Mrs. Ruth Michael Dies Suddenly from Effects of a Paralytic Stroke.

WILLIAM BURNS IS INJURED

Had a Narrow Escape from a Terrible Death in the Marvine Mine. Marriage of Daniel H. Coleman and Mrs. Mary Ann Unsworth -- Special George Smith Arrested on a Very Serious Charge .- Today's Eisteddtodd .- Other Events.

Mrs. Ruth Michael relict of the late David Michael, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at the home of Daniel Reese, on Spring street. She was apparently in the best of health yesterday morning, and partook of a hearty breakfast, and showed no signs of illness until noon, when she suddenly recled and fell to the floor. She was quickly carried to a sofa and medical assistance sent for, but to no avail. She never regained consciousness Death being attributed to a paralytic stroke.

Mrs. Michael was about 60 years of age and was well known hereabouts, having resided in this place for the psat seventeen years. As far as is known she has no relatives in this im-mediate vicinity, having made her iome with the family of Daniel Reese for the past four years. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the house by the Rev. J. A. Evans, of the West Market Street Welsh Baptist church. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

MINE ACCIDENT.

William Burns, a driver in the Marvine mine, was most painfully hurt yesterday morning. He was riding on the front end of a trip of cars which he was running down a slight incline when his foot caught in something in the road bed and he was thrown directly underneath the cars. A horrible death wounld have befallen him but for the quick action of fellow employes.

He was taken out from underneath the cars and conveyed to his home, on Brenker street. His injuries comprise a badly cut head and severe injuries to both legs.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The many friends of Daniel H, Coleman and Mrs. Mary Ann Unsworth, both of this place, will be surprised to learn of their marriage, which was quietly solumnized yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd by the Rev. F. S. Ballentine. Both are persons of middle age, and are well and favorably known in this part of the city.

Evan McGinnis was the recipient of a surprise party last evening. A large number of his friends congregated at his home, on West Market street, and made merry the hours of the pleasant evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour,

It was a night of masquerades on this side last evening. In every dance over here hundreds of happy maidens and young men were gathered, and danced until early morning. At the Central Park hall the Polish societies held their annual dance, the Ringgold band the boys' friends occupied Natter's hall, the Workingmen's society held forth in their own cosy hall or Alder street, and the prominent and prosperous Scranton Athletic club was the attraction at Germania hall. Each affair was largely attended, especially the dances of the Ringgold and Athletic

In point of excellence and eclat, the Athletic club and their friends won by a long lead. The Germania hall was spot of grandeur and bewilderment as to decorations.
