MR. MORSE HAS BEEN ENGAGED.

He Will Be Heard at Coming Sym phony Orchestra Concert. Morse, of this city, has been engaged by the Symphony Orchestra ociety for the concert on Monday, April 18, at the Lyceum. The instrument which he will play is best described by Hector Berlioz, the celebrated composer, who says, in speaking of Mr. Sax, of Paris, the inventor of the instrument: "He has supplied many voids existing among the family merit, however, is the creation of a new family, complete since a few years in the matter. only-that of the instruments with a Whiten, Boles, Well's, Belln, Archbald, rare and precious qualities. Soft and penetrating in the higher part, full and rich in the lower part, their medium has something profoundly expressive. It is, in short, a quality of tone sur with the sound of the violincello, of the clarionet and corno inglese, and invested with a brazen tinge which imparts a quite peculiar accent." Mr. Morse has mastered the technical difficulties of this really wonderful instrument and as a performer will add appreciably to the possibilities of the orchestra. Others on the programme will be the celebrated Max Heinrich and Theodore Hemberger's talented pupil, Fred. Widmayer, as violin solo-

JOSEPH FLETCHER INJURED.

He Was a Driver Boy in the Bellevue

Slope. Joseph Fletcher, about 18 years of age and employed as a driver boy in the Bellevue slope workings of the Bellevue mines, was severely injured by being squeezed yesterday while at work. A long portion of his route Fletcher is accustomed to ride on the front bumper of the car. He had got-ten off to "sprag" and was attempting to get back on when he was injured. He failed to notice his closeness to big prop, which supported a weak pot in the roof on the gangway, and as he swung up on the car he was caught between the moving car and prop. He was thus squeezed about the abdomen and thighs. The injured lad

The final meeting of the estimates ommittee of the reorganized councils final, as far as work on the 1898 appropriations is concerned-was held last evening. A large delegation from the to urge provision for a plumbing inspectors' salary, but their efforts were not successful.

It was stated by Chairman Keller at the beginning of the session that an excess of $592 had been included in the estimates at the last meeting, not including provision for the Bromley avenue sewer repairs. Clerk Morris was directed to read many letters received by Chairman Keller from the Master Plumbers and plumbing firms favoring provision for the plumbing inspector's

Mr. Coyne asked unanimous consent that representatives of the plumbers be heard. Mr. Wagner and others objected and the request was not allowed. The salary of $1,000 was stricken out at the last meeting and no further action on the matter was taken.

The following changes were made in the estimates as revised at the last meeting: For tiling, painting and repairing the first floor of the city hall, $1,500, stricken out; stokers for fire department, reduced from $750 to $250; Engine and Columbia Hose companies respectively, items reduced from $1,-440 to $1,320 in each case; rent of engine ouses, reduced from $3,200 to $3,020; lectric lights, number increased from 348,542,50.

New items were added as follows: Bromley avenue sewer repairs, $500; Spring Brook Water company, deficdency bills, $405; iron fence, Putnam, street, Second ward, $50; deficiency pills, repairs Eagle Hose wagon, $50; purchase of fire hose, $326.71 or whatver balance is available, in addition o the $1,500 already estimated for that purpose. For opening Luzerne street, $200 estimated at the previous meeting was stricken out.
