LIVE NEWS OF

Excitement on Price Street.

Explosion, loud and prolonged, and then a crash of wood and glass, were They were attended by a large throng the sounds which broke the usual silence of the residential portion of Price street, between North Main and North Hyde Park avenues yesterday afternoon. Every person within hearing was startled and many rushed out of their residences to find out what had happened; This was what had occurred: In the rear of a two-house block at 1114-6 Price street excavations were being nade for a cellar. The rock comes very close to the surface here and is rather hard for pick cutting. The laborers got the assistance of an exminer to do some blasting. A hole was drilled, a small piece of dynamite inerted, and-it did not explode. Nor when the third attempt was made, A sort of a covering had been put over the spot to be blasted, but it was not sufficient to withstand the shock of nearly two whole sticks of dynamite, and most of it went into the air in company with at least half a wagon load of shell rock of all sizes, "What goes up, must come down," and this debris did. Most of it fell back upon the shingle roof, with a sound like an avalanche. Some fell into the excavation, several pieces fell blocks away and one or two pieces, flying off at a

WEST SCRANTON II You Do Not Know Where It Is You Should Find Out and Strengthen It.

Where is the weak apot in your system? Is it a weakness of the stomach which causes indigestion, dyspepala, billousness, constipation, beadaches and backaches, or is it a general weakness which makes you suffer from tired, languid feelings?

Wherever or whatever your particular weakness may be, you can, if you will, get rid of it and replace it with health, strength and vigor. Do you know how? If not, you can profitably read the following opinions on the subject and get some valuable information.

Mrs. M. McMahon, of I Sumter St., Brooklyn, says. "I was formerly much troubled with indigestion but have been entirely cared by using Duffy's Pure Malt. Whiskey, which I can sincerely recommend. It gave me relief when all other remedies failed."

Mrs. J. W. Connor, of Fitchburg, Mass., says: "I was he bad health and feeling very miserable and low spirited when a friend advised me to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I did so, and am now feeling stronger, happier and healthier than I have felt in years. It has worked wonders in my case."

Hundreds of similar opinions could be furnished, but the above are quite sufficient to prove that Uniff's Pure Malt. Where is the weak spot in your system:

Taken to the Lackawanna Hospital and It Is Feared the Member Will Have To Be Amputated .- Warrants and lay sidewalks. Issued by Alderman Ruddy for the Arrest of Serra Andrassi -- He Entered Bail Before 'Squire Cooney street commissioner's time sheet For His Appearance at Court.

John Meyers, residing on Prospect avenue, had a distressing accident occur to him at 5 o'clock last evening in the Lackawanna mills, on Brook street, where he commenced to work two days ago. His position was a feeder to the garnet machine, in the basement of the mills, and it was his duty to stand in front of a large apron and direct the wool into the rolls of the machine. Instead of standing where instructed young Meyers, shortly before the accident occurred, took a position on the side, and in outting the material into the rolls, his attention was attracted to a conversation indulged in by two boys near by, and, turning about, he joined in the talk, still "feeding," and, in a few minutes, his right hand slipped in with the wool. He screamed and the machinery on the whole floor was stopped and the work of releasing Meyers' hand began. With much difficulty the hand was removed horribly torn and crushed, and street. The bed and clothing were on several doctors were sent for, but none fire, but only smouldering. They were at their offices. Finally Dr. Capwell, of the central city, came, and after dressing the injury instructed Mr. Conners, the superintendent of the mills, to have the young man sent to the Lackawanna hospital, and at 6.30 o'clock Meyers was removed to that institution. The injured member will have to be amputated just above the
