The North Main Avenue Baptist church congregation took definite action last evening on the question of erecting a new church. The invitation for those comprising the congregation to be present last evening at the meeting met with a hearty response and the edifice was crowded. meeting was called to order and the Rev. W. G. Watkins was chosen as moderator. The ways and means committee, through its secretary, Mr. Rowles, made a report to the effect that William Chappell'had been selected to wait upon Michael Hannick, the owner of the vacant lot, on the corner of North Main avenue and Oak street, which is generally considered the best of all available lots.

The lot has a frontage of 79 feet on North Main avenue, and 192 feet on Oak street. The price of this piece of property is $5,500. The matter of purchasing the property was laid before the congregation for their sanction, and after a brief deliberation it was unanimously agreed that they should proceed at once to secure it, as Mr. Hannick gave them only today to close the deal. It is probable that the property will be secured by this evening. A price has not been placed upon the present church, but in all likelihood it will be disposed of at $6,000. It will take considerable time before the new church will be erected.

OLD HOUSE DESTROYED.

One of the old Delaware and Hudson company's houses on Putnam street, near the shaft, was discovered to be on fire last evening, and left burning by the inhabitants until the flames threatened the safety of adjoining property. A still alarm was sent in to the Liberty and Excelsior hose companies who responded and extinguished the flames without much difficulty. The house was untenanted, the last tenant being Patrick Flannery, who vacated the property some two weeks ago. Since then the small boys have played havoc with the structure, divesting it of anything that was valuable and leaving it in a delapidated

A PINK TEA.

A dime entertainment and "Pink" social will be held at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church on Thursday evening next, March 17, under the auspices of the Band of Hope, when an excellent programme will be rendered. A. E. Morse, with that wonderful instrument, the phonograph, will give several selections. H. T. Bradshaw will also give some fine stereopticon views, with some songs and recitations by the most talented amateurs of the city. Following the entertainment the little folks of the Band of Hope will have charge of the social, and will wait on the tables, and serve sandwich and coffee, cake, ice cream, and home made candles of the finest quality. The prevailing color of the costumes for the evening will be "rink."

The literary and Debating society of St. Brenden council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, will take on a new ease of life when it begins the regular work after Lent. The society has done but little along its intended lines for some months past. Partly because of the series of debates between the several councils of the institute in the city being carried on, and partly because of the departure of their sponsor, Rev. P. J. McNally, to a new field of labor at Georgetown, Pa.

Recently, however, the society asked Rev. A. T. Broderick, who succeeded Rev. P. J. McNally at St. Patrick's church, to take his place as sponsor to the society. Father Broderick did so and plans preliminary in nature were outlined for the future work at a recent meeting. The debates was not, as formerly, be the principal part of each evening's programme, more attention being paid to the literary part thereof, hereafter. The meetings will probably be held once a week or oftener instead of every two weeks as hith-A progressive plan of literary study calculated to be educational in form, will be arranged and carried out. These are but the bare ideas from which the future course of the society will be laid out, but they are sufficient to indicate that some good results can be expected. The next meeting will probably be held sometime this week.

MEETING OF K. OF K'S. The K. of K's Literary Social and Debating club met in regular weekly ession last evening at the home of Mrs. A. A.
