Marriage of Miss Lizzie Morgan to Jerry Arnold at the Bride's Home.

M'GARRITY KICKED BY A MULE

He Was a Young Man Employed as a Runner in Storr's No. 2 Shaft -- His Condition Is Very Seriouc -- Reheorsal of the United Choir in the West Market Street Welsh Baptist Church -- Other Items of Interest.

A pretty marriage took place yesterday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Morgan, of 1752 Wayne avenue, when their daughter, Miss Lizzie Morgan, became the wife of Jerry Arnold. The ceremony took place in the front parlor, which was exquisitely decorated with plants.

The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Horace Peckover, of the Puritan Congregational church. Miss Annie Space attended the bride and the groom's brother, Joseph Arnold, acted as best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding repast was enjoyed by the guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. Arnold were driven to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station. They departed on an after-noon train for New Jersey, where they will spend their honeymood with the groom's parents. Upon their return they will begin housekeeping in a neatly furnished home on Wayne ave-

KICKED BY A VICIOUS MULE. Patrick McGarrity, a young man employed as a runner in Storrs No. 2. shaft, was seriously injured yesterday. He was busily engaged about his work when he had occasion to pass a vicious mule. The animal kicked, catching McGarrity squarely in the face and on the side of the head, causing serious injury. He was rendered unconscious by the blow.

Workmen who witnessed the accident rescued him from his dangerous position and carried him to the surface, whence he was conveyed to his home in Priceburg. His injuries are extremely dangerous, and he had not regained consciousness late yesterday afternoon. McGarrity is a son of Chief of Police McGarrity, of Priceburg,

POLICY OF RETRENCHMENT.

Is Being Put Into Effect by the D., L and W. Company.

The first steps in the policy of retrenchment in the coal output of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company have been taken. Yesterday the employes of the Archbald mines removed their tools, the mules have been brought out and are being distributed elsewhere and everything now points to an indefinite period of inactivity for this immense colliery. The company by working all its collieries will exceed their proportion of the total output for the anthracite region. This being the case, some mines must be stopped. Many of the collieries owned by this company are working out coal upon which a royalty is paid. Part of the royalty goes on whether the coal is taken out or not. Three collieries will therefore still be operated. Collieries where the coal is of the evening. In behalf of the fully controlled by the company will be the ones to be shut down and the sults sustained by the people attend- plants which can lie idle with the least cost will be the first.

The Archbald heads the list and othture are exceedingly hopeful.

The funeral of Owen Davis, who are the Oxford, Cavuga, Storrs and These latter naturally come mill, will take place temorrow after- under mere conjecture as to probability of their being shut down.

INTERESTED PEOPLE.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does it, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give to those who call for it, a sample bottle Free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 25 and 50c. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

OBITUARY.

David H. Aikman, of Wilkes-Barre died at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening at his home, 287 South Main street. He had been ill only since Monday morning and the news of his death is therefore a sudden shock to his friends. The cause of death was abscess of the brain. David G. Aikman was born in Pottsville in 1891. He was educated at the Pottsville high school, where he took a special course in mining engineering. Fifteen years ago he entered the employ of the Lehigh and and the carriage was but slightly dam-Wilkes-Barre Coal company in the ca-pacity of mining engineer. He remained with that company for two years and then went to Shamokin, where for two years he worked for the Pennsylvania ompany at the Mineral Railroad Mining company's mines. Returning to Wilkes-Barre he formed a partnership with William Auman in May, 1888, which partner-ship continued until Mr. Aikman's death. In February, 1891, Mr. Aikman married Margaret Stoddart, daughter of the late John toddart, formerly senior member of what is now the firm of William Stoddart & Co. His wife and one son, Donald aged 3 years, survive. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, when services will be held at the house at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. F. B. CONVENTION OF MISSIONARY WORKERS

Was Held at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Clark's Summit.

NUMBER OF DELEGATES PRESENT

Mrs. W. C. Williams Made the Address of Welcome -- Response Was by Mrs. Serena Von Storch -- Several Valuable Papers Rend for the Edificution of the Delegates -- Next Convention Will Be Held in Simpson Church, This City.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Wyo-ming district was held at the Methodist Episcopal church, Clark's Summit, yesterday and was in every respect a most delightful occasion. Mrs. T. H. Dale presided over the sessions. A large number of delegates from the various auxiliaries were present, Among them were Mrs. R. G. Brooks, Mrs. C. M. Giffin, Mrs. Arja Williams, Mrs. Aubrey Powell, Mrs. Henwood, Mrs. Wentz, Mrs. W. H. Peck, Mrs. Hackett, Mrs. S. T. Jones, Mrs. Surdam, Mrs. Bookman, Mrs. Mary Brock, Mrs. Serena von Storch, Mrs. A. R. Raub, Miss Hawley, Mrs. J. B. Sweet, Mrs. G. Moser, Mrs. J. M. Howell, Mrs. Elwell, Mrs. Cook, of Scranton; Mrs. C. E. Mogg, Miss Crawford, Miss Standish, Wilkes-Barre; Miss Mills, Miss Atherton, Tunkhannock; Mrs. W. G. Simpson, West Pittston.

The devotional services of the morn ing were conducted by Mrs. F. W. Young. Mrs. W. C. Williams, formerly of Simpson church, gracefully greet-ed the visitors in behalf of the Clark's Summit church. She was followed by Rev. F. W. Young, who also made pleasant remarks. Mrs. Serena von Storch made a happy responsive address, after which the hymn written for the society was sung. Mrs. W. H. Peck read the secretary's report, Mrs R. G. Brooks following with that of the treasurer; Mrs. W. G. Simpson sub mitted the report of the corresponding secretary.

CITY MISSIONARY'S REPORT. The report of Miss Tillie Hawley, the city missionary of Elm Park church, was heard with interest. She gave many pathetic details of her work, speaking particularly of finding a child dead from starvation, while the father spent his earnings for drink. A pretty duet was sung by Misses Carrie Clifford and Vira Pedrick, after also showed a number of curios, brought here by Mrs. George Homan, a sister much time in travel in Alaska.

Much regret was felt at the absence of Mrs. W. H. Pearce, who was detained by illness. In her stead Mrs. J. B. Sumner conducted the devotional exercises of the afternoon. Three little people, Maud Bostedo, Ruth Williams and Percy Vosburg, sang a trio, after which reports were heard from aux iliaries. These were most encouraging. There are eleven auxiliaries in the district, of which ten submitted reports Mrs. G. Moser gave a clever and pertinent talk on "What Ails Our Auxiliaries?" treating them as if afflicted with disease, for which she prescribed

Rev. J. B. Sumner delighted the audince with a solo, "Christ is All." Little Miss Ruth Williams gave a pleasing recitation, and Mrs. J. M. Thomas read an article by Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson, who is the founder of Deaconess work in this country. Mrs. W. G. Simpson followed on that theme, making a plea for the Lucy Webb Hayes ome in Washington, to which a new building named in honor of Mrs. Rust, national corresponding secretary, is to

After reports of the committees on esolutions and place, election of officers took place, the officers of the last year being re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. T. H. Dale; recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Peck; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. G. Simpson; treasurer, Mrs. R. G. Brooks. The additional appointment of Mrs. G. Moser as secretary of reading circle was made. The next place of meeting will be Simpson church.

The ladies of the Clark's Summit church served a bountiful lunch and tea to the visitors in the church par-

DUNMORE.

Yesterday morning about 8 o'clock an old gentleman and his daughter were driving along Drinker street, when the horse, becoming frightened at an electric car which was passing, made a terrific leap sideways, overturning the carriage and hurling its occupants to the ground. The strain parted the harness and the horse, loosened from the carriage, dashed madly up the street, being finally caught at McDonough's aged. The carriage was repaired at Smith's blacksmith shop. Their names could not be learned. The Lally children, of Brownie fame, appeared at the Powell residence, on North Blakely street, last night. The numbers, which consisted of singing. dancing and musical selections, were finely rendered, as the numerous rounds applause attested. The Misses Powell also rendered a few selections Among those present were Daniel Powell and family, E. J. Hughes and family, Alex. McKay, Thomas V. Mc-Laughlin, wife and son, Fred, Stephens wife and son, and W. DePerrie. Refreshments were served after the performance.

Mr. Logan, who has conducted the Exchange hotel for the last year, will, on April 1, move to Peckville, where it is probable he will go into the same business. Mr. Logan's successor will be Horatio Simons, who has lately been conducting a hotel at Lake Poyntelle Mr. Simons says that the house will be thoroughly renovated and improved Among other improvements the billboard facing on Drinker street, which has long been an eyesore to Dunmore ans, will be torn down and a neat fence erected in its stead. When the improvements are complete Mr. Simons will have a model hotel.

The two bollers which have been used for steam heating purposes at the Eric and Wyoming Valley round-house will be dispensed with after April 1. This will throw Mead Hubbard, who has charge of them, out of employment. Emery Brown, of Fourth street, moved yesterday to Clark's Summit.

Louis Schwass, who for four consecuive terms held the position of district chief of the fire department, will hand his resignation to Mayor Bailey today, and the same will be read at the meeting of select council tonight. When in this column the exclusive announcement was made that Mr. Schwass was to resign, several well-known men in the department were brought out as candidates for the office, but their booms were short-lived and the contes simmered down to two aspirants. Joseph Rosar and George Wirth, of the Neptune Engine company. Recently Mr. Rosar retired from the fight and it appeared that Wirth would be the next chief, but yesterday afternoon Ambrose Hertz, the well-known merchant, entered into the arena and up to a late hour last night he was out hustling in the interest of his candidacy. In conversation with The Tribune reporter he stated that he had received every assurance of the appointment. James Connell lodge, No. 170, Inde-
