Girls Obtain Judgment Against Val Bliss & Co., Silk Manufacturers.

DISPUTE ABOUT WAGES

Proposed Ranquet of Jr. O. U. A. M. Has Been Postnoned for a Month. Funeral of Charles Simms from His Home on Cusick Avenue -- Surprise Party Tendered Miss Ada Lardneard at Her Home on Gardner Avenue.

Val Bliss & Co., silk manufacturers, who have a factory near the Providence station of the Delaware and Hudson Ratirord company, were the defendants in an assumpsit case, which was heard before Alderman Roberts last evening. The plaintiffs were Jannie and Agnes Ford, of Green Hidge. At the hearing it transpired that both girls secured employment and under the terms of the contract which was verbal, each was to receive $3 per week.

After working some time, they discovered that their services were only rewarded with $1.75 per week. The pirls demanded the back pay, which they say amounted to $25. This they were unable to get, and the company's refusal resulted in the above suit. The mother of the girls, who was present when the alleged agreement was arrived at, testified that her daughters were to receive $3 per week. The alderman gave judgment to the girls for the full amount of their claims,

HAD TO SHOOT HOLSE,

A spirited horse attached to a light delivery wagon became frightened at the approach of a street car on Providence road yesterday afternoon. The driver realized that to stay in the wagon meant severe injury, probably death, and leaped from the wagon, alighting safely. The horse continued down Providence road until it reached the Ontario and Western tracks, which course it followed for a short distance when it leaped the high embankment crashing through the fence, breaking a leg. It had to be shot. The wagon was badly wrecked.

Through Pleasant Places.

The ride between Buffalo and Chiago over the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway is made without change of cars, passing through the finest and richest portions of Northern Indiana, Southern Michigan, the northern part of Ohio, a triangle of Pennsylvania, and the most beautiful portion of Western New York.

Not only is the scenery most "eautiful, but every possible care is taken on the part of the company to supply every desire on the part of its patrons. The service is incomparable, both as regards speed and the equipment of its trains. Tourists will agree that a journey via the Lake Shore is made as pleasant as possible.

avenue, died yesterday. The funeral The Thalia society, the German dramatic and operatic organization of which Professor W. P. Schilling is director, gave another enjoyable evening to its friends at Music hall last

The bill was the three-act comedy drama, "Der Weisse Hirsch" ("The White Deer"), by Karl Pauder. The principal roles were enacted by F. J. Widmayer, John Brunner, Theodore Straub, Gustave Reppert, soseph Miller, Lorenz Haberstroh, Otto Stoeckel, Morris Weiss, Mrs. Benson, Miss Violet Fahrenholt, Miss Olga Pittack and Miss Martha Pittack. A pleasing addition to the programme was a soprano "Polka." by Arditi, rendered by Mrs. Schilling. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the performance as was evidenced by the continuous laughter and applause. The artistic manner in which the piece was presented betokened that Director Schilling is quite as apt at dramatics as he is in music.

liss Rhoda Samuels Entertained s Number of Her Friends at Her Home Last Night .- Funeral of Miss Anna O'Malley -- Requiem Mass Celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral. Those Who Will Participate in Tonight's Concert in Y. W. C. A. Rooms.

The war fever that has just passed over the land could not be compared to what may be termed the "speakeasy fever," now rampant on this side, In every place where soda and lager are sold was congregated crowds last night discussing the cause of the wholesale raid on the unlicensed places in this section, and how it happened, and why was this precinct chosen as a leader in the crusade, Constable Mink who served the warrants, was given no little share of the many unpleasant things said. The detectives who secured the evidence, worked it cleverly. They were dressed like laborers returning from a Tuesday by a heavy piece of timber day's work. In Boeticher's saloon, on Prospect avenue, they knew all about his friends, many now dead, and his name being rather hard to spell they got him to write it.

For a few hours last night they worked along Cedar avenue, but their labors were useless for no man was sold any drink in an unlicensed place on this side, who was not well known to the barkeepers, and from threplaces they were hustled out. Up in the Twelfth ward all hands were prepared for their coming, but none of the scouts appeared. Judging from the talk heard there last night an exciting tale would have to be told this morning if a stranger attempted to buy a glass of beer in that prohibition dis-
