COMMONERS' DOINGS.

Committees Announced -- Estimates Pass Two Readings.

Select council held a short session Easton last night and passed finally the appropriations ordinance so the common ers could take it up. The latter passed It two readings without suggesting a hav single change. It stands just as published.

J. F. Reynolds spoke in behalf of eight property owners who object to the extension of the sewer up Canaan street, as provided for by ordinance. entertained and instructed. The resolution authorizing the work was referred to the committee on sewers. The sewer was not constructed at the time ordinance specified, because there was no water there.

The Fabric Fire Hose company's bill of $700 for hose was ordered paid. Resolutions were adopted authorizing the chairmen of councils and city ised.

DANGEROUS SPORT.

The Gibbs boys, of Park street, thought to have a little fun with their sisters the other evening. They tied a wire from an electric light pole to C. R. Smith's fence, about four inches above the sidewalk. Instead of the sisters the first to come along were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paul. They fell over the wire, and Mrs. Paul was very clever. quite seriously hurt, while Mr. Paul lost his watch. He learned who the practical jokers were, and with their assistance the time piece was recovered. The wire stretchers made profuse apologies, indicating true penitence
