THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1898.

SAVED BY HIS FAITHFUL DOG

Exciting Experience of Farmer Evans with a Mad Bull.

ANOTHER BENEFICIAL ORGANIZATION

Editor More's Novel Paper Weight. A Few Political Chips .- The Popu-Mentionettes -- An Explanation.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune. Susquehanna, March 22 .- Robert Evans, a farmer living at Riverside, near Great Bend, owes his life to his faithful dog. A few days since, Evans attended an auction sale of personal property and bid off a large, blooded bull. During the sale a number of boys had been teasing the animal. About dark, Evans started to lead the bull home. It had been broken to lead and appeared kind. Evans was in a hurry and began to switch the bull, which commenced to bellow fearfully and paw the ground. In a moment he attacked Evans and pinned him down. At the next instant the infuriated animal tossed him upon his horns as though he was but a feather weight. At this juncture, when seconds meant hours to Evans, the large farm dog was attracted to the spot by the shouts of the man. The intelligent dog took in the situation at a glance, and, with a rush. caught the bull by the nose at the moment he was about to charge upon Evans a second time. The bull could not disengage himself from the dog, and he was obliged to give up the fight and surrender. The bull was then secured and dehorned, and has since been docile as a kitten. Mr. Evans ascaped with slight injuries. That dog is not for sale

ANOTHER BENEFICIAL ORGANI-ZATION.

A council of the Knights of Columbus was organized in this place on Sunday. with about seventy charter members. About two hundred visitors were present from Binghamton, Scranton, Elmira, Carbondale, Wilkes-Batre, New York, Waverly and other places. In the evening, at the Starrucca House, a banquet was enjoyed. Speeches were made by Rev. P. F. Broderick, of Susquehanna; Rev. Father Higgins, of Binghamton; Rev. James Fagan, of Great Bend; Judge Downs, of Binghamton; and others. Baker's Binghamton orchestra furnished music for occasion. The new council starts ut auspiciously.

The Democratic county committee will meet in Montrose on Saturday next, to arrange for the nominating convention, etc.

SOMETHING NEW. For the past few weeks a young man and woman, claiming to be man and wife, have been operating along the Jefferson Branch and in the Lackawanna Valley, with a new dodge. Landing in a town, the woman seems to be ill, and the man informs the people that a very interesting event is in the programme for the very near future. Then the poor authorities hustle and get the people out of town, giving her tickets to some other point and some money The tenderhearted bystanders usually chip in a few dollars. Last week they larity of C. Fred Wright -- Proper worked Ninevah, Thomson, Forest City Weight for a Typewriter -- Local and other towns. They secured $7 in Thomson, and the woman was heard to say: "This is a very small sum for a place of this size. Newspapers will do well to pass this couple along- in the usual way.

> LOCAL MENTIONETTES. The Erie shops have been placed on nine hours time, a gain of one hour. The Erie is enjoying a good run of freight.

There is a lingering suspicion that the Quakers have captured the Susquehanna board of trade.

Lovers of scandal and gossip are just now waxing fat on account of a Lanesboro episode. It doesn't take much to please some people.

After an illness of several months Mrs. Abraham Mattison died at her home on the Oakland side on Saturday evening. The remains were on Monday taken to Paterson for services and interment.

The fine new Presbyterian church edfice will on Thursday next be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. In the morning the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Edward Taylor. of Binghamton. In the afternoon Rev. G. Parsons Nichols, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Binghamton, will preach. In the evening there will be addresses by former pastors of the church and a general jubilee. Rev. William M. Hiller, the able and popular pastor of the Methodist church is clowily recovering from a very severe attack of pneumonia. Ex-Sheriff B. F. McKune is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home on the Oakland side. To-day his condition is perceptibly improved.

THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER.' "What's the matter with "Whit?" In Wednesday's Scranton Tribune he says: 'Susquehanna county Republicans will vote for no man for Governor who will not veto the Erie Bonus Bill." As a matter of fact the Republicans of this county will vote for no man who will veto the Erie bill .- Montrose Republican.

The Tribune compositor inadvertently dropped the word "not" into the sea tonic. That's all. Of course everybody in Susquehanna county is in favor of become a law.

SOME POLITICAL CHIPS.

A. H. McCollum, esq., of Montrose ex-Senator William M. Nelson, of Equinunk, and F. P. Kimble, esq., of Honesdale, are said to be Democratic candidates for state senator for this district.

Hon, E. D. Hardenbergh, of Hones dale, the present able and popular state ably not prove fatal, senator for this district, will undoubt-edly succeed himself. His record in both houses of the legislature has been an excellent one. He has been an able, hard-working, vigilant legislator, Genial and at all times approachable, he is very popular, and he has always given excellent satisfaction to his constitu ents. He created the Erie bonus bill, and fought hard for it in season and out of season. That it did not become nost sanguine expectations! law is no fault of his. He will continue to champion the bill, and it will doubtless yet become a statute. Mr. Hardenbergh is most popular where he is the best known.

ANOTHER POPULAR CANDIDATE

Mr. C. Fred. Wright, of Susquehanna, the choice of the Republicans' conven tions of Susquehanna and Wayne counties for congress, will undoubtedly succeed Hon. James H. Codding as member for this district. The remaining counties in the district will doubtless, in due time, concede Susquehanna ounty's claims. Mr. Wright is in every way well equipped to make an able, energetic, business member of our poorer class of people is an uncongress. He is a successful, honordoubted statement made by many able business man, a staunch Republican, and a genial, companionable each evening and Ensign and Mrs. gentleman. The Republicans of the old Wilmet ought to quickly bury their little sectional issues and send Mr. Wright to congress with one of its oldtime rousing majorities.

I should not dare to eat it, even if you gave it to me, so long have I fasted. I merely desired to borrow your bloycle pump, that I may inflate myself and proceed on my weary way." Then the door slammed shut and the incident closed.
