A PRESENT TO THE CITY.

The Strip of Land Along the Lackswanna River.

The strip of land north of the Sixth avenue bridge on River street which was purchased by E. C. Harnden from the Delaware and Hudson company some time ago, was bought from the latter by property owners of that street and will be presented to the city to be added to the park reservation. Those sharing the expenses were Trinity church through its vestry, G. A. Herbert and E. A. Wheeler. This was done to insure that the plot would not become an eye sore as it was feared that at some future time the land might be used for the crection of bill boards or other unsightly purposes. The city has already secured control of the rest of the strip along the river and this was needful to make the plot complete. Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Mary Walker, of Lincoln avenue to James Flannery, of Sand street, to take place at St. Rose's church on Wednesday, April 20.

On Tuesday evening the town coun-cil met in regular session, with all members present except Messrs. Patten finished throughout in expensive woods, and Rogan. The street commissioner presented his time for the month of handsomest in the city. Mr, and Mrs. Roberts expect to take possession in ordered paid. Numerous borough and ٠ electric light bills were then read and acted upon. Bills from the Scranton Supply and Machinery company, P. F. Collins, Olyphant Record and Patrick Blewitt were referred to the finance 444 ommittee for investigation. President O'Brien stated that it is his opinion that the borough is paying too high for fuel to the Delaware and Hudson company and advised the electric light committee to ascertain if culm could tot be obtained from some other source at a cheaper rate. The finance com-mittee reported that they had adjusted 4 ě the wages of the borough employes as follows: Street commissioner, $1.75 per day; jaborers, $1.59; team work, $3.50; asons, $2.25; electrician.860 per month; engineer, $60; fireman, $1.50 per day. The janitor is to receive fifty cents for ach meeting night of the council. The secretary's salary will be $275 a year, and is empowered to collect all money according from the electric light plant. An ordinance was read providing for the widening of all sidewalks on Lackawanna street from the bridge to the extension of Dunmore street, to the extent of two feet, leaving the roadway thirty-six feet from curb to curb. It passed first and second readings. Burgess McNulty made several recomnendations to council, and suggested hat the borough ordinance be enforced ompelling owners of cattle and swine o keep them off the public highway. The secretary was instructed to have notices printed to that effect. Republican primaries of the Second
