HAPPY SURPRISE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Yarns, of Belmont street, was invaded Tuesday evening by members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who had learned that it was Mr. Yarns' forty-eighth birthday. The host and hosters soon made themselves equal to the occasion, but were again thrust into surprise when Mr. Yarns was ordered to seat himself in a pretty and comfortable rocker which was presented by William Blake in a felictous speech, he being the silver-tongued orator of the party. Music and rec-ollections of the old days on the road made the evening pass speedily. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock and the party dispersed wishing Mr. Yarns many happy birthdays in the years to come. Those present were: Messrs. J. Eithel, William Blake, O. E. H. Histed, William Krantz, John Maxwell, Sidney Colwell, Henry Isgar, Thomaz Davis, Josiah Vandermark.

There has been quite a good attendance and people have been very much helped. On Monday evening Rev. C. A. Spaulding, of Elmhurst, preached, and on Tuesday evening Rev. W. G. Watkins, of Scranton, delivered an excellent sermon. Pastor Thompson has been as sisted by other ministers. Richard Rapson, who has been in the employ of the Exeter machine shops for some time, has gone to New York city, where he will be engaged in putting machinery in a large sugar refinery there. Chicken thieves are making visits in the henneries about the town. There are many human parasites in this world, and Wyoming is not entirely without some. Many of the residents about town have been putting red ashes on the walks in front of their houses, which have been a great improvement to the sidewalks.

The handsome new residence of Dr. E. S. Hays is nearing completion. It is an up-to-date structure with all modern improvements. He will probably be able to move in about April 1. Mns. Edward Reese died on Tuesday after a short illness. She had been married only about a year and was a member of the Baptist church,

Mrs. William McClane, of Scranton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Davies, on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greggs were in Scranton on Sunday attending the funeral of a friend.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Most Remarkable Address by a Judge Known in Criminal Annals.

from the American Bar. Judge Benedict, who was associate justice of the Supreme court of New Mexico for thirteen years, from 1853, was an original character in many ways. One Jose Maria Martin had been convicted in his court of murder under a state of facts showing great brutality and with no mitigating circumstances, whereupon Judge Benedict sentenced him to death in the following language: "Jose Maria Martin, stand up. Jos Maria Martin, you have been indicted. tried and convicted by a jury of your countrymen of the crime of murder, and the court is now about to pass upon you the dread sentence of the law. As a usual thing, Jose Maria Martin, it is a painful duty for the judge of a court of justice to pronounce upon a human being the sentence of death There is something horrible about it, and the mind of the court naturally revolts from the performance of such duty. Happily, however, your case
