David Davies, a young man employed in the Marvise mine, was so badly injured by a trip of runaway cars Saturday morning that he died shortly after being conveyed to the surface.

He was employed at the foot of a plane in coupling and uncoupling cars. A trip was being drawn up by an immense wheel which is used for that purpose, when the coupling broke, allowing the rear section to dash down at a tremendous rate of speed, striking the unfortunate man before he could escape.

He was hurled against the rib and when fellow-workmen hurried to his side he spoke a few words and sank into unconsciousness. His body was not at all mutilated. Severe internal injuries caused death. The remains were taken to his home, corner of Wayne avenue and Putnam street.

Mr. Davies was 24 years of age and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davies. He possessed an exemplary character and enjoyed the high esteem of many friends. He was a member of Thomas Jefferson lodge, American Fraternity. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the house by the Rev. Horace Peckover. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

TWO FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mary Frances, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Roagan, occurred Saturday afternoon from the family residence, corner of West Market street and Brick avenue. The attendance was large. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The services over the remains of Vera, daughter of W. M. Jenkins, were held Saturday afternoon at the home of Herbert Butler, on Edna avenue, and were conducted by Rev. William Edgar, of the Methodist Episcopal church. The remains were interred in Dunmore Protestant cemetery.

DISCOVERED IN TIME.

Early Saturday morning a smoldering fire was discovered in the office of Henry Hurlbut, in the Mulley building. It was extinguished with a few pails of water by employee of Ambrose Mulley's store. A cigar box filled with sawdust, which was used as a cuspidor, was where the fire originated. A lighted cigar stump thrown into this box the evening previous is the supposed cause of the fire. The flooring and some of the furniture were badly charred by the flames.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

Warrants were issued Saturday for the arrest of John Hennings and John Zurlinus on the charge of perjury, alleged to have been committed when they were giving testimony with reference to a case recently tried before Alderman Roberts. Michael Campbell preferred the charges. The defendants were held in jail for their appearance at court.

Andrew Phelan was arraigned before Alderman Roberts Saturday, charged with perjury and assisting a prisoner to escape. Mrs. Mary Mitchell was the prosecutrix in the case. When Special Officer Smith appeared at Phelan's place of business with a warrant for his brother Henry's arrest, it is alleged that Phelan put the officer on the wrong track, but only for a short time, however, for the officer discovered the ruse that had been played upon him and arrested his man. When he was arraigned and compelled to give bail, his brother, Andrew Phelan, became his bondsman, representing to the alderman that he owned property. It was afterwards found, it is alleged, that he had given straw bail and his arrest followed. The alderman held him in jail for his appearance at court.

THE BIRDS RECOVERED.

At a recent "cocking main" held near Storrs' No. 3 shaft, there flocked to the scene many admirers of the sport from different parts of the valley. One spectator made his presence known by his outward expression of admiration for two game chickens which belonged to John Munley and Martin Hennihan. That night the self-same birds were paroled from their respective coops. The owners began a search known by the name of "cocking main," and after an hour's search, they discovered the whereabouts of the birds, who were seen by John Dougherty, decided that he was the person who with- out their knowledge or consent spirited away the chickens.

A warrant was issued for his arrest arranged in Constable Smith's hands, who journeyed to Wilkes-Barre, where Dougherty resides. He became aware of the constable's intentions and disappeared. The birds were recovered and brought back. As the owners were apparently satisfied, the case against Dougherty will be dropped.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Mrs. William Blackwell, of Nanticoke, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Thomas, of William street. Miss Mary Jones, of Olyphant, spent yesterday with Mrs. J. A. Jones, of Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James, of Wayne avenue, are entertaining Herbert James, of Tamaqua, Pa. A surprise party was given William Pugh at his home on Putnam street, during the month of June and will accept it. After that he intends to travel through the West and visit several friends and different places of interest. Further than that he would not discuss his plans. His relations with his congregation have always been of a pleasant nature. The resignation of the congregation are deeply affected by his determination to resign.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

A memorial service for the late Miss Frances E. Willard, national president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, was held in the Washburn street Presbyterian church yesterday morning. The pulpit enclosure was adorned with cut flowers and potted plants and hanging from the pulpit pedestal were three large bows of white satin ribbon, the emblem of the organization. The service was opened with the singing of a selection by the church quartette, and selection No. 57 in the Psalter, commencing with the sentence, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, ye who stand by the water." The pastor, Mr. J. M. Sanderling, read the obituary notice, which was read by the W. C. T. U., and the pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt, read verses from the 35th chapter of the book of Isaiah, which was followed by a prayer by the W. C. T. U.

WEST SCRANTON

Rev. J. T. Morris, of Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Church, Resigns.

ACTION CAUSED MUCH SURPRISE

It Was Entirely Unexpected by the Members of His Congregation.
Memorial Services for the Late Miss Frances E. Willard Held in Washburn Street Church--Small Fire on Lainevette Street--Travel on West
Linden Street Was Delayed.

The congregation of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church were startled yesterday morning by the announcement of the pastor, Rev. J. T. Morris, that he had decided to resign, his resignation to take effect on the last Sunday in May. An agreement was entered into long ago by the pastor and congregation that three months' notification should be given by either congregation or pastor if it was desired to terminate the existing relations. Mr. Morris assumed charge of the church nearly fourteen years ago, and has built up a large congregation and membership. He has done excellent service and his efforts have been crowned with success.

In connection with a Tribune representative, Mr. Morris stated last evening that he feels as though he has been pastor of the church long enough and desires a change and rest. He has been tendered a supply call to fill the pulpit of a church in Long Creek, Iowa, during the month of June and will accept it. After that he intends to travel through the West and visit several friends and different places of interest. Further than that he would not discuss his plans. His relations with his congregation have always been of a pleasant nature. The resignation of the congregation are deeply affected by his determination to resign.

Mr. Morris is one of the best known clergymen in the city, and has been identified with the Methodist church during the years of his pastorate in this city. The church is a member of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist association, but chooses their own pastor. The resignation of Mr. Morris was such a surprise to them that no action has been taken. The church is located on South Main avenue, just inside the city line, and is tended by the Rev. J. H. American people of that section of the city, known as Patagonia and Bellevue Heights.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE.

The first of a series of sermon lectures on "The Life and Footsteps of Jesus," illustrated by a stereopticon, was given in the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening by the pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruy. The pictures showed the life of the speaker, and the expressions of the speaker were thoroughly in keeping with his subject. The services began at 7 o'clock and the church was filled by an interested assemblage. A specially prepared sermon was given under the direction of Prof. Lewis Davis, secretary. "Pilot Me," by Gould, was rendered by a male chorus, and a female chorus sang the composition by Apt, entitled "How Pleasant." Mrs. M. J. Boston-Williams sang the solo, "The Better Land," and the services throughout were beautiful and the departure inaugurated by Rev. de Gruy seems to be appreciated, judging from the large Sunday evening congregations.

WIRE BURNED OUT.

Traffic on the West Linden street car line was interrupted Saturday evening for an hour and fifteen minutes by the burning out of the wire of Washburn car 203. The car is one of the new ones and left the central city at 7.45 and just as it reached the crossing at Linden street, the wire burned out and it stopped. The car was then towed to the roof of the front vestibule. The passengers scrambled for the rear door, and in their haste a woman was knocked down and slightly injured and a man had his fingers injured by a seat wire. The car was towed to the depot and repaired. The damage was estimated at $150.00.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Bauer's orchestra gave another enjoyable concert. "Carle's Brothers" department stores on Saturday evening. Dr. J. M. Sanderling, the well-known dentist, will remove his business to the central city on the 1st of April. Dr. Harrison D. Sanderling, the well-known dentist, will occupy Dr. Sanderling's present quarters.

TOURISTS' DELEGATES MEET.

Delegates from all the tourist clubs connected with the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, met in St. Leo's hall, on North Main avenue, last evening and discussed plans and arrangements for their trip to the national convention, which will be held in Boston, Mass., next August. The organizations which have taken steps in this direction formed tourist clubs and the membership is very large, and the meeting of the delegates last evening was to discuss railroad rates, hotel accommodations, transportation, and other matters pertaining to their trip. In order to enjoy the benefits that will accrue from being united, the delegates recently met and adopted the name of "The Tourist Union of Scranton."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orville Dimmick, who were married recently, have returned from a pleasant wedding tour through the South, and will occupy their new home on Grand View avenue, Arlington Heights.

Two Mutes Placed Under Arrest.

The much talked about nineteen men of this side who have been arrested for selling liquor without a license will have another meeting this evening, and indications point that a permanent organization will be formed by these men as a majority of them are of the opinion that they will best Traver, the prosecutor, when the cases come to trial and again several of the defendants state that the cases will be ignored by the grand jury.

The men who meet tonight will decide to instruct their attorney to make a test case of the Brooks high license law. To a Tribune reporter last night one of the men arrested, stated that the Brooks law is unconstitutional, and they intend to bring the matter into court.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Many of the prominent young people of this side were in attendance Saturday evening at receptions given at the residences of well known people. Miss Lena Kessler, daughter of George and Mrs. Kessler, of Cedar avenue, was the guest of honor. Miss Kessler will leave for a visit to Germany in a few weeks, and the event of Saturday night was in a sense a farewell to the popular young woman. A very pleasant evening was spent, and her guests were Misses Kate Levert, Amelia Blecher, Lena Klee, Bertha Krummenauer, Augustus Weiner, Mollis Fassinger, Mary Shilock, Emma Blecher, Mammie Siallet, Emil Geigins, William Hueter, George Maus, Jacob Angle, John Young, Fred Kessler, August Spletzer, Henry and John Levert, George Ketric, Albert Blinger, Herman Blecher, John Altreich and George Keldulad.
