the leader of the Order of the Holy Cross, is to be here next week, has aroused much interest where this emnent worker's career is known. He is the son of Bishop Huntington, of New York, is yet a young man, but has devoted his life to personal service for the Master. The Holy Cross is the oldest order in the American church and the members devote themselves to corducting missions and retreats. Westminster, Md., is the home of the order. Father Huntington is marvelously gifted in his methods of reach-ing non-church goers and his unpas-sioned words are always heard by things. He will speak on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at St. Mark's Episcopal chapel, Dunmore, and will also be heard at the noonday service at Str Luke's on Wednesday and Thursday. Father Huntington is a personal friend of Rev. E. J. Haughton, rector of St. Mark's, at whose invitation he is here. He is a great friend of the workingman and holds pronounced views on the single tax question. His advent here at this time is preparatory to conducting a mission next au-

On Thursday the bulletin board in the hall at the Young Women's Christian association bore the prayer of St. Patrick when he entered upon the conversion of Ireland. It was this:

May the strength of God pilot me May the power of God preserve me, May the wisdom of God instruct me, May the eye of God view me, May the ear of God hear me,

Christ be with me, Christ in the hearts of all to whom

The Lenten readings at the Second Presbyterian church have afforded much enjoyment to a large number of listeners. Last Saturday night, Mr. J. H Torrey gave a delightful entertain-ment in his rendition of Tennyson's "Locksley Hall"-following with "Fif-ty Years After." This evening much pleasure is anticipated again as Mr. W. H. Buell will read from Tennyson's shorter poems.

Bishop Huntington, of the central New York Episcopal diocese, is 80 years old and has served that diocese twentynine years, visiting 150 parishes every year, however, imposes too heavy a tax on his strength, and for the first time he now expresses his willingness to have an assistant. Father Huntington, who is to be in Scranton next week at St. Luke's and St. Mark's churches, is the 30n of the bishop.

SMOOTH-TONGUED YOUNG MAN.

Represented That He Is the Son of Rev. Mr. Burrell, of New York.

A young man of pleasant address has been circulating during the week among gentlemen prominent in church work in the city asking for small loans to help him tide over a temporary financial crisis. He represented that he is a son of Rev. David James Burrell, pastor of Marble Collegiate Reformed church of New York and in some instances succeeded in getting

One of the places he visited was the residence of Rev. Dr. McLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. McLeod was not at home and the young man made his appeal to Mrs. McLeod. She is acquainted with Rev. Mr. Burrell and the members of his family and at once charged her caller with being an imposter. He took his departure from the house and probably from the city for he has not since been

The event of Easter week will be the concert by the Yale Glee and Banjo clubs. The Easter recess is brief with egard to its social possibilities as there are but two evenings for the college men and maldens to enjoy their comecoming in the way of entertainments. Owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bennell will give a coming-out party for Miss Bennell on Easter Monday night it has been decided to have the assembly at the Bicycle club on Tuesday night, after the Yale concert. Thus the visiting men will practically be given a reception and dance, while the assembly will receive additional attraction by their

At Yale there is perhaps no more popular undergraduate organization than the Glee and Banjo club. To be a member of this organization is, in the minds of many students, to reach the zenith of collegiate ambition. Every undergraduate who can hum an air or strum a banjo or tinkle a guitar hopes some day to have his ambition realized and secure one of the coveted posi-tions. There is untold pleasure and enjoyment to be had from the trips which the club makes, and certain bonor and distinction goes with membership in the club.

The selection of members of the organization is made with the greatest care by competitive examinations of applicants from all parts of the Uni-versity thereby keeping the club up to a very high standard. Both organizations-forming one club-are under the direction of competent professional musicians, the gentleman who directs the Glee club having held that position for over twenty years. Immediately after the clubs are completed rehearsals begin and continue with the in-demitable perseverance that is so characteristic of Yale, until the men are perfect in their parts,

The Monday Morning club has issued invitations to an illustrated lecture "From Lexington to Yorktown" to be given by Mr. W. W. Ellsworth, the accomplished speaker, Thursday evening, March 24, at the Bicycle club. The Morday Morning club has been for some time devoting its attention to Anterican history, having adopted that line of reading several months before the general fad for this topic swept over the reading clubs of America and evolved an enlarged edition of Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames et al. The club members are: Mrs. R. W. Archbald, Mrs. W. H. Buell, Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mrs. Rogers Israel, Mrs. E. S. Moffat, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. C. E. Robinson, Mrs. W. W. Scranton, Mrs. M. L. Blair, Mrs. A. M. Decker, Mrs. A. E. Hunt, Miss M. Mattes, Miss E. J. Platt, Mrs. R. J. Powell, Mrs. W. T. Smith, Mrs. C. H.

Just now the members of the Country club feel more or less afflicted according to their several abilities in the way of being expert in dodging locomotives while playing golf. If the proposed connection of the Eric and Wyoming with the Ontario and Westbeautifu links of the Country club will be irre parably injured. The track as recently surveyed will run between the first and second trees. The result will probably be that the course will be carried further back, while that now used in front, near the proposed site of the railway, will be abandoned.

The Chautauqua circle of the Young Women's Christian association, Mrs. H. J. Carr, leader, has issued invitations to the Chautauouans of Scranton to a reception at the roooms Tuesday evenwhen Miss Kate S. Kimball, Buffalo, the secretary of the Chautauqua movement, will be present. The invitation list includes past and present members of six different circles, Vincent, Anthracite, Cora A. Howe, Columbian, Elm Park, Imperial. It will be a most pleasant occasion and will be attended by a large number of prominent people of the city.

The following dispatch will be of in erest to a number of Scranton people: Pittsburg, Pa., March 17.—Contraite Claudia Carlestadt, of the Daniels Opera company, today announced that she would soon wed Albert Gallatin Wheeler, a banker and broker of New York neir to over $2,000,000, aged 23, and retire from the stage. ## FUNERAL OF MISS THOMPSON.

Services were Conducted at Green Ridge Episcopal Church.

The funeral of Miss Emma A. Thompson was held yesterday at 2 o'clock at the Green Ridge Episcopal church. Rev. F. S. Ballentine, assisted by Rev. Rogers Israel, conducted the service. The departing of one who has been so useful in the community deserves more than passing notice. When the Green Ridge Public library was founded Miss Thompson took charge of the work and ever since has had entire management of the institution as librarian. Her interest in the work was marked from the first and has never failed, and her patience and genial way endeared her to the young people who spent their evenings at the library building.

Before the Albright library opened to the public Miss Thompson to the merits of this great cure. that were made, having a wide knowlreading room being under her charge, and at night she was always to be found at her desk at the Green Ridge library. There are few to be found so devoted to any work as she was to hers. Her success in interesting the young people in reading and in the better class of literature was marked; and the knowledge of this success was to her a source edge of books and library methods.

And since that time she has been a regular employe of that institution.

Her days were spent here of late, the of great joy. At the funeral Mr. Carr. librarian of the Albright library, and the trustees of the Green Ridge library acted as pall-bearers. The high esteem in which Miss Phompson was held by friends and her ssociates in the work was evidenced by the profusion of wreaths and flowers that hid the casket from view.

This certainly can be said: "If faithfulness is a condition of reward, her reward will be a large one.

Easter Rates for Students.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey announces a special rate of one and a third fare for the round trip for students at schools, colleges and seminaries returning home for the Easter holidays. Tickets will be sold not later than three days after commencement of vacation, good returning within fifteen days from date of sale but in no case later than April 30. To be able to secure the reduced rates it will be necessary for students to present certificate signed by the proper officer of the school, college or eminary, showing that the holder is a student at such institution.

Bad Heart .- Could Not Lie Down to: Eighteen Months.

"I was unable to lie down in my bed for eighteen months, owing to smothering spells caused by heart disease. One bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart removed the trouble, and today I am as well as ever I was."-I. W. Law, Toronto Junction. This is but one of a thousand such testimonies had much to do in the preparations by Matthews Bros. and W. T. Clark
