MARTIN PRESENTS HIS RESIGNATION

Proposes to Leave His Honorary Office with Flying Colors.

REPUSED TO RETIRE UNDER FIRE

Has Lost Faith in Philadelphia Politics, However, and Fears Disaster -- His Action Creates a Sensation in Political Circles in the Quaker City.

Philadelphia, March 29. - Sceretary of the Commonwealth David Martin, for a number of years the member of the Republican city committee from the Nineteenth ward, today presented his resignation as a member of that body, giving as his reason the pressure of personal business which prevents for the present his active participation in party management. Mr. Martin has for several years been one of the leaders of the anti-Quay movement in this state and latterly he has been regarded as favoring the candidacy of John Wanamaker for the governorship as against the candidate supported by Senator Quay. His action of today has therefore created a sensation in Republican political circles. Mr. Martin thus explains his position:

"I am convinced that the Republi-can party is about due for a licking next fall owing to the combined issues that have been apparent for some time past. As the recognized leader of the party I have been assailed and villiparty I have been assailed and vill-fied to such an extent that would drive any other man away from the party, but I refused to retire under fire and held on and accomplished everything that I had set as a task for myself. With defeat staring the party in the face heroic politics must be resorted to in order to save it and should victory not be accomplished it will be blamed on me, and this coupled with my official duties as seccoupied with my official duties as seen retary of the commonwealth and other private business, leads me to retire from the party leadership, at least so far as my seat in the city committee is concerned."

RIOT AT A COTTON MILL.

Strikers Stone the Police and an Agent of the Corporation.

Lewiston, Me., March 29 .- Great excitement prevailed here early this morning when the striking operatives of the Androscoggin cotton mills gathered about the gates of the corporation to endeavor to prevent any of their number from returning to work at the invitation of the management: About 1,200 persons were assembled near the gates before the usual hour for opening. As those who were ready to work appeared the strikers endeavored to persuade them not to do so. When the efforts falled there was a disturbance. Agent Bean, of the corporation, who appeared in the midst of the trouble, was hit with a stone, but he was not injured and several of the squad of police officers who were present were struck with stones and pieces of wood, but no one was hurt seriously. After the machinery had been started the strikers dispersed.

About 200 of the 600 operatives went in yesterday. Agent Bean claims that about fifty more began work this morning, and that now he has all the help he can use in view of the small amount of machinery that can be operated in the weaving department.

BRITISH AIMS IN CHINA

She Will Join Other Powers to Obtain Equal Advantages.

London, March 29 .- A statement has been obtained in a competent quarter respecting British intentions in China, in view of the naval movements in the far east. It is admitted that the British policy of maintaining the integrity of China and the equal commercial status of all nations has been abandoned, owing to the concessions made to Russia and Germany. It also added:

"The only course left Great Britain is to follow suit, obtain equal advantages with the other powers and secure adequate compensation in her own interests. This explains the British naval activity at Hong Kong and elsewhere Therefore a movement upon the part of Great Britain may be anticipated in the near future. It is deemed improbable that Japan singlebanded, or still less in conjunction with China, will combat the policy of the European powers. She will probably rest content with a compromise satisfactory to her pride and securing the position due her as the fruit of her victories over

SUGAR MEN AT WAR.

Cutting Price in Chicago May Affect the Whole Irade.

Chicago, March 29 .- Chicago wholesale grocers are selling sugar in Cook county at precisely the same price that the sugar trust is selling it at in New York. The Chicago wholesaler pays the freight from the refinery here. This unusual state of affairs is the result of a war among the local wholesalers.

The reduction has not yet been made by Minneapolis, St. Paul, Detroit, Toledo or any other surrounding jobbing points, but it is so sweeping that it is likely to affect their trade and must sooner or later be extended to the ernor. whole country.

WOMAN IN A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Doman's Mother-in-Law Arrested as a Witness. Wilmington, Del., March 29.-The detectives this afternoon arrested as a witness Lydia J. Williams, mother-inlaw of Alexander Doman, the negro who is accused of murdering his 6-year-old boy Joshua and burying his body in a garden.

They think the woman knows all about the alleged crime, and the garden about Doman's house will be dug up tomorrow to see if his wife was buried there. If so, it would indicate that she also was murdered.

The father, James Caylor, and son Alfred, aged 21, were active workers in the protracted meeting and last week the mental faculties of both father and son gave way, leaving them in a deplorable condition of insanity. Constable Brilliant went up from here and took the unfortunate men to Brookville and placed them in jail. Judge Reed examined the cases and filed an order of lunacy. Owing to the crowded con-dition of the Warren asylum it is necessary to place them in the Dixmont

VERDICT AGAINST POSTMASTER.

The Victim of a Bauco Game Must Pay Up. Trenton, N. J., March 29 .- A jury In the United States circuit court today rendered a verdict of about $2,900 against ex-Postmaster John D. Schor, of Nordhoff, Bergen county, and Cornelius Christie, James Christie and Isaac R. Vreeiand, his bondsman.

While Schor was postmaster of Nordhoff he was made the victim of a bunco game. Some persons representing himself as a postoffice inspector examined the office and discontinued it as a money order office and got Schor to surrender the money order blanks. The pretending inspector had an accomplice and between them they used these blanks and had them cashed in different parts of the country to the extent of $2,300. Schor was held responsible for this money because he did not require the pretending inspector to show his credentials.

The verdict is for the full amount of the forged money orders, with interests and costs.

Suicide of Mr. Nash's Faithful Dog, "Tige."

TROUBLE FOR SLANDER-MONGERS

A Few Spap Shots at the Political Field .- Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh Will Probably Be Nominated .- A Church Dedicated -- Wildent's Experience with a Sewing Machine

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, March 29.-Mine host Nash, of the hotel at Brookside, until recently had an old Newfoundland dog, the pet of the village. Old "Tige" was a faithful watch-dog, and on a num-ber of occasions had saved human life. He had become almost blind and infirm, and wholly useless. When Jim Saunders strolled into the barroom on Saturday, Nash said to him: "Jim, old Tige over there has become so old and useless that I do not know what to do with him. I haven't the heart to kill him, but if you will take him up on the hill and shoot him I'll give you a dollar.

"It's a go!" was Jim's prompt reply, "I can't make a dollar any easier." Jim left for home to get his gun, and the game of dominoes in the barroom continued. In an hour Jim returned, but Tige had disappeared. One of the loungers said that Tige whined and went out a few moments after the bargain between his master and Jim. Jim and a half-dozen others spent the af-ternoon in searching for the old dog, but he had evidently disappeared from the face of the earth. Jim returned home, sad and disappointed. He had lost his dollar. Early the next morning the engineer of a passenger train saw old Tige crawl from beneath a barn and deliberately walk upon the track in front of the approaching train. Then he crouched down, his head between his paws. In a moment the great machine was upon him. Old Tige had overheard the bargain between his master and Jim, and preferred suicide on the track to an ignominious death upon the hill.

TROUBLE FOR SLANDERMONG-ERS.

There are rumors that certain Lanspro people are soon to be summarily jerked before a justice, for making slanderous allegations against their neighbors. Quite a number of human vultures in Lansboro and Susquehanna—and possibly in Scranton—need to be taught that a lack of common decency will not absolve them from the perils and penalities of the law.

PERSONAL PICKUP.

Rev. William M. Hiller, the able and popular pastor of the Methodist church, is slowly recovering from a very severe attack of pneumonia.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, are visiting Susquehanna friends. On Sunday evening Mr. Brooks occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, of which he was pastor for nineteen years, preaching an able and practical sermon.

H. C. Benson, of Scranton, is visiting his parents in this place.

Mr. C. W. Resseguie, senior proprietor of the Transcript-Ledger, is very seriously ill at his home on Broad street. A council of physicians was held on Monday.

A CHURCH DEDICATED. On Thursday last the handsome and commodious new Presbyterian church was dedicated with Impressive ceremonies. In the morning the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Edward Taylor, of Binghamton, and the afteron sermon by Rev. Dr. G. Parson Nichols, pastor of the First Presby-terian church in Binghamton. Dr Taylor had in hand the work of raising the balance of the church debt of $7,000, and he succeeded. In a year the society has planned and built the church, and paid in and subscribed $13,000. Of this amount $12,000 was paid in on the day of dedication. At the "jubilee" service, held on Thursday evening, addresses were made by the Indian clubs are the most effective for giving one grace, ease and accuracy of movement, features which every athlete should strive to cultivate.

Bicycling has become a popular exercise and undoubtedly furnishes, in addition to muscular development, great exallaration.

Dumb bells, if properly used, strengthen the muscles of the arms and incidentally those of the body and legs. They also expand the chest and breaden the shoulders.

After exercise a cool shower spray or bath should be taken, not to last more than one or two minutes and should be followed by a brisk rub to tone up the system and encourage the circulation of the blood. Some pure stimulant should also be used. Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey is used by prominent athletes for this purpose and is highly recommended.

It should be noted, however, that only a pure and medicinal mait like Duffy's will be of service. Ordinary whiskey will not answer the purpose and you should be certain to secure the genuine.

SOME SIDE ISSUES.

It is said that Ananias very much regrets that he did not live to be an 1898 war rumor correspondent, with headquarters at Key West or Havana. About the busiest people nowadays are the milliners and the gossippers. A local poet writes that "All paths lead to the grave." He doubtless refers to the homoeopaths and allopaths. Dr. Hall thinks "the laboring class observe all the year in a manner suffic-iently Lenten." He is about right. It is only the rich whose stomachs need A bee may said to be always successful in the end. Susquehanna sewing machine

SOME COUNTY PICKUPS. In the Unversalist church in Gibson, on Thursday evening last, by Rev. R. E. Fairchild, George W. Eailey and Miss Ada Sumner were united in marriage. According to figures in the county commissioner's office, Susquehanna county has 4,480 men, between the ages of 21 and 45, as returned by the assessors, who are subject to draft in case of war. This number is 12 per cent. of the entire population of 40,093 (census of 1890.)

A new Methodist church at Brookdale will be dedicated on Thursday next.

The coroner's jury in the Pepper murder case, held its last session at Rush, March 16, and rendered a verdict in substance that "A. Jackson Pepper came to his death from injuries inflicted by a whiffletree in the hands of Cornelius Wells Shew and J. James Eagen, and that the killing was willful and malice aforethought,"

Another certain sign of spring-the long string of sheriff sale notices in the newspapers of the county.

HIS SAP IS SAFE NOW.

A Great Bend man, who has a small sh" in his door yard, along the days since, and although the sugary liquid ran in good shape, the buckets never got full, because they were so handy for people passing by to help themselves. Finally he put a few drops of croton oil in each bucket, and the next day a large number of his boarders were expressing their surprise, one to another, concerning the 'wonderfully cathertic nature of sap this year." The man who loaded the buckets simply grinned. Nobody steals his sap new.

MIXED MENTIONS.

proposed route are working like beavers for the Nicholson and Lanesboro read. Referring to the action of the Susquehanna Board of Trade on the Cuban question the Great Bend Plaindealer says: "This is liable to change the entire program of exercises be-tween Uncle Sam and Spain." Why on earth has not Susquehanna taken this action earlier, and saved this country so much anxiety and expense?"

TUESDAY'S TIDINGS. Lisle Button, of Springville, this county, was last week tried in the United States district court in Scranton on a charge of passing spurious coin, and acquitted. Button came within an ace of getting in the hole. Somebody entered the Transcript composing room on Sunday and pied several cases of type.
