LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Soprano solo and chorus-In Lystra Thomas Farrell Painfully Injured in Peculiar Manner.

CLEANING A WINDOW

It Fell Badly Smashing His Head and Almost Severing One of His Fingers -- Funeral of Michael Mc-Geever, of Luzerne Street -- Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith Help Them to Celebrate an Important Anniversary .- Movements of People

A peculiar and painful accident happened Monday to Thomas Farrell, 14 years of age, an inmate of St, Patrick's Orphanage. The lad was cleaning the ower sash of one of the heavy windows and in some manner it loosened and fell. He was standing on a stepladder and the falling of the sash so startled him that he grabbed hold of the window sill. The heavy frame descended and crushed the right hand and almost severed the second finger.

The injury to the finger was brought about by the ring which the lad wore on that finger. It was a heavy gold band and was his mother's wedding ring. The ring was probably buried with its edge against the second knuckle of the finger and when the frame struck his hand Farrel drew his hand suddenly toward. This movement tore the flesh from the finger right to the end and completely severed the finger end just beyond the third joint. Dr. J. J. Carrroll was summoned and treated the wound. He will try and save the whole finger if possible. flesh being clean cut was readily placed back in position. ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Smith, of 329 North Main avenue, were treated to a pleasant surprise Monday evening at their residence. Early in the evening a large party of friends, led by the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Jackson Street Baptist church, invaded their home and announced the fact that they were there to observe fifty-fifth anniversary of Mr. Smith's birthday. In addition to other entertaining features, the host and hostess were presented with a handsome chair by their guests. The presentation speech was made by the pastor, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, seconded by Thomas Beddoe. The church choir, under the leadership of Lewis Davis, chorister, gave several selections during the evening.

Mr. Smith, in whose honor the affair was given, was born in Gorndefaith, South Wales, and came to America in 1863, locating in this city. He was proprietor of Fairchild's hotel, on South Main avenue, for some time, but earned his greatest fame as the maker of the famous Columbo Bitters. The with the serving of refreshments. the eyes, the general drooping of the young wife's form, what do they mean? They mean that her nerves are failing, that her strength is going and that something must be done to help her through the coming trials of maternity.

Build her up at once by a course of some tonic with specific powers. Such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You can get it at any druggist's. Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife—of her own accord she addresses it to her "suffering sisters," and while from modesty she asks to withhold her name, she gives her initials and street number in Chambersburg, Pa., so she can easily be found personally or by letter:

To my Suffering Sisters:-Let me write this for your benefit, telling you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I am bunineteen and suffered with painful menstruction, leucorrhoea, dizziness, burning sensation back of ears and on top of my head, nervousness, pain and soreness of muscles, bearing-down pains, could not sleep well, was unable to stand without pain, and oh! how I longed to be well!

One day I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham telling her all, knowing I could do so in perfect confidence. She wrote me a lovely letter in reply, telling me exactly what to do After taking nine bottles of the Compound, one box of Liver pills, and using one-half package of Sanative wash, I can say I am cured. I am so happy and owe my happiness to none other than Mrs. Pinkham.

Why will women suffer when help is near? Let me, as one who has had some experience, urge all suffering women, especially young wives, to see Mrs. Pinkham's advice.-Mrs. R. S. R., 113 E Catherine St . Chambersburg, Pa.

James Patterson Acquitted of the Charge Made Against Him by Fred Schneider -- Richard Voght Was Arraigned Before Alderman Storr to Answer a Charge of Assault and Battery -- Mrs. Fred Spitzer, of Meadow Avenue, the Prosecutrix.

Nay Aug tribe, No. 140, Improved Order of Red Men, met in regular session last night, and the interesting feature of the session was the election of officers, for the ensuing year. A spirited, yet friendly fight was on for the honors at the disposal of the members, and the result of the contest was the selection of Philip Luxemberger, for prophet; J. F. Schenker, sachem; Matt Ludwig, senior sagamore; Carl Tress, junior sagamere; William Zang, keeper of wampum; George Keip, keeper of records. John Mais was elected trustee for eighteen months, and Jacob Boettcher was chosen as the representative of the tribe at the great council to convene in Honesdale in May.

Charles Huester, Peter Kellerman and August Lengler were appointed to audit the books of the outgoing officers.

ALDERMANIC CASES.

On the charge of larceny, James Patterson was arraigned before Alderman Ruddy, last night. He was charged with stealing a sum of money and articles from the clothes of Fred Schnei der. Schneider's version of the affair was told in yesterday's Tribune, but at the hearing he was unable to substantiate his statements, consequently the case was dismissed.

Rheinhart Voght was arraigned in Alderman Storr's court last night on the charge of assault and battery, preferred by Mrs. Fred Spitzer of Meadow avenue. In her testimony Mrs. Spitzer stated that the defendant and a friend reached this city from Germany a year ago and upon their arrival began to board at her home. Several weeks ago the friend left, owing a large bill for board and lodging and recently Voght removed from her domicile with a balance due her. Monday she went to his new lodging house and asked him to settle the bill. He was abusive and slapped her in the face, she alleges. The defendant was held in $300 bail.
