It was regarded as an exceedingly important and significant an nonneement. In the brief debate to day the opening guns of the contest that begins romorrow were fired. Brondshies were exchanged and then the house adjourned. Mr. Lentz, an Ohlo Democrat, who drew the fire of General Grosvenor last Thursday, returned to the assault again today, at- sided. tucking what he termed the "vacillating" tolicy of the president, the "midnight conferences" at the White House, with Senator Elkins and John J. McCook, and assorting that the president's reconurendations really meant that the or mitonomy.

Mr. Hepburn (Rep. In.) made a spirfted and indignant reply, denouncing the intimation of such a pollcy as little short of scoundrelism. Then came General Gresvenor's important annonneement upon which Mr. Bailey, the Democratic leader, countered; taking the position that if the president bud meant to declare for the independence of Cuba, he would have said so in specific words. The message was clear and lucid, he said, except as p the recommendations, and it had required all the ingenuity of General Grosvenor to torture such an interpretation from them. In conclusion he declared that the president who would live to survive the adjum of the Ameriean neonle

REV. DR. BRIGGS RESIGNS.

His Letter Quitting the Presbyterian thurch. New York, April 12.--It is believed that the last chapter in the famous Dr. Briggs case has now been concluded. At a meeting of the New York Presbytery yesterday a letter from Dr. Erlggs was read, withdrawing from the Presbyterian church. The resignation was accepted. Dr. Briggs' letter was as fol-

"After long and careful reflection, I have decided to sever my connection with the Presbytery of 20 w York, and nore especially with the Presbyterian church in the United States of Ameri a. I withhold the reasons for this de cision, in the interests of peace and have remained under your jurisdiction conscience. 1 desire to act in all charity towards all my brethren, and, so ar as possible, relieve them from responsibility for my action. Therefore, do now withdraw from the jurisdicion of the Presbytery of New York and I hold myself free to unite with bat part of the Holy Catholic church nto which God in His grace calls me." A number of the members of the resbytery objected to permitting Brisgs to withdraw in that anney, and there was a spirited fuite over a proposition to refer the after to the coming general assembly, was found, however, that the book procedure provides that the name any minister must at once be strickn from the roll upon his announcing his withdrawal, unless charges against im be actually pending at the time In the case of Dr. Briggs charges had en made and the trial had been held, suspended minister. It was held, there that his name must be stricken tom the roll at once. The matter will he reported to the general assembly but it is said that that will be a more formality.
