no other speculative market was an effect felt, nor in general business. An advance of 10 per cent. in wages by some gogebic mines is expected to be general throughout the lake region, excepting the Mesabi district, and prices of ore from the other ranges this year have been advanced 15 per cent, with an allot of 6,000,000 tons outside Carnegie mines, which betokens an output much the largest ever known. Wheat has risen 3% cents and exports continue so heavy that a material advance is natural. Atlantic experts in three weeks have been 8,416,-457 bushels, flour included, against 5,261,871 last year and Pacific exports have been 2,476,652, against 1,474,582 last year. Such shipments, with heavy engagements for the future in spite of 11,430,831 bushels corn exports against 12,502,124 bushels in the same week last year, are conclusive proof of the urgency of foreign needs. Wheat receipts hold up well, though not exceeding last a masquerade ball in Maennercher hall | year's as much as exports, in three weeks 7,775,560 bushels, against 4,884,740 last year. The bottom fact is that the world needs wheat which this country can only supply for about six months to come. Cotton has held unchanged for spot, though a little lower for options, prospects of decrease in the next yield being the main support.

The iron output Feb. 1 with reports of stocks on hand not held by the great steel companies indicates consumption least 3,000 tons per week greater in January than the previous maximum attained in November, 1895. The production is at present greater than consumption, stocks having increased 9,106 tons weekly in January outside the steel companies, whose stocks presumably decreased. Some weakness in pig would naturally result, but while Grey Forge has declined at Pittsburg to $8.90 with southern iron offered at Chicago at concessions, no changes appear in products. Though new business has been somewhat disappointed, the works are mainly supplied for months ahead. In building of steel cars, in black sheets for tinning, in reds, wire and wire nails, increased byterian church tomorrow, excepting demand and heavy business appear, sunday school at 2 p. m. and a Christhough bar and pipe are weaker, and structural orders seasonably slow. Minor details have advanced, tin to 14.26 cents on considerable consuming demand, copper to 114 for lake on heavy exports, and lead to 3.80 and spelter to 4.10 cents, to speculation, but failure to organize the tin pool causes weakness, American selling at $3 and lower at the west.

In the cotton manufacture production is restricted by strikes and some grades are a shade dearer. The recent opening of higher grade woolens at advanced prices meets less demand than was expected with less activity in lower grades and unexpectedly numerous cancellations in light weights, indicatng larger buying than consumption has et warranted. Failures for the week have been 241 in the United States against 365 last year and 35 in Canada against 56 last

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Feb. 18 .- The tone of the speculation was doubtful and hesitatng in Wall street today and a large preponderance of the day's dealings were in Sugar and the Grangers. Nearly sixty per cent. of the total transactions were in these stocks. Coupled with the fact that the total sales of all stocks showed a marked decrease from the recent average, the large proportion absorbed by these specialties formed a significant commentary upon the condition into which the market has fallen. After the opening weakness, due to sympathy with London, and some other foreign exchanges had been overcome, it looked as though the strength radiating from the Grangers had prevailed in the market, but the increasing weakness of Sugar coupled with a fall in the prices of local New York specialties in the final hours was a decisive factor in driving prices below last night's lever. The radical utterances made in the course of the debate precipitated in the senate on the Maine disaster also engendered distrust in the minds of speculators, and prompted liquidation. Business on the decline was by far the most animated of any during the day. The total sales were 351,500 shares.

A SAILOR'S YARN.

A Small Postoffice Was Found Under a Shark.

The British cutter Sparrow, com manded by Captain Wylie, while cruising off Cape Tiburon, in the island of San Womingo, chased and overhauled an American brig, the cargo of which, together with certain other circumstances, gave rise to such a suspicion that she was enemy's property that Captain Wylie thought it best to send her to Port Royal for examination The Yankee captain, not in the least dismayed, swore so positively as to the truth of his ship's papers, which he produced, that the admiralty court was at length persuaded to set him free, whereupon he immediately began an action for demurrage against Captain

Wylie for having taken him. About this time Lieutenant Fitton, the navy (who was then a man in command of a small tender) arrived at Port Royal, went on board the Sparrow to pay a visit to Wylie He found the captain in very low spir its over the pending suit, and greatly depressed at the idea of the ruinous damages that it seemed certain would be awarded against him on account of the American. Fitton, however, on learning the name of the captain of the brig, adname of the capitain of the brig, advised Wylle not to worry, and stated that he could prove that the brig was that he could prove that the brig was yet a good prize. He then went on to explain that while cruising in his tender work the place where the Sparray the place where the Sparray that all work done by us is the best to be had. Our operations are positively paintess. All work guaranteed for 10 years. der near the place where the Sparrow had overhauled the brig, and very shortly after that time, his sailors had caught a large shark. He was very much surprised on hearing one of the men employed in cutting the fish open cry out: "Stand by for your letters, my boys, for here's the postman come on board," at the same moment handing out a bundle of papers from the shark's stomach. They were only slightly damaged by the gastric juices of the fish, and Fitton kept them. Upon examination he discovered that they were the real papers of the American, which he had thrown overboard when he became hard pressed, and which had been promptly swallowed by the shark. The papers proved beyond question that the cargo was French. The two officers went immediately to Kingston with this new and most important evidence, but no further inrestigation of the matter was necessary, for the captain of the brig was so overwhelmed upon hearing the circumstances, which he regarded as a visitation from heaven for his perjures, that he hurriedly escaped from the island, and the vessel, after all, was condemned to the Sparrow. Wylie received for his share of the prize money mething over £3,000. Mr. Fitton sent the jawbones of the shark to the admiralty court at Jamaica, where they

First Mortgage Collateral Trust 5 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS New Mexico Railway and Coal Co.

A Limited Number of These Bonds Are Now Offered for Sale. A Limited Number of These Bonds are Now Offered for Sale.

The mortgage securing these bonds covers the railroad now under construction and rapidly nearing completion, from El Paso, Texas, about 160 miles northerly to the Salado Coal Fields, in New Mexico. The road traverses a country rich in minerals, including, gold, silver, copper and iron, and will open up the largest bodies of coal and timber in the Southwest. For its traffic resources, the road will rely on the deposits of coal now owned by the company, and also covered by its mortgage as well as on extensive timber properties, all situated nearly 400 miles nearer to the markets of Arizona, Texas, New Mexico and Old Mexico than any other source of supply, and with favorable grades for transportation as against heavily adverse grades on the roads of every possible competitor. THE COAL AND TIMBER ALONE ASSURE A MOST PROSPERGUS BUSINESS FOR THE ROAD. The road will also be an outlet for a vast fruitgrowing, farming, and stock-raising district, one of the most favored in the world, and now being rapidly taken up by homesteaders and other settlers.

The country has wonderful possibilities for mineral development. Hundreds of prospectors, some of them arranging for the investment of considerable foreign capital, are already engaged in the development of the mineral properties in eign capital, are already engaged in the development of the mineral properties in anticipation of the outlet thus to be afforded for the ores to smelters and stamp mills. Reports have been made on the traffic resources of the country by experts, W. A. Lathrop, Esq., Superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company; R. C. Hills, Esq., Geologist and Mining Engineer, of Denver, Colorado, and others, copies of which will be furnished on application.
