THOMAS IS INNOCENT.

So Says R. M. Vannan in an Explanatory Communication.

The following appeared in last evening's Leader:

"The communication which appeared in the Elmira Telegram yesterday accusing John H. Thomas of being responsible for the defeat of the Hendrick Manufacturing company in not securing the contract for furnishing the city with 1,000 feet of hose is a bare faced lie. The facts will bear me out in what I say. Hendrick's bid of fifty-five cents was for a low seam hose. My bid was fifty-five cents for a seamless hose with same guarantee but a better quality as it was seamless, but both guarantee were valueless as the hose was guaranteed for four years providing hose was dried after use and as hose in our city is not dried after use the contract would be broken the first time hose was used. As councils saw the conditions attached to both guarantee were valueless as the hose was guaranteed for four years providing hose was dried after use and as hose in our city is not dried after use the contract would be broken the first time hose was used. As councils saw the conditions attached to both guarantee were valueless as the hose was guaranteed for four years providing hose was dried after use and as hose in our city is not dried after use the contract would be broken the first time hose was used.

The funeral of Miss Emma Udy took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Charles Lee preached the sermon taking as a text Psalms xxxiii: 4. Rev. G. A. Place, P. D., offered up prayer.

OSBORNE GETS BAIL.

William Osborne, who stabbed James Walsh, pleaded self defence at the hearing before Alderman Jones yesterday afternoon, but bail was required and furnished and today the prisoner will be at liberty. A package of candy in Walsh's pockets, which bore the point of the knife, saved the victim's life.

ARCHBALD.

The community was both surprised and shocked yesterday morning when announcement was made of the death of Hon. A. F. McNulty. While it was generally known that he was unwell no one expected his death, and it came with such suddenness that no one was prepared. His death was a great loss to the community.
