New York, Feb. 21.-Today's heavy de-line in the stock market was made without any actual new development in the situation, but was rather to be attribut-ed to a combination of impressions which have been the underlying force in speculation for aweek or more. Today's mar-ket demonstrated for one thing that last week's decline would have been much heavier on the developments in the Cu-ban question had it not been for the sup-port of powerful interests who desired an opportunity to realize. The entire ab-sence of support today leave color to the supposition that those interests had com-pleted their liquidation and were indiffernished by the events of last week. So far as they turned on the Cuban question they dealt with speculations on possible future events and on abstruse points of international law without any convincing authority to back them. Whatever the real motive it was beyond dispute that there were large offerings of securities for which there was no adequate demand and selling orders to stop losses were un-covered on the descending scale. De-clines were so great that prices that looked attractive as bargains were reached in many cases and the buying thus invited steadled and worked some pathle recovering Table process are renotable recoveries. This process was re-peated several times during the day and the market closed with one of the rallies in full force, thus leaving the declines de-cidedly smaller than the extreme declines during the day. The total sales today were 578,200 shares.

THE FIRST WITNESS. The first witness for the defense was

Mrs. Catherine Weisenborn. She said: 'The strikers gathered at Harwood on the day of the shooting and one of them, Gasperick, who testified for the state, entered Mike Konaski's house and tried to get him to go out, crying: 'If you don't come, we'll kill you.' " Konaski was in hiding and escaped, and as the strikers departed they cried: "We'll show the white people what we'll do when we come back.' "I saw the strikers chase a number of people. They were all armed with clubs and stones and some had revolvers.

Mrs. Eliza Grace, of Harwood, said her husband ran into the brush when he heard the strikers were approaching, he was afraid of them. "They tramped through my fruit garden. said Mrs. Grace, "and broke my bean poles in two to make clubs. They caught John Edmondson and would have taken him along foreibly had not his wife clung to him and begged them to release him.

Mrs. Rose Gillespie, of Harwood, told how she had sent her four boys into the brush to hide, fearing the strikers would hurt them.

Mrs. Catherine Brennan hid her fifeen-year-old boy and went out to look at the strikers. They were armed with clubs, hammers and stones. One man fired a shot in the air. Others fired into the brush, where many of the men were hiding. Mrs. Brennan sald she saw Martin Shrofronick march into Zoe Shultz's house, crying that if he did not come out he would be killed. Shultz was in hiding and could not be found.

Mrs. Michael Gallagher, of Harwood, said she was stoned by the strikers and Mrs. Charles Miller said her husband had gone to West Hazleton when he heard the strikers were approaching. This concluded the testimony for the
