

DAY'S DOINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

Marriage of Miss Anale Jenkins to George Schellhase at Bride's Home.

IT WAS A BRILLIANT EVENT

Reception Tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richards in Honor of Their Marriage--Congregation of Methodist Church Ask for the Return of Rev. William Edgar--Five Alleged Violators of the Liquor Laws Arrested--Minor News Jottings.

A wedding of unusual brilliancy took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins, of Putnam street. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Anale Jenkins, and George Schellhase. The ceremony was performed in the presence of many friends in the parlor, which was elaborately decorated with palms and cut plants. At 8 o'clock the wedding service was conducted by Miss Maud Hebe and Lorimer Bonner, both of Wilkes-Barre. A beautiful wedding march was played by Miss Alma Clancy.

Mrs. Charles Richards at the home of William Richards, of 1717 Summit avenue, last evening. The event was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richards' marriage, which occurred yesterday in the First Welsh Baptist church of the West Side.

The house and its surroundings were made merry by the large throng, who indulged in games and other diversions. Several vocal selections were rendered. During the evening a running supper was served. The wedding presents were many and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Richards will reside here.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE. The fourth quarterly conference of Providence Methodist Episcopal church was held on Tuesday evening. This conference is composed of trustees, stewards, exhorters, local preachers, class leaders and other officials of the church. There was an unusually large attendance. The work of the past year was reviewed under the direction of the presiding elder, Rev. J. G. Eckman, D. D. Plans were adopted for future work.

WILL MAKE A CHANGE. The Garfield lodge, formerly a member of the order of Loyal Knights of America, has renounced its allegiance to that order and is now about to become a subordinate of the Knights of Pythias. Such was the action decided upon by a number of the members of the lodge at a meeting last Tuesday evening.

MORE ARRESTS. Five more proprietors of alleged "speakeasies" were arraigned last evening before Alderman Roberts. The prosecutor in each case was T. H. C. Maloney. They are: Owen J. Ferguson, John A. Winters, of Pine Brook; Mary A. Purcell, Frank Wantroensk, Mary and Johnny Kustodki, of Priceburg. All were held in $500 bail.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The funeral of William Blanchard will take place this afternoon from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blanchard, of East Market street. Interment will be made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Mark Hallstead, of Binghamton, N. Y., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallstead, of Oak street.

Miss Lucy Lynn, of Hawley, is visiting relatives here.

Rev. Edwin B. Oimstead, of Binghamton, secretary for many years of the Wyoming conference, will lecture in the Methodist Episcopal church this evening on "Some Leaves from My Vacation Note Books." Mr. Oimstead has just returned from a tour of lecturing abroad into a delightful lecture.

Reception last evening. A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richards at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wm. Jenkins, on Putnam street.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

The Dagger-Richards Wedding at Congregational Church.

SNEAK THIEVES AT THEIR WORK

They Secure Booty, Valued at $150, from the Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, of Main Avenue--Three Boys Who Run Away from Home Are Taken Into Custody by the Police--Events Scheduled Tonight, Personal and Other Items.

Miss Elizabeth, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dagger, of Poage street, was united in matrimony to Charles Richards, of North Scranton, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Welsh Congregational church.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives who were in attendance. At the stated hour the wedding march from Lohengrin announced the approach of the bride party, and John Jones and Frank Bevan, ushers, led the way, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Richards, a sister of the groom. The bride, leaning on her father's arm, came next. The party were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Handel Jones, accompanied by the other two ushers, David James and Edward Edwards.

During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. M. H. Jones, of Parsons, assisted by Rev. W. F. Davies, of North Scranton, the organist, Mrs. D. B. Thomas, softly played the air from "O Promise Me." At the conclusion and as the bride party passed out, Mrs. Thomas rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was attended in a neat-fitting costume of cadet blue poplin, with satin trimmings, and wore a crown of flowers. The maid looked very pretty in a gown of military blue, with satin trimmings, and carried pink carnations. The party repaired to the residence of the groom's parents, at 1727 Summit avenue, where a reception was being given.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards are both well known young people of this section. Mrs. Richards being very popular among the younger members of the First Welsh Baptist church, while Mr. Richards is a trusted employee of the Delaware Lackawanna and Western railroad company and a tenor singer of no mean ability. They will reside for the present with their parents, in North Scranton.

BURGLARS AT WORK. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeman left their residence, at the corner of Scotch Main avenue and Washburn street, about 7:45 o'clock to attend a concert at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, just about 500 feet distant. They returned about 10 o'clock.

During the period of their absence persons, as yet unascertained, entered the house and ransacked it from top to bottom. They secured booty to the value of about $150. The articles taken comprised jewelry, etc., and a purse containing a small sum of money, the property of Mrs. Freeman.

It was during piece of work, as it is quite light in evening and up to 10:30 o'clock many people pass within twenty or one hundred feet on either Washburn street or Main avenue. Everything seems to indicate that the burglars were well acquainted with the fact that there was no one at home at Freeman's or at the parsonage next door on Washburn street, where Rev. J. P. Moffitt resides. The police are at work upon the case.

THREE BOYS ARRESTED.

David Lewis, Edward Jones and John Jones, 14, 13 and 15 years of age respectively, were arrested last afternoon by Patrolman Hart, near the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western crossing on West Lackawanna avenue. The parents of each boy were notified and the two Jones boys were taken to their respective homes, whereas the last boy was allowed to remain at the station house.

Last evening all three were given a hearing before Alderman Kellow. There was no particular charge against them. Their parents had asked that if the boys were seen roaming around that they be arrested, as yet unascertained persons had been there before so that place became the objective point.

Traveled-stained and footsore-laddies were they when they at last reached the uncle's residence. Greetings were given and taken, but the old gentleman's suspicions were aroused, and he wrote to his brother, Thomas Lewis, of Jackson street. In reply he received instructions from both Mr. Lewis and John Jones and Thomas B. Jones, the three worried fathers to hasten their sons on the backward journey immediately. They arrived here early yesterday morning, and were on their way to their homes when accosted by Patrolman Hart.

The above is Lewis' explanation. Not either of the three boys had first spoken of going away to their parents, and the anxiety of their parents caused the intervention of the police for fear of their getting into trouble.

SOME SOCIAL AFFAIRS. Today is the day which is dear to the heart of every son of the Emerald Isle. It marks the anniversary of the birth of the late patron saint, St. Patrick. This evening an affair will be held at Mears' hall fitly observing the day by Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians. Not only has a well selected programme been arranged, but Rev. E. S. Phillips, of Hazelton, is expected to be present and will speak.

The evening will be opened with an address by Chairman M. H. Healey. A solo by Edward Walsh will follow. Rev. E. S. Phillips will then speak. Sketches by Stevens and Cole, Franey, Davitt and Salmon. Declaration by Gilroy and Duffy. Plans solo by Miss Jennie Buckle, recitation by Honor Mellett,

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

Little Girl Had a Desperate Battle with a Newfoundland Dog.

THE FUNERAL OF THOMAS MAHON

Attended by a Large Number of Sorrowing Relatives and Friends. Ground Broken for the Addition to the Button Factory--Florence Phillips Had Both Hands Burned by Falling into a Fire--Entertainments Arranged for This Evening.

Helen, the little daughter of James McHeldrick, of 305 Prospect avenue, had a terrible battle with the family dog yesterday morning. The little one was playing in the yard with her favorite large Newfoundland, as had been the custom of the two companions for years, and suddenly the canine jumped on Helen, and felled her to the ground.

The screams of the girl brought her mother to the scene, but before the maddened dog was compelled to release his victim, the right arm of the child was badly torn, the dog having sank his teeth into it. A physician was hastily called for and the wound was cankerized. Last night the dog was shot and killed.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS MAHON.

The funeral of the late Thomas Mahon took place yesterday morning, and the vast concourse of sorrowing friends present at the obsequies eloquently attested the popularity of the deceased, and the esteem in which he was held. Long before the appointed hour the cortege to move the home of the dead young man was thronged, and hundreds passed through the parlor, where the remains reposed, to take a parting look upon that which was mortal.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. H. M. Williams has taken charge of the tenorial parlors at 1103 Jackson street, formerly in charge of Samuel Davis.

The remains of Etta, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCAndrew, of Cameron avenue, were borne to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery yesterday, and laid to rest. Many of the bereaved parents were in attendance and the floral offerings were very beautiful.

William F. Canterbury, jr., of Frink street, came before Alderman John last evening and waived a hearing upon two separate charges, assault and battery, and peevishness. He entered bail in the sum of $300 for each case for his appearance at court. The first charge was preferred by his sister, Mrs. Ellen Thomas and the other by his brother, Joseph H. Canterbury. These cases grew out of suits instituted against the parties by the defendant, a report of which appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune.

Tomorrow evening Professor Dougherty will hold a public examination at his business school on North Main avenue, to which the public are invited. All the branches taught at a business school will be included in the examination. John L. Jones will deliver an address during the evening. He is one of the graduates.

The dining entertainment to be held this evening at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Band of Hope, promises to be quite successful. In addition to the stereopticon views by Mr. Bradshaw and the photograph operated by Mr. Morse, the following young ladies will take part: Misses Norma Hughes, Marion Jones, Lillian Tewkesbury, Mattie and Jennie Hughes, all of whom are well known as to their talent. The entertainment will begin at 8 p. m. sharp, after which the little folks will conduct a sing and will serve sandwiches, cake, coffee, candies and ice cream at reasonable rates.

GREEN RIDGE.

John E. O'Boyle, of Boston, whose mother died a short time ago, returned home yesterday.

C. W. Thompson, of Sanderson avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time, is able to be about again.

Otis Stark, who has been the guest of D. G. Foote, of Penn avenue, returned to his home in Nicholson yesterday.

The young men of the Presbyterian church will hold a meeting in the church parlors Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. E. C. Dimmick and daughters, of the Avonerton avenue, will sail for Europe April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins, of Gilbertsville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins, of Deacon street.

Miss W. T. Burns, of Market street, is spending a few days in New York city.

The Green Ridge library is closed on account of the death of its librarian, Miss Emma Thompson. It will reopen after the funeral.

T. J. Snowden, of Sunset avenue, was seriously injured by a fall from his bicycle Monday.

Mrs. John James and daughter, of New York city, are the guests of Mrs. Thomas James, of Fordham street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Orenboll, of Capouse avenue, spent several days with friends at Pittston.

Attorney P. Wiedeman is spending a few days in Washington, D. C. Milo Dolph, of Capouse avenue, who is an elevator boy in the Board of Trade building, had his arm broken yesterday.

MINOOKA.

The remains of an infant child of John James, of West Minooka, will be interred in the Forest Home cemetery, Taylor, this afternoon.

THE FUNERAL OF THOMAS MAHON

Attended by a Large Number of Sorrowing Relatives and Friends.

Ground Broken for the Addition to the Button Factory--Florence Phillips Had Both Hands Burned by Falling into a Fire--Entertainments Arranged for This Evening.

Helen, the little daughter of James McHeldrick, of 305 Prospect avenue, had a terrible battle with the family dog yesterday morning. The little one was playing in the yard with her favorite large Newfoundland, as had been the custom of the two companions for years, and suddenly the canine jumped on Helen, and felled her to the ground.

The screams of the girl brought her mother to the scene, but before the maddened dog was compelled to release his victim, the right arm of the child was badly torn, the dog having sank his teeth into it. A physician was hastily called for and the wound was cankerized. Last night the dog was shot and killed.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS MAHON.

The funeral of the late Thomas Mahon took place yesterday morning, and the vast concourse of sorrowing friends present at the obsequies eloquently attested the popularity of the deceased, and the esteem in which he was held. Long before the appointed hour the cortege to move the home of the dead young man was thronged, and hundreds passed through the parlor, where the remains reposed, to take a parting look upon that which was mortal.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. H. M. Williams has taken charge of the tenorial parlors at 1103 Jackson street, formerly in charge of Samuel Davis.

The remains of Etta, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCAndrew, of Cameron avenue, were borne to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery yesterday, and laid to rest. Many of the bereaved parents were in attendance and the floral offerings were very beautiful.

William F. Canterbury, jr., of Frink street, came before Alderman John last evening and waived a hearing upon two separate charges, assault and battery, and peevishness. He entered bail in the sum of $300 for each case for his appearance at court. The first charge was preferred by his sister, Mrs. Ellen Thomas and the other by his brother, Joseph H. Canterbury. These cases grew out of suits instituted against the parties by the defendant, a report of which appeared in yesterday's issue of the Tribune.

Tomorrow evening Professor Dougherty will hold a public examination at his business school on North Main avenue, to which the public are invited. All the branches taught at a business school will be included in the examination. John L. Jones will deliver an address during the evening. He is one of the graduates.

The dining entertainment to be held this evening at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Band of Hope, promises to be quite successful. In addition to the stereopticon views by Mr. Bradshaw and the photograph operated by Mr. Morse, the following young ladies will take part: Misses Norma Hughes, Marion Jones, Lillian Tewkesbury, Mattie and Jennie Hughes, all of whom are well known as to their talent. The entertainment will begin at 8 p. m. sharp, after which the little folks will conduct a sing and will serve sandwiches, cake, coffee, candies and ice cream at reasonable rates.

BOTH HANDS BURNED.

Florence Phillips, daughter of Jacob Phillips, of 517 Cedar avenue, had her both hands burned severely yesterday. She was in the yard in the rear of her home burning a lot of rubbish, and while standing near the flames she, in an unaccountable manner, lost her balance and fell into the fire.

Presence of mind saved her from greater injuries, for when falling she stretched both arms downward, thus protecting her head and face. Doctor Burns was summoned and dressed the burns.

NEWS OF NEWS.

In many halls on this side tonight entertainments and dances will be conducted. St. Aloysius Young Men's society and their friends will assemble in the basement of St. Paul's Catholic church to listen to a concert in which the best talent of this side will appear, also to hear Attorney P. A. O'Boyle, of Pittston, orate upon the insurrection of '98.

The "unique" entertainment at the Young Women's Christian association rooms tonight will draw a large number of the friends of the association together. Miss Van Nort has arranged a good programme.

The Lackawanna Vaudeville club will give an excellent programme in St. John's hall tonight, and in the conclusion there will be dancing.

Superintendent of Schools George Howells visited No. 8 school yesterday and spent much time in examining the drawing papers of the pupils. The night session of the school ended last night, and the term was successful in every respect. The department of the boys attending was good, considering what a boisterous, yet happy crowd attend the night schools. Joseph Johler was principal during the term, and he was assisted by Miss Edna Klammer.

The funeral of the late James Williams will take place this morning. A mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. John's church at 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rosen were married eleven years ago today.

Frank Higgins, until recently of the Valley House barber shop, has succeeded John Farrell, of Prospect avenue.

The funeral of the late Joachim Klump, whose tragic death was mentioned in yesterday's Tribune, will take place from his late residence tomorrow morning.

The engagement of Herman Eckels to Miss Lizzie Stork has been announced.

First of the Season.

John Warner, jr., of Birney avenue, is confined to his home with an attack of malarial fever.

The Best Food. In the world will not build up the wasted substance of humanity unless your stomach is in proper shape to properly digest it. It is the one organ that must be right or else others will soon be wrong--producing sickness. Aid digestion and your stomach will help you to keep every other organ in good order, thus producing health. Johann Hoff's Malt Extract. Aids Digestion. MAKES FLESH AND BLOOD. AVOID SUBSTITUTES.

New Model 1898 Spalding Bicycle, $50.00. Florey & Brooks, 211 N. Washington Ave.

Spring Hats On Sale Now at Conrad's The Miller & Stetson Agency. 305 Lacka. Ave.

Steam and Hot Water HEATING Gas, Electric And Combination FIXTURES Electric Light... WIRING Charles B. Scott, 119 Franklin Ave.

Ground Broken for Convent. It Will Be Erected Near St. Paul's Church, Green Ridge. Ground was broken yesterday morning at Green Ridge for the new convent of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart which is to be erected near St. Paul's church.

Indapo Made a well Man of Me. THE GREAT HINDOO REMEDY. Results in 30 days. Cures Nervous Debility, Fading Memory, Headache, Stomach Trouble, Dropsy, Female Sterility, Night Sweats, Indigestion, etc.

Lackawanna Lumber Co., MANUFACTURERS OF GANG SAWED PENNA. WHITE PINE AND HARDWOOD LUMBER. Bill Timber cut to order on short notice. Hardwood Mine Ralls sawed to uniform lengths constantly on hand. Pealed Heme Ralls Prop Timber promptly furnished. MILLS--At Cross Fork, Potter Co., on the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad. At Mina, Potter County, Pa., on Condersport, and Fort Allegany Railroad. Capacity--300,000 feet per day. GENERAL OFFICE--Board of Trade Building, Scranton, Pa. Telephone No. 4013.

Globe Warehouse

Maybe Or we might say probably, you have been thinking of fashions in gowns for the coming Spring. If you have not, it will be pleasant for you to know that we have done a lot of thinking for you, and the outcome of our thoughts awaits your inspection in our Cloak Department today or any day from this date forward.

Tailored Gowns being fashionable, it follows that such materials as Coverts, Broad Cloths, Tweeds, etc., are the leaders in popular favor. In these we show many examples of high-class costumes art, notably a New Style Jacket Suit at $18. This is made up from new Bicycle Cloth and runs in Cadet Blue, Greenish mixtures, etc.

Another Suit at Only $12.50. Will win many admirers. It is made up from English Twill Covert Cloth, has all the fashion can give it to make it correct, and is as well finished as the foregoing higher priced suit. For Spring wear nothing could be more suitable, as the jacket may be worn separately or the skirt separately, as desired.

Yet These Are Only Two out of many, and nothing but a visit will give you an adequate idea of the inducements our stock really offers. Silk Skirts for Ladies. Traveling Suits for Ladies. Smart Jackets for Children. Stylish Waists for Misses and Women. Smart Spring Jackets--all sizes, and the other etceteras to be found in a first-class cloak and suit house await your inspection.

Globe Warehouse