THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 14.-The stock and bond markets were strong throughout today. Different opinions were offered as to the cause of this and probably had some truth in them. That the excors of buoyancy was a surprise to nuny professional traders, even to those who expected some natural rebound from Saturday's excessive depræ sjon, was evident. There was nothing in the news of the day to change aterially the political outlook and that there were many holders of securities who continued nervous was evident from the large offerings to realize with the sharp rise at the opening, but the reaction which resulted from T. I. LACEY & SON. ARCHITECTS, these offerings was more than over-traders' National Bank. come, even those stocks which showed the largest gains at the opening rising again to the highest and those which had been less affected at the opening rising in some cases over a point above the early high prices. The firmness of prices was sustained to the close. Total sales were 436,600 shares. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN ALLEN & CO., stock brokers, Mears building, rooms 705-706.

SIGNIFICANCE OF NAMES. "Thus Moses is from an Egyptian oot, Mosheh, which means "brought forth," or drawn out of the water. Hannah called her first born Samuel, "heard of God." Judah signifies "praise." The names of the Hebrew people are a remarkable monument to their peculiar calling as a nation, and to their rich devotional spirit. And thus with this name of Jesus, which is above every name as his conception was by the overshadowing of the Almighty and all the circumstances of his birth, of divine ordering, so was not even his name left to him an ingenuity or plous tember, 8½c.; large October, 7¼a8c.; small | sentiment, but was angel sent and an-

He has many names in Scripture, but none other which so clearly defines his mission to seek and to save that which was lost. His moral character and spotless life are worthy of infinite praise, but his name fixes our gaze upon him as our great atoning Savior. Hence among all the names of Christ this will shine throughout all eternity as that which distinguishes him from all creation, a name infinitely precious to the redeemed soul no other name suggests such a delightful train of holy reminiscence, from no other name has so much been derived, in no other name is felt such unwavering confidence, and to no

"This salvation is a double one, from the guilt and eventually from the power of sin. In the gift to this world of God's only son, we behold our only hope, in him our great atoning sacrifice by which our guilt is purged away, and the enormous dobt which we owed to justice because of broken law, and which rendered us hopelessly insolvent, cancelled forever. But salvation from the guilt and eternal consequences of work of redemption, immortalized by the name of Jesus. He saves his people not only from the guilt of sin, but 'from their sins.' Fake religion, however brilliantly it may declaim, seeks to save men in their sins. True religion ever keeps before it one constant purpose, the complete emancipation of can from his sins.
