SESSIONS OF BOTH COURTS ARE HELD

Pleas of Guilty Entered in Important Cases Saves Time.

STRAFF CONFESSES HIS GUILT

Admits That He Used the Mails for Lottery Purposes .- Defaulting Cashier Hall, of Athens, Enters a Plea of "Non Contendere" .- Case of Mindwell Dolph Against the National Accident Society on Trial a Second Time.

Sessions of both district and circuit courts were held yesterday. It was not expected that the civil list would be reached before next Monday, but owng to pleas of guilty being entered in the remaining criminal cases, the district court business was all gotten out of the way at 10.30 o'clock and the circuit session was enabled to begin

The Scranton lottery case, for which extensive preparations were made, and which was expected to occupy the best part of two days, was summarily disposed of by a plea of guilty. The defendant, Alex. J. Straff, was accused of conducting a lottery with the aid of the United States mails It was known as the San Domingo lottery and while it purported to be a foreign affair, it was in reality conducted in this city in the 500 block of Lackawanna avenue. Straff, its manager, and as far as is Prown, the whole concern, is a Polander.

He confined his operations to the people of the Slavonian race, all his circulars being printed in the Slavonian language and his agents and employes all being of that nationality. For that reason he escaped detection for a long time, but was finally run down by Postoffice Inspector Garman, of Philadelphia, and the detectives of District Attorney Heiner's office. The officers were materially aided by John Rovianick, of Pittsburg, president of the National Slavonic society. Slavs from New Jersey, New York and Ohio were on hand to testify to having received circulars inviting them to invest in the lottery.

EIGHTEEN COUNTS.

There were eighteen counts altogether against Straff. He plead guilty to the principal charge, that of using the mails for lottery purposes, and a nolle pros was entered in the others. He will be sentenced later.

A plea of non contendere, which is in effect a plea of guilty, was entered by Charles T. Hull, the defrauding cashier of the First National bank of Athens, Bradford county. There were fifteen counts against him, the principal ones being embezzlement and falsifying returns. His defalcations amounted to about $8,000. He was held in $500 ball for his appearance at the next term of court for sentence.

Mike Synak, the Duryea man ac-cused of falsely identifying John Jerominek, who forged a money order or the Duryea postoffice, plead gulty and was allowed to go with a suspended

William T. Seibert, of Snyder county accused of sending obscene matter through the mails, plead guilty and was also let off with a lecture and a warning. His crime was that of sending foul letters to Ely Reigel, of Mt Pleasant Mills, telling him to watch his wife and making the most scurrillous kind of accusations against her. In one of the letters he said, "If you don't believe it, ask William Selbert about it. He saw it." This led to his detec-

The company refused to pay on the grounds that the deceased was engaged in working one of the saws at the time of the accident and therefore employed in more hazardous work than that covered by his insurance policy. An offer riders. of $500 was made but the plaintiff refused it and went to trial.

The case was heard here last June and a verdict of $4,600 for the plaintiff was rendered. In the month of August following in disposing of a motion the defense for a new trial, Judge Buffington decreed that if the plaintiff was not satisfied to accept $500 a new trial should be granted. He held that the verdict was against the weight of the

NEW TRIAL PREFERRED.

The plaintiffs preferred a new trial to a verdict of $500 and the case came up for its second hearing yesterday. Watson & Zimmerman represented the plaintiff and the company was repre-sented by H. D. McBurney, of New York and Charles L. Hawley, of this

Members of the Dolph family testified to the injuries which the deceased had sustained, cuts and abrasions about the head being the main hurts. On s-examination it was brought out that the deceased was about the house he evening of the accident and that he went unattended to the Moses Taylor hospital for treatment on several oc-

Dr. N. Y. Leet and Dr. W. E. Aller who attended the deceased, gave it as their opinion that death was due to the injuries.

inturies The commany's defense is that Mr Dolph was over sixty years of age and that his death was as much due to his enfeebled system as to the accident; also, as previously mentioned, that he was insured as a superintendent and when injured was working as a laborer or "off-hearer" at one of the saws.

The case, it is expected, will be or good part of today.

MINOR MENTIONINGS. James McDonald, a grand juror from Washington county, was called home yesterday by the death of his mother. John W. Grier, editor of the Jersey Shore (Lycoming county) Vidette, was excused yesterday on account of illness. W. L. Hamilton, of Clinton county, is a cousin of Attorney J. J. H. Hamilton, of this city. He is an associate judge and a great student of literature. H. L. Spiesmann, ex-jury commissioner of Erie county and a prominent boot and shoe merchant of Corry, is among the petit jurors. Mr. Spies-mann is also interested in gas.

Juror J. C. Quiggie, of McElhattan, Clinton county, always has to be sworn separately, being a Quaker, and consequently choosing to make affirmation instead of swearing with the uplifted

Charles W. Ashley, one of the grand jurors, is a member of the firm of O'Brien & Ashley, of Pittsburg, which it will be remembered represented the plaintiffs in the Von Der Ahe habeas corpus case.

Captain Samuel D. Irwin, of Tronesta, Forest county, is a survivor of the famous "Bucktails." He is one of the pioneer practitioners of Forest county, having been an attorney for over forty years.

Frank Covert, of Beaver Palls, found many friends here among the members of the Young Men's Institute, in which organization he holds a prominent post-He is a graduate of Ann Arbor and is studying law.

H. H. Marcy, city editor of the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph, who was drawn as a petit juror, was unable to attend, owing to illness. He served here as a juror once previously and made hoses of friends.

The "father" of the jury is Moses A. Points, of Bedford, a leading attorney and prominent citizen of that portion of the state. Despite his nearly four score years, there are none more active than he about the court.

G. T. Dixon, of Armstrong county, says that next to the Eagle hotel of Kittanning, the Jermyn is the finest hostelry in the state. Mr. Dixon has been in the hotel business for many bears and is well known to traveling

Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, Pa., who as the state lecturer for the Grange, has frequently appeared in this county before farmers' institutes. His wife is a daughter of ex-Governor William F. Pollock, the last Democratic governor before Pattison. Their marriage was performed by the father-inlaw of Judge Buffington, Rev. Dr. Simonton.

Juror W. D. Morgan, an Armstrong ounty farmer, was called home by a telegram, Tuesday, announcing that his young son was dying. He was excused by Judge Buffington, and early in the day started for home. Yesterday morning a telegram was received by Clerk Colborn inquiring for Mr. Morgan and containing the announcement that the child had died. It is supposed the father is stalled along the road by reason of the floods.

MARSH AND HIS BADGE.

Obliged Green Ridge Bicyclists to Vacate the Sidewalks.

Special Officer Marsh, of Green Ridge, has lost no time in exercising the rights of his office since his appointment a few days ago. In his alertness, however, he has incurred the displeasure of numerous bicyclists in whose behalf layor Bailey will interfere.

One of Marsh's first acts after being appointed, was to seek Mayor Bailey at his store and apply for a badge. He wanted one with a star. His disappointment was considerable when inormed that the city did not furnish badges and that he would have to purchase one if determined upon some material evidence of authority. was directed to a store which has on tap, all kinds and sizes of the article Marsh wished.

For several days Marsh has been holding up wheelmen and wheelwomen in Green Ridge who, on account of impassable roads on certain streets, have been making use of the sidewalks. Marsh caught a tartar yesterday in the person of A. G. Thomason, who has an office in the Traders' Bank build-

The appeal to the mayor was made early in the afternoon. His honor doesn't pose as a lawyer but he took a chance in this instance and told Mr. Thomason to ride anywhere he pleased, excepting private property, if it was a physical impossibility to pedal through the mud in the streets. He further told Mr. Thomason that the new special officer with a badge would he asked to keep hands off Green Ridge

A NEWSPAPER SENSATION.

'The Sunday Press'' Entarged to Fifty Pages and an Eight-Page Comic Section in Colors.

With its usual habit of doing big things without any fuss and feathers, the great Philadelphia "Sunday Press" has been enlarged to 50 pages, with an eight-page comic section in colors. This change gives "The Sunday Press" the distinction of being the largest regular newspaper ever published in Phladelphia. The employment of famous artists and humorists guarantees that the comic section in colors will be most attractive, and at the same time excruciatingly funny. In addition to all this next "Sunday's Press" (March 27) will be a wonderful home newspaper. Frank R. Stockton and Ian Maclaren will contribute their latest short stories. Richard Croker explains the needs of Greater New York. The latest Monte Carlo sensation is given exclusively. Mrs. Sara York Stevenson reveals some of the secrets of Egypt. Robert G. Ingersoll describes the new Cradle of Liberty. An expert tells what men should wear this season. Many other treats are in store for all who read next "unday's Press." You had better order your copy today.

MALONEY WILL HAVE TO SETTLE

Many Cases Ignored and He Directed to Pay the Costs.

TRUE BILL IN TRAVER CASES

Only One of the Bills in Which He Appeared as Prosecutor Ignored. Matoney Was Taken Down from the County Jail and After He Had Appeared Before the Grand Jury Was Allowed to Go .- Other True and Ignored Bills Returned.

T. H. C. Maloney, after spending a night in the county jail, was brought down to the court house at 9 o'clock yesterday morning by a deputy sheriff. was taken before the grand jury and after that body got through with him he was allowed to go. No further penalty was imposed upon him for his conduct of Wednesday.

All but two of his bills charging illegal sale of liquor were ignored by the jury in its report to court yesterday, verifying the prediction made in yesterday's Tribune. The ignored bills number about forty and in all but four of them Maloney was directed to pay the costs. In the remainder the county will pay the costs. The prosecutor subpoenned many of the most representative citizens of North Scranton to testify in the cases and not a few of them swore that they had never even been in the houses where it was alleged liquor was being illegally sold and in which they were expected to testify that they had partaken of futoxicating drinks.

The only cases in which Maloney succeeded in getting true bills were those against Andrew Kominski and John Jezierski, of North Scranton. The total amount of the costs placed upon The him yesterday is over $400.

Following are the persons charged by Maloney with the illegal sale of liquor, the bills against whom were ignored by the grand jury:

OPINION IN THE BARRON CASE.

Has Been Received Here from the Superior Court. The opinion in the case of Richard Barron against the county of Lacka-wanna with reference to the fees constables are entitled to receive reached here yesterday from the Superior court It was written by Judge Wickham and is as follows: "The question presented by this case has been, considered and decided in Price against the county of Lancaster, No. 183 (Philadelphia), October term. 1897, the opinion in which was this day filed. For the reason, therein given, the judgment in the present case is hereby affirmed." The opinion in the Price case was handed down at Harrisburg, Monday, at the same time as the Barron opin on. It decided that constables are entitled to ten cents a mile one way for serving warrants and fifty cents for serving the paper on each person whose name appears upon a subpoena.

MRS. SMITH MAKES A DENIAL.

She Declares That She Did Not Desert Her Husband.

Mrs. Mabel A. Smith yesterday filed her answer to the application for a divorce made by Edward J. Smith. She says it is true they were married Nov. 14, 1893, and they lived together from that time until Nov. 25, 1895. She denies that she deserted her husband, but on the contrary maintains that the libellant himself wilfully and maliciously deserted her though requested repeatedly to provide home for her, he refused to do so, and she was compelled to support her-She also denies that she was guilty of cruel and barbarous treatment toward him.
