William Snaith Was Arrested on Charge of Making Threats.

INTEREST TO THE ORDERS

Visit to Navajo Tribe of Red Men by Past Great Sachem Clymer and Past Sachem Hollis -- Dray Wagon Stuck in the Mud on South Main Avenue -- Interesting Meeting of the Pickwickians -- Eleazer Howells Cendered a Surprise Party.

William Snaith, better known as William "Pinder," resides with his family at 116 South Grant avenue, but last night he slept in the West Side station house. This was brought about by the swearing out of a warrant before Alderman Johns by Mr. Snaith's brother, Edward, who boards with him, and its service upon him by Lieutenant Williams.

The purpose of the warrant was to prevent Mr. Snaith from carrying out his "threats to kill," as was sworn to by the brother. Snaith had driven his wife, children and brother from the house and locked the doors.

It was said that he had armed himself with a shot gun and when Lieutenant Williams succeeded in gaining an entrance, he found this to be a fact It was a double barreled weapon and one barrel was charged. Mr. Snaith offered no particular resistance to arrest and will be given a hearing this morning before Alderman John.

AMONG THE ORDERS.

The members of Navajo tribe, No 105, Improved Order of Red Men, met in regular session last evening in Red Men's hall, South Main avenue, and it proved to be the most interesting session held for sometime. The noble Red Men of this tribe had the signal honor of being visited by Past Great Sachem Joseph W. Clymer, and Past Sachem J. T. Hollis, beth of Philadelphia, also Dr. S. W. Thompson, of Danville, who is a candidate for the office of great junior sagamore, of the state council. Dr. Thompson is asso clate judge of Montour county, There were many other high chiefs of sister tribes present and at the conclusion of the regular business, speeches and cigars were in order.

Last evening the Daughters of Naomi, No. 29, Knights of the Mystic Chain, met for the first time in their new quarters in Ivorite hall, South Main avenue. After carrying out their regular business order, the ladles and their friends observed the transfer by a short social session. Cake, coffee and ice cream were served. MR, HOWELLS SURPRISED.

Eleazer Howells, of South Garfield avenue, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise tendered him by a large party of his friends Thursday evening at his residence. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by several members of the party and other pleasant diversions were instituted. The Klondike quartette, comprising Reese Reese, Caleb Evans, James McAnulty, Ben Morgans and Thomas Boston, were especially fine in their entertaining. Later on in the evening, refrashments were served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins and the Misses Mary Morgans, Cassie Davis, Mary Griffiths, Jennie Phillips, Harriet Jones, Elizabeth Morgans, Sadie Davis, Emma Henry and E. Rennie, Thomas and Stephen Boston, Ben and Henry Morgans, Caleb Evans, James McAnulty and David Howells.

STUCK IN THE MUD.

One of Drayman R. F. Post's dray vagons heavily laden with seventy-five bushels of potatoes proved too much for the team of horses attached to pull up South Main avenue, near Eynon street, yesterday afternoon. There is quite a grade between Hampton and Eynon streets along Main avenue and just now the mud is very deep and heavy. The team could not draw the load any further just as they neared Eynon street and came to a standstill. A passing teamster hitched his horse on, but that, too, proved fruitless, and the wagon would have had to be partly unloaded but for the timely assistance of a street car. A heavy piece of timber was procured and with the power, of the car behind and the pulling of the horses the wagon was carried across the top of the rise onto the level.

PICKWICKIANS MEET. Last evening's session of the Pickwicklans had just a tinge of the war spirit spread through it. It was quite natural after a series of talks upon the lives and works of such American authors as Irving to verge into a discussion of Monroe and his doctrine, The society met at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Sweet, of North Hyde Park avenue, President C. H. Hall presided. Miss Mary Daniels began the literary part of the evening's work by giving a well prepared sketch tee of arrangements was comprised of of Washington Irving's contemporaries, "The Knickerbocker Writers." Following this number was a series of selections from "The Tales of a Traveler" and a bright summary of the plan and style of the book, ably handled by Miss Anna Jones. Miss Hattie Coons had an essay upon "The Merit of Irving's Works, and a Comparison lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of With English Authors of That Time." Odd Fellows, was held last evening at | Miss Coons brought out several original ideas in her paper.

A NECKLACE OF PEARLS

Is a beautiful possession. If a woman owns one, and if a single pearl drops off the string, she makes haste to find and restore it. Good health is a more valuable possession than a necklace of the most beautiful pearls, yet one by one the jewels of health slip away, and women seem indifferent until it is almost too late, and they cannot be restored.

To die before you are really old is to suffer premature death, and that is a sin. It is a sin cause it is the result of repeated violations of nature's laws.

Pain, lassitude and weariness, inability to sleep, dreadful dreams, starting violently from sleep, are all symptoms of nerve trouble.

You cannot have nerve trouble and keep your health. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the womb, the ovaries and the bladder are affected. They are not vital organs, hence they give out soonest.

Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, by building up the nerves and restoring woman's organism to its natural state, relieves all these troublesome uterine symptoms. In confirmation of this we, by permission, refer to the following women, all of whom speak from experience: MISS CELIA VAN Honn, 1912 Sharswood St., Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss GRACE COLLORD, 1434 Eastern Ave., Cincinnati, O.; MRS. NEWELL, 50 Ryerson St., Brooklyn, N. Y.; MRS. ISABEL OBERG, 220 Chestnut St., Woburn, Mass., MRS. A. H. COLE, New Rochelle, N. Y., and many others

THIEVES AT WORK.

Clothes line thieves are rampant in the Twelfth ward, and during the past two weeks the goods of several families have been taken. From the lines in the gardens of Michael Cosgrove, John McHale and George Zang, of River street, clothes have been stolen twice in succession, and from the fact that only woman's apparel has been taken, the thieves are supposed to be

Tuesday night a large basket of wash oods was in the summer kitchen of John McHale, and the following mornng his daughter found the floor covered with the recently cleaused articles. Upon investigation it was ascertained that all the clothes belonging to the women folks were taken and not an article of clothing worn by the other sex was missing. The matter has been reported to acting Lieutenant of Police Gscheidle and last night two patrolmen in citizens' attire, kept watch on a line of clothes hung out to entrap the thieves.

LUNCHES DISAPPEARED.

For many weeks past the men employed nights at the blast furnace have, at lunch time, discovered that the choicest eatables had disappeared from their pails, and in many instance pail and food was not to be found The men, as a rule laid their pails in a cool spot, and in sheds about the works, until the stealing became very frequent. Then a careful watch was kent.

The men resolved to engage the ser vices of a special officer, and last night Special Officer Hoffman went or duty with the night gang. Shortly after dark two lads were seen loitering around, and the officer watched and followed them to a shed where all the dinner pails of the men were placed last night by agreement. The boys went in, and in an instant ran out with four dinner buckets. The officer gave chase and caught the thieves, and had them return the pails. He took them to the Alder street station house The prisoners gave their names as John and Fred Schriner, of 246 River street, and stated their ages were 13 and 15 years respectively. They will be given a hearing this morning.

VALUABLES DISCOVERED. A crowd of boys were playing yes terday afternoon, after school hours "Cowfield," a spot well known to nearly every resident of this side, especially to the many whose boyhood lays have been spent here, and the lads, in their sport, noticed a newly dug spot, and acting upon the sug-gestion of one of the crowd shovels were procured, and the dirt removed to a depth of four feet, and plunder was discovered. A shovel struck a new onyx clock, and it was removed David Ayers, of South Washington avenue, who handed the clock to his ompanions, began to search the and a gold watch was found and later several trinkets were unearthed,

The booty was taken to Ayers' hon and is awaiting on the owner. Earlier in the day, Frank Kehler, of Elm street, was crossing the field and he found a silver watch. Ayers stated he will bring the articles to the central police station this morning.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT. An accident, singular in occurrence happened to Harry Thomas yesterday. Thomas is employed in the office of the Meadow Brook colliery, and he was in the yard at the office cleaning his bicycle, and standing by was a curious boy who looked on,

Mr. Thomas' right hand was in the sprocket wheel, and his left hand was supporting the machine, it being raised from the ground. This curious lad, catching one of the tires, sent the wheel around with rapidity, and Thomas dropped the bleyele, but the three first fingers of his hand were badly torn. He was hastily driven to Dr. Manley's office and the injured members were attended. Amputation of an inch of each finger was neces-
