Entertainment and Banquet of Ancient Order of Foresters.

WAS A VERY ENJOYABLE EVENT

Programme of the Eisteddfod That Will Be Held in Puritan Congregational Church April 12 -- T. H. C. announced at the conclusion of the en-Maloney Causes the Arrest of An- tertainment. The successful contestant other Batch of Alleged Speakensy Proprietors -- William Mutchrone Injured in the Marvine Minc.

The entertainment and banquet of Court Robin Hood, Ancient Order of Foresters, and the members of the juvenile lodge in Archbald's hall last evening was an enjoyable affair that will not soon be forgotten by those who had the good fortune to be present. The lodges had decorated the hall in an elaborate manner, in anticipation of the event. The chairman of the evening was David Jehu, who, in a pithy speech, introduced William T. Lewis, of Court Pride of Lackawanna.

Mr. Lewis made a speech, during which he dwelt at some length on the good accomplished by the order. He concluded his address by complimenting and congratulating the lodges on the position which they occupied. The programme was resumed at the conclusion of Mr. Lewis' speech The singing of Mrs. David D. Lewis captivated the audience. She was compelled to respond repeatedly to the encores of the enthusiastic audience. Those present were served with eatables at the conclusion of the entertaloment by the wives of the members. The following comprised the committee who had the arrangements of the banquet in charge: James B. Davis, Fred. Oselum, Thomas Jehu and Richard Sharpless, J. B. Davis of the Juvenfle lodge.

An enthusiastic meeting was held last evening at the Allis mission on Crisp avenue. The purpose of the session was to consider the proposition of the erection of a large and better edifice in which to conduct their services. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church, of which the mission is a branch, was chairman and was assisted by William Crawford, who about seventy-five persons in attendance and they resolved themselves into a committee of the whole and agreed to begin immediately the arrangements oward erecting the proposed edifice.

They already own two lots (80x200) upon Keyser avenue, at the corner of Luzerne street. The foundation will be other preliminaries will be commenced this week. In addition to other business, twelve new members were en-rolled. The affairs of the mission are n a first-class condition and much progress has been made since Mr. Crawford took hold.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL. The members of class No. 3 of the Hampton Street Methodist Sabbath school held a very successful entertainment and social at the church last even-prepared and was rendered to the satisfaction of the large audience. Prof. Bert Stone, instructor of the class, acted as chairman and refreshments were served at the close of the entertainment. The programme as carried out consisted of the following: Selection by the orchestra, followed by the invo-cation pronounced by Rev. F. P. Doty; song by the class was then given; recitations by the Misses Louise Burschel, Effie Browning, Nettie Lewis and Anna Thomas, and William Williams and Charles Bennett were well given; olos were rendered by Miss Margaret Jones, Mrs. Frank Brundage, Edwin Bowen and Mr. Pillings.
