She is a very heavy woman and the fall was so unexpected that she was not able to save herself and fell heavily. Neighbors who saw the accident rushed to her assistance and she was born into the house. A physician was sum-moned and he found that the injured woman was suffering from shock and severe contusions. How seriously Mrs. Phillips is injured it was impossible to Another accident of a similar character happened to Miss Marie Parry, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parry, of South Main avenue. Mr. Parry is janitor of Mears' hall. NERVOUS DEPRESSION.

IA TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM.1 A woman with the blues is a very un-unhappy and frequently hysterical. The condition of the mind known as 'the blues," nearly always, with women, results from diseased organs of generation.

It is a source of wonder that in this age of advanced medical science, any person should still believe that nere force of will and determination will overcome depressed spirits and nervousness in women. These troubles are indications of disease.

Every woman who doesn't understand her condition should write to Lynn, Mass., to Mrs. Pinkham for her advice. Her advice is thorough common sense, and is the counsel of a learned woman of great experience. Read the story of Mrs. F. S. BENNETT. Westphalia, Kansas, as told in the following letter:

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I have suffered for over two years with falling. enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped.

"I am now gaining strength and flesh, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed, suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

Geason, Harry Harris, Ivor Jones, Bert Lewis, Thomas James, Archileans Evans, Thomas R. Evans and George Morton. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Anna Scott, Mrs. Emma Crans ton and Mrs. Eliza Evans.
