I. O. O. F. INSTALLATIONS.

Dates Fixed for the Events of District Deputy Hughes.

George W, Hughes, of this city, has been appointed to succeed P. J. Vetter. of Scranton, as district deputy grand patriarch of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The appointment was brought about by the resignation of Mr. Vetter, who has left Scranton with a party bound for the Klondike.

Last evening Mr. Hughes installed the officers of Lackawanna encampment, No. 16, of this city. The officers of the following encampments will be installed in the order named: Monday March 21, No. 124, of Scranton; Monday, March 28, No. 81, Scranton; Monday, April 11, No. 263, of Jermyn.

The New Steam Power and Heat Corporation After Property.

It is understood the recently organized corporation which proposes furnishing steam power and heat to this this town. city has given $100 for an option on the Fowler & Bronson mill property, situated near the electric light plant. The consideration stipulated is $12,000 and the option will be valid until June 1, 1898

The location of the property is one of the most convenient available for the purposes sought and if the preliminarles of the heating project shall be suc-cessfully arranged, it is probable the mill building will change hands.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JONES.

The funeral of Mrs. John Y. The success of Sousa's new opera, "The Bride-Elect," has started the Sousa fairy tales, but here is one that rings true. It is a story of how Fran-cis Wilson lost a success and a composer practically found $35,000. It was five years ago that John Philip Sousa was asked by the comedian to write the music to a libretto of J. Cheever Goodwin. Sousa at that time was anxous to obtain a hearing as a comic opera composer, and he entered upon the work with so much enthusiasm that he soon completed one act and part of another. At this point the comedian and the composer disagreed upon terms and arbitration was found mpossible. Wilson has never been accused of being a spendthrift, and his invariable rule was to purchase outright and never pay royalties. Sousa refused to take less than $1,500 for a three-act piece, and Wilson refused to pay more than $1,000. Accordingly they agreed to disagree. About this time sousa signed a contract with new publishers, who demanded a composition of him at once. The latter thought of the march he had composed for the Wilson opera, and, digging it out of a mass of manuscript, he sent it to the publishers. Within six weeks after its publication "The Liberty Bell"-for hat was the march-had netted Sousa nore than Wilson offered to pay him or an entire opera, and up to date has paid the composer $35,000 in royalties. still making handsome returns every month.

..... PECKVILLE.

The Baptist church, of which the Rev Mr. Thomas is pastor, is at present holding a series of special evangelistic services. The church here is alive and active. There are unmistakable indications that there is much spiritual life among the members, and that much good work is being done. The pastor, Mr. Thomas, is a very earnest worker, a well-informed man and a spiritually minded minister. He works quietly, preaching the gospel in the church and visiting the people in their homes. The work done by the pastor and people of this church seems to be substantial and lasting. The Rev. James Hughes, formerly of South Africa, has been invited assist in these special efforts. > A retrospect of the last few years in the music world of Scranton shows one of the most encouraging and promising evidences of the appreciation of true music by the masses of the people of this city. And nowhere do these signs of progress make themselves more evident than in the musicians themselves, particularly the native musicians. There is hardly an instrument known to music which does not have a worthy exponent in the city of Scranton today. It must not be thought on this account, however, that with so many different paths before them that the students have sought only a popular mediocrity. There are quite a number of these musicians whose work has made them worthy of the kindest enniums of even the set asition.

Dear Sir:-I can bear testimony as to the merits of your remedy. Pe-ru-na. Thave been taking the same for some time, and am enjoying better health now than I have for some years. I attribute the change to Pe-ru-na, and recommend Pe-ru-na to every woman, believing if te be especially beneficial to them. - Mrs. A. L. Hamilton.

The ills of women are mysterious; they are called by many names. Some women suffer constantly, others periodically; some slightly, others severely. Few, indeed, are entirely well. Treatment of these troubles of women is seldom correct because their origin and their nature is not understood. The mucous membrane lines every organ of the body; wherever it is inflamed there is catarrh. If the congestion is in the head, nose or throat, we have catarrh there; if in the lungs, it is consumption; in the kidneys, Bright's disease; and catarrh of the pelvic organs is the bane of many a woman's life.

Dr. Hartman has been successfully combating and driving out catarrh for forty years. His treatment leaves people healthy. This is because it works in harmony with nature and does not oppose it anywhere.

The remedy used by Dr. Hartman for all phases of catarrh is Pe-ru-na. Its action on the nerves makes the membranes healthy. Pe-ru-na is harmless. It is a great tonic and has a peerless record of success. KAROLINA SUTER, of 2138 Vine St., Cincinnati, O., writes:
