DAY'S DOINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

Newly Elected Officers of Eastern Star Commandery Installed.

MR. AND MRS. FLMER REESE RECEIVE

Entertained a Company of Friends on Saturday Evening -- Miss Catherine Reese and David J. Williams Wedded at the Bride's Home. Shorter Notes of a Personal and News Nature.

The newly-elected officers of Eastern Star commandery, Ancient and Illustrious Order of Knights of Malta, were installed last evening.

The following were the officers installed: Sir knight commander, Wil-liam Smith; sir knight generalissimo, Richard Butland; sir knight captaingeneral, William H. Thomas; prelate, David Davies; first guard, Griffith James; second guard, Morgan Watkins; inner sentinel, William Evans; outside sentinel, David Gravelle.

MR, AND MRS. REESE ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reese gave a reception at their home on Williams street Saturday evening to a number of friends. During the evening instrumental and vocal selections were rendered. Those present were: Misses Lizzie Leonard, Alice Thomas, Hattle Richards, Bessie Evans, Mary C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. David P. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Davis, Thomas Owens and

REESE-WILLIAMS WEDDING.

Miss Catherine Reese and David J. Reese, rear of William street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John A. Evans, pastor of the West Market Street Welsh Baptist church. The bride was attended by Miss Mary A. Davies. The groom's brother, Joseph Williams, was best man. The ceremony was followed by a reception, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside at Lackawanns.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Rev. G. E. Guild, of North Main avenue, is entertaining his father, Truman Guild, of Walton, N. Y.
Miss Ella Thomas, of Factoryville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Hattie Sharpless, of North Main avenue, Jenkin Lewis, of Wilkes-Barre, called on friends in this end Saturday. Miles Barrett, of West Market street, is in Wilkes-Barre. Rev. W. F. Davies, of the Wayne Avenue Baptist church, preached yesterday in the Welsh Baptist church at Miss Elizabeth Henwood, of North Main avenue, left Saturday for a brief visit at Mansfield, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hatton, of William street, are rejoicing over the ar-street, is indisposed. William Tonnery, James McNulty and Patrick Malia were arrested by Constable Seth Smith, at the instance of Anthony Battle, who charged the defendants with assault and battery. The case was to have been heard by Alder-man Fidler Saturday evening, but the prosecutor failed to appear and the defendants were discharged.

Monday

Specials

Justin Walavictz was arrested on a Cave-la Occurred at the Luzerne and varrant issued by Alderman Fidler, at the instance of Ursulla Warcavitz, who alleged that Walavictz stole a sewing machine and clothes from the plaintiff's residence. The alderman held GAS AND WATER MAINS BROKEN

LIVE NEWS OF

In Mears' Hall.

and water to escape.

the street railway.

any damage.

occurred.

Main Avenue Corner.

The Cave was Filled Before Daylight

Yesterday and the Only Damage was to the Roadway and Tracks.

Concert and Dance to Be Given Tonight by the Woodworkers' Union

Shortly after midnight Saturday night, Patrolman Saul discovered a bad break in the gas and water mains crossing Luzerne street on South Main avenue. A cave-in had occurred of sufficient size as to break the mains, thus allowing a great quantity of gas

The Gas and Water company and Scranton Railway company were immediately notified. Each sent a large force of men to look after the repairs.

The pressure of both the gas and water at this point is very great and in a short time a stream of water was spurt.

ing like a fountain about three feet above the street level, and the gas was becoming almost unbearable. The caving-in occurred at a point almost in the centre of the intersection of the two streets and near the V-shaped junction of the Luzerne and Taylor tracks of

The great volume of water soon washed quite a gully in the roadbed and but for the large gutters and excellent grade to carry the water off.

goodly portion of the water disappeared into the hole. The opening was about ten feet long and six feet wide on the surface and affected about twelve feet was only about eleven feet from it.

None of the houses adjacent exhibited

The disturbance occurred in almost the identical spot as the cave of about three years ago, which spread over a considerable area and did much damage both to dwellings and land. Since

The base of the trouble is said to lie mines, which extend beneath this whole territory. There are three veins and all have been worked out and abandoned for several years. The only traces of yesterday morning's caving that remains is the cinder filling and the washed surface of the street wherever the water spread. No inconveni-everything was cleared up by daylight.

reached those families who were re-

Alderman Moses' a tap was left open for the air to escape and was forgot-and upon their return found a small

WORKERS WILL JUBILATE.

lake in the house.

The family meanwhile went out

An amusing incident, however, oc-great damage would have resulted.

Walavietz in $500 bail. The members of Colonel T. D. Lewis council, Junior Order of American Mechanics, are requested to be present at an important meeting which is to be held Friday evening.

Miss Mary Davies, of Green street, has returned from a short stay with relatives at Nanticoke.

DUNMORE.

Mission Services at St. Mark's to Be Led by a Noted Episcopallan, Rev. J. O. Huntington.

Rev. James O. S. Huntington, founder of the Order of the Holy Cross, which is connected with the Episcopal church, will begin a series of missions in St. Mark's church tomorrow

"Father" Huntington, as he is familarly called, is one of the best known nissionaries in the United States, owng to the active interest he takes in labor questions. The order he represents is the oldest and leading religious society of the American Episcopal church, and its objects and works are nevoted to the discipline of spiritual life and prayer, and in giving missions and retreats to its parishioners. This will be Father Huntington's first visit to this parish, and considerable interest attaches to the event.

The services at St. Mark's, which will continue Wednesday and Thursday Williams, of this end, were married evenings, will be brief and simple, and Saturday evening at the home of the are intended to be preparatory to a bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John two weeks' mission, which will be held next autumn. Tomorrow evening the subject of Father Huntington's address will be "What Makes Character;" on Wednesday evening, "Gift of a New Life," and on Thursday evening, "Body of Christ on Earth."

Father Huntington will address employes in a number of Scranton shops during his stay. He will speak in St. Luke's church, Scranton, at the noonday services Wednesday and Thursday.

LESSER NEWS NOTES.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Dunmore Reading rooms will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold a conundrum social on Thursday evening in the church parlors. The proceeds are to be devoted to a worthy charitable cause. The young ladies request the patronage of the public.

The large bell of the Methodist Episcopal church, which fell some time ago and was badly damaged, has been repaired and was replaced on Saturday. The funeral of Thomas Ratchford, of ival of a son.

Mrs. Edward Edwards, of Putnam day afternoon and was largely attend-The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was made in the Catholic cemstery.

Martin Richards is able to be out again after an illness of a few days.

This evening in Mears' hall the friends of the Woodworkers' union, No. 26, of this city, will have an opportunity of enjoying an excellent concert and later the good dance music which will be provided. Philip J. Thomas, president of the Building Trades' union, will preside and Mrs. D. B. Thomas will act as accompanist for the vocalists. George Kern will prompt for the dancing, and Mrs. Agnes Malott will play. The programme for the concert is as follows: Piano solo, Miss Loretta

Fahey; tenor solo, Mr. Edwin Bowen; recitation, Miss Bessie Sloat; selection, Union quartette (ex-Columbian); soprano solo, Miss Clara Sanders; recitation, Miss Gertie Hughes; solo, Miss Rhoda Clark: humorist, William Morgan; pantomime, "The Raven," Edwin Poe, Misses Cornelia Moredock and Elizabeth Moyle; alto solo, Miss Margaret Jones; recitation, Charles Cadwgan; quartette (eselected), Misses Clara Sanders and Margaret Jones, and Messrs, Edwin Bowen and John Jones; selection, Harwood Mandolin and Guitar club; duet, Misses Ethel and

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Union quartette (ex-Columbian).

Edith Morgan; bass solo, John Jones; recitation, C. A. Bennett; selection,

The fourth quarterly conference of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcoduction of a class of goods that are absolutely worth pal church was held Friday evening. Rev. Dr. J. G. Eckman presided. The less for service or anything else. Our Monday Barwork of the year was reported and gain lists contain nothing whatever of that nature. matters of importance were discussed by the large number of official members present. By a unanimous rising ity and will maintain it on that basis. Globe Warevote the quarterly conference requested house patrons who want to buy a reliable, medium boty, for the fourth year. the return of their pastor, Rev. F. P. grade of serviceable goods in any department at an

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Monaghan, of 613 Eynon street, was held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Patrck's church, where a mass of requiem was celebrated. Rev. D. A. Dunne officiated. Interment was in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the remains of Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lavelle, of Cameron avenue, were taken to St. Patrick's church where a blessing was pronounced. Burial was in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Edwards was held yesterday afternoon at the residence on West mountain. Rev. Edward Howell officiated. The remains were taken to the Washburn street emetery for burial. Yesterday afternoon a large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral of Patrick McAuliffe, which was held at the residence, 323 Seventeenth street. The remains were borne to St. Patrick's church, where a blessing was pronounced. They were then taken to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery and laid at rest. The pall-bearers were: Thomas Armstrong, Michael Martin Burns, William Murray, Patrick Hayes and William Mur-The funeral of Harry Wright was held yesterday afternoon at the residence, 335 Meridian street. The ser-vices were in charge of Moses Taylor lodge, No. 151, Junior Order United American Mechanics, of which the deceased was a member. There were many members of the order present.

A FEW POINTERS.

SAD FATE.

HAPPENINGS OF

SOUTH SCRANTON

Base Ball Club Has Prospects for a

Good Season.

CITIZENS SUBSCRIBING LIBERALLY

Police Break Up a Street Fight Bu;

the Referee Interfered -- Several

Paragraphs from Across the South

Manager John Ward, of the South

Side base ball club, received a communication from John Gibbons, Saturday, stating that a team and plow of the Meadow Brook mine were at the disposal of the base ball boys to put in shape the large tract that William

Connell has donated to the club to be wed as a base ball park. The crack team of this side is congratulating itself on having met with such success,

In the article upon the reorganization of the club, reported in Saturday's

Tribune, it was stated that an effort was to be made to have subscriptions from the lovers of the sport of this section sent to William Burns, treasurer of the club. To The Tribune reporter last night Mr. Burns stated that the appeal for funds to equip the boys

" uniforms and other facto ntals, with promptly answered and a neat sum has been received Many have sent assurance of financial support from time to

GUTTER FIGHTERS ARRESTED.

Patrolman Schmidt, while patroling

Pittston avenue early yesterday morning, heard a boisterous disturbance on Elm street above the avenue. Upon Investigation he found Michael Pfaff and Edward Benke lying in a gutter.

vainly endeavoring to choke each other.

The young men were drunk. Standing over them was John Griffin, an uncle of Pfaff. The uncle was acting in the capacity of referee. The patrolman rapped for assistance and Acting Lieutenant Gescheldle answered. The boys were lifted from the gutter, but Griffin then attempted to have the prisoners

mand and became so obstreperous that the patrolmen were on the point of releasing the youths and arresting

Griffin. In police court yesterday morning Alderman Storr fined the offenders

$2 each. Their parents called later in

CEDAR AVENUE CHANGES.

Several weeks ago The Tribune told exclusively of several changes to be made in a business section of Cedar avenue, and of the several new buildings to be erected. Saturday all the ner's saloon were taken down and this morning excavations will be commenced for the foundation of the handsome four-story hotel that is to be built. Mr. Kaestner's building will have a frontage of sixty feet. The front will be of blue mountain stone, and the

Another old landmark that will be torn down today to give way to a modern structure of three-story brick is the Washington hotel, at the corner

When the building is completed it will be used for business and dwelling pur-

NUBS OF NEWS,

f Patrick Harmon, of Irving avenue

Joseph G. Rosar is in New York city.

was the guest of Miss Clara Boyer, of John A. Gordon, the barber, is the victim of an organized gang of thieves.

His place was burglarized early Saturday morning, the third robbery in was broken into, and a large haul was made, but the burglars last night were not so fortunate. A few bottles of bay rum and some fancy bottles were the

Owen Walsh, of 1719 Cedar avenue got greatly intoxicated yesterday, and upon his arrival at home began to abuse his crippled wife and his children. He destroyed much of the furniture. A message to the police sta tion brought Patrolmen Flaherty and to the lockup. He will be called for hearing this morning, and his wife will

Thomas Gilroy until recently boarded with Mrs. Kate Cusick, of Cedar avenue. He left a bill standing against him for three months' board and lodging. Saturday a warrant was issued for his arrest. At 9 o'clock that evening he was arraigned before Alderman Ruddy, who held him under $300 pail

Orin Spencer's place, at the corner of Stone avenue and Orchard street, was broken into at an early hour yesterday morning and a large quantity of cigars

A son was born to John Keifer and

Louis Armbrust has returned from

Miss Lizzie Harbach, of Cedar avenue, has returned from a visit at

Miss Lizzie Christophel led the gospel services at the Y. W. C. A. yester-

William Huester is entertaining

Charles Courtright, his roommate at the Columbus council, Young Men's Institute, No. 179, received in a body holy ommunion at the 7 o'clock mass in St.

SUDDEN HOSPITAL DEATH.

wife, of Cedar avenue, Saturday.

for his appearance at court.

Schmidt to the scene. Walsh was taken was held yesterday afternoon.

c cemetery.

only articles taken.

appear against him.

and liquor taken.

Philadelphia.

Wilkes-Barre.

Wyoming seminary

John's church yesterday.

buildings in the rear of Charles Keast-the day and paid the fines.

He insisted upon his de-

Bank of Roaring Brook.

WEST SCRANTON

Doubly and because advanced science could have saved her! Munvon has a specific for all kinds of headache, which cures in three minutes and leaves no de-pressing effects. One or two doses will stop Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Head-aches from Indigestion, Nervousness. pressing effects. One or two doses will stop Sick Headache. Neuralgia. Headaches from Indicestion, Nervousness. Overwork. Colds. Intemperance, or Rallroad or Ocean Travel.

In striking contrast to the above sad case is that of Mrs. E. Hardin. 3959 Germantown Avenue. Philadelphia. Pa., wife of the Clerk of the Board of Education, who says: "For thirty years I suffered with sick headache, which appeared in attacks of severe pain, so intense that I was obliged to remain in bed for days at a time. These attacks appeared almost every week, and at no time did I ever receive relief, although I consulted the most skilled physicians in the city. The headaches seemed to wear themselves out and then commence anew. At last I was induced to try Munyon's Headache Cure. The relief was marical and almost instantaneous. I followed up the treatment and was completely cured—for three years have passed and I have recommended Munyon's Remedies to a number of my friends, and I have received their most sincere thanks for many worderful cures that have been accomplished by these little pellets."

Professor Munyon has a separate specific for each disease, the only logical system of medicine.

time during the season, and the indi-cations point to this being a banner season in the career of the club.

of the roadbed and rails of the railway Burial was made in Forest Hill come on the South Main avenue or Taylor tery. The pall-bearers were selected line. It did not affect the Luzerne street switch at all, though the break

PERSONAL MENTION.

Drayman F. R. Post has removed rom Jackson street to 221 Chestnut

Mrs. A. R. Teale, of South Lincoln ivenue, is quite ill at her home with tonsilitis. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holmes, of South that time several minor "slides" have Main avenue, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Shoemaker, of Elmira, in the old workings of the Central Mr. and Mrs. C. D. DePuy, of North Lincoln avenue, are attending the funeral of a relative at Allentown. Thomas Kilgallon, of Montana, is the guest of West Scranton relatives, Mrs. P. H. Warren, of North Lincoln avenue, is in New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gloor, of West Locust street, have as their guest Mrs. ence in the use of the water and gas E. Scott, of Philadelphia.

or delay to the car service resulted, as Harry Hall, of Eynon street, has returned from a trip south. Mrs. Robert Evans, of North Sumcurred later in the day when the water ner avenue, is entertaining Mrs. S. K. mote from the scene of the cave. At Laphy and Mrs. M. Turrell, of Forty Mrs. Enoch Evans, of Evans court, has as her guest Miss Jennie Morgan, of Plymouth. Mrs. Noah Roderick, of Ninth street, s visiting at Parsons.

Mrs. Balentine, of Meshoppen, is the remainder of brick.

guest of Mrs. G. W. Bennett, of Jackson street. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Knight, of Jackson street, are visiting at Wallsville. James Wymbs, of Chestnut street, is of Cedar avenue and Alder street, and slowly recovering from an attack of owned by Peter Rosar, the grocer.

typhoid-pneumonia MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The members of the Oxford Mine Ac cidental fund are requested to meet at the Oxford mines at 1.30 o'clock Tues day afternoon to attend the funeral of Evan S. Davis. Tomorrow evening the series of spe burial was in the Hyde Park Catho cial services which will be held at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church each evening for two weeks will be commenced. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt, will have charge and will be assisted by Rev. Thomas Houston, the Pittston avenue, yesterday.

blind evangelist. The members of the male voice party recently organized for the purpose o ompeting at the Wilkes-Barre eisteddfod, May 30, met Saturday evening at fones' hall, on North Main avenue, and held an enthusiastic session. Prof. lorweth Prosser will be leader. The prize to be competed for is $150. The piece is "The Destruction of Gaza."

GET THE BEST.

During the present week it is probable hat a large chapter in American history will be written. Recognizing the intensity of the public's interest in the report of the Maine court of inquiry and in the developments to follow, The Tribune has arranged to display on a bulletin soard in front of its office the successive details. These bulletins will be supple mented each morning by the most comprehensive report of the preceding day's news ever printed in a Scranton newspaper. This report will include all news up to 4 a. m. It will be four hours fresher and will be delivered four hours earlier than that in any New York or Philadelphia paper entering Scranton. Better buy the best

GREEN RIDGE.

Miss May Birch, of Windsor, N. Y., was the guest of Mrs. M. D. Farnham, of Breaker street, Saturday. C. H. Shedd, of Penn avenue, spent

Mrs. Dixon, of Smith place, returned home from Tunkhannock Saturday. Mrs. Palmer, of Washington avenue. vho has been visiting friends on Staten Island, returned home Saturday. Mrs. George Berlinghoff, of Capous

Mrs. B. E. White, of New York street spent Saturday in Wilkes-Barre. Rev. G. C. Lyman occupied the pul pit of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal hurch yesterday instead of Rev. Mr. Chaffee, who was in Dallas, John Tunney, a Mill Hand, was Il LEHIGH VALLEY CHANGES.

Only Two Hours.

Tunney died very unexpectedy at the Moses Taylor hospital yesterday. He was received at the institution two weeks ago for treatment of a leg which had been injured in the mills two years ago.

About 10 o'clock yesterday morning Tunney was strolling through the corridors, when suddenly he was attackwith severe pains in the stomach He fell to the floor, and was later removed to his cot, and died in two hours Tunney was to have been discharged from the hospital tomorrow, the afflieted leg being almost cured. Word was sent to his wife. Undertaker Cusick later removed the remains to the deceased's residence, 1805 Pittston ave-

REXFORD'S.

REXFORD'S.

A Car Load of Building Operations Will Begin Picture Frames Today on Cedar Avenue-Briefer

Are here for quick selling. These frames were bought from a hard-up manufacturer--bought at our own price. They will be sold Cheaper Than Frames Were Ever Sold Before. For your convenience these frames have been opened up for display on second floor -- 25x50 feet of floor space filled with frames. More are in the basement--500 on display in West Window.

The frames are all bright, new moulding. Were made by the largest frame factory in the country.

FRAMES IN NEARLY EVERY IMAGINABLE SIZE. Made up in a score or more styles of mouldings. In case of odd sizes of pictures we have arranged to cut best Torchon mat board at very special prices, so that any picture may be fitted.

We will also sell this week to buyers of frames who desire it --

BEST FRENCH PLATE GLASS AT VERY SPECIAL PRICES.

To further hurry the selling--

Pictures Will Be Fitted

with Frames FREE.

No such sale of Picture Frames has ever taken place in Scranton before. If you have a picture or several pictures that need framing, don't miss this sale.

HINTS OF THE SELLING:

16x20 plain gilt florentine, green 19c 12x38 gilt and white frames. In-stead of usual price 75c. Now 32c 12x38 frames in green Dutch oak 18c

20x24 - 5 - Inch forentine frames, Value $5. Sell $2.00 16x20-5-inch white and gilt 80c 14x28 gree cak finish frames.... 16c

14x28 white enameled and gilt frames 2 inches wide. Value 50c $1.50. Sale price 50c

The Rexford Co.

303 Lackawanna Avenue.

HOLLAND IS DEMENTED.

sense Enough to try and Enter the Stokes Residence.

Miss Ida Horne, a teacher in the Soldiers' Orphan school at Harford, A man named Holland was arrested resterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Patrolman Sloat for attempting to gain an entrance in the house occupied by P. W. Stokes, at 401 Webster avenue. The intruder was seen by neighbors. Patrolman Sloat was summoned from two months. Three weeks ago his shop his residence nearby, but owing to Holland's strange actions nothing could be learned from him. The Stokes famly were absent at the time.

Holland was taken to the central ptiice station and placed in a cell, but would not answer any questions. His actions were such that would lead to the belief that he is demented.

X-RAY CHARITY LECTURE.

To Be Given for Benefit of the Linden Street Kindergarten. A lecture upon the X-rays will be given at the High school auditorium Thursday evening, March 31, by Dr. Max Stern, of Philadelphia, and Elias G. Roos, of this city. The lecture will be illustrated.

The purpose of the lecture is to raise funds for the depleted treasury of the Prec Kindergarten, of Linden street. This kindergarten was organized about five years ago. Located as it is, on Linden street, between Raymond and Haistead courts, the institution has accomplished untold good among the

THE THIRTEENTH JUROR.

Bill Pending in the Maryland Legislature for an Innovation. The thirteenth juror, provided for in bill introduced in the Maryland senate by President Randall, ought to prove a very valuable man, if the passage of the measure should give him a chance to show what he can do. It is no rare occurrence in important trials for a juryman to be taken ill and to make a wholly new trial necessary, putting the court, the attorneys and the witnesses to a large amount of extra labor and the state to a double ex-Under the provisions of Senator Randall's measure, whenever a case is to be tried before a jury in which the crime charged is punishable with death, or in which, whether criminal or civil, the court deems it probable that the trial is likely to be a protracted one the court may enter an order for a re-serve juror. This juror is to sit with the other twelve, hear all the evidence but is to take no part in the jury's de liberation or in the rendering of the verdict unless one of the panel dies or becomes physically incapacitated dur-

The plan may, at first glance, seem to be a novel one, but it has many features to commend it. The expense of the reserve juror would be very small cempared with the expense of mis-trials In view of this, Senator Randall's p and of new trials, made necessary by is certainly worth a careful study, and of new trials, made necessary by those sudden attacks of illness to which the thirteenth juror may yet be ed and badly ventilated court rooms. American.

WE WOULD adv all clubs and ganizations who need athletic goods the coming season to place their orders now, so they may be filled before the usual rush be-

FLOREY & BROOKS. 211 N. Washington Ave.

Bicycles, Base Ball, Gymna-slum, Golf and Lawn Tennis

Finest Solderless 18k Wedding Rings. The new Tiffany Style.

.........

Wedding Present

Fine Sterling Silverware, Rich Cut Glass, Clocks, &c.

Our optician, Mr. Adams, can fit all cases of defective vision. Prices very reasonable.

MERCEREAU & CONNE 130 Wyoming Ava.

NERVOUS TROUBLES; ALL KIN cured with Animal Extracts. Free b ells how. WASHINGTON CHEMICAL Washington, D. C.

jurors are liable, and which are, no a permanent factor in the administra doubt, frequently caused by overcrowd- tion of justice in Maryland .- Baltimor

Globe Warehouse

Ladies' Hosiery

In medium grades we offer more for your money today than we ever did before. See our six lots at Six especially good values in Black and fancy Silks, all of latest design. Also three big bargains in desirable Black Dress Stuffs. See choose from. Full $10.00 value. 10c For Today Only

Globe Warehouse

Prices alone give no indication of values. Tight money and sharp competition have both led to the pro-

We have built our reputation on goods of honest qual-

actual saving from regular values are invited to visit

Of Yesterday's Date. Here are a Few Pickings from

The Full Monday Bargain List

Will Be Found in The Scrantonian

Today $6.98 Dress Goods Sale

Latest Spring creations, various

One dozen special numbers are on weaves, colorings and styles to us today.

it:

Ladies' Suits

sale today at Monday bargain figures. All new Spring fabrics and shades. Reductions are from one fourth to one-third below regular Linen, Cotton Goods, etc.

A 66-inch Linen Table Damask at 31c. a yard. A Honeycomb Bed Spread at 55c., and sheets ready for use at less than cost of material.

For Today Only

On Sale Today

our 45c. Brocade at 25c Today Only

Men's Furnishings Not inferior finished goods made

Silks and Black Goods

the best that the gents' furnishing trade can show, at genuin-Bargain Counter Prices to sell at the bargain counter, but

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 25 and 56c. Sold by all ruggists; ask for a free sample

Sunday in New York city.

evenue, is spending a few days with friends in Wilkes-Barre.

Another', Superintendent, J. M. Donnelly, Is Lake ly to Go. Following the retirement of Mr. Alonzo Blakeslee of the Mahoney division, comes the report that Mr. James M. Donnelly, of Easton, is to walk the plank, says the Wilkes-Barre News-The report bears many evidences of truth although an inquiry at New York was met with the statement that they had nothing to say.

Mr. Donnelly is one of the old timers. His territory was recently extended to include the Pottsville division. The story that he will be dropped comes direct from New York and whatever comes from New York is pretty relia-