

CLOSING SESSIONS OF THE CONVENTION

Officers for Women's Foreign Missionary Society Chosen.

ALL SERVE FOR NEXT FIVE YEARS

Mrs. Botta Gave a Review of the Work Done in the Towanda District—Report of the Treasurer Was Very Encouraging—Review of the Work Accomplished in the Scranton District Was Presented by Mrs. M. R. Kays—The Resolutions.

The sessions which mark the twentieth anniversary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Lackawanna which were begun Wednesday morning at the Second Presbyterian church, were continued yesterday morning and afternoon.

The morning session began at 10 o'clock, and was opened by the reading of a devotional exercise by Mrs. W. R. Holmes, of Honesdale. Mrs. N. N. Betts, of Towanda, followed with a complete and interesting review of the work done by the Towanda district, of which she is president.

The afternoon session was devoted to the closing of the convention. Mrs. H. E. Raynor, of Carbondale, as treasurer of the society, made her report. It was an elaborate one covering as it did the finances of each of the four districts into which the Presbytery is divided and also the finances of the combined society which only meets once in five years.

MISSIONARY LITERATURE. The subject of the proper missionary literature, which should be procured by interested workers was candidly dealt with in a special paper upon "What Shall We Read?" by Miss F. M. Jessup, of Montrose.

Mrs. M. R. Kays, of Green Ridge, president of the Scranton district, gave a review of the work accomplished by this district during last year and for the past five years. A very interesting and encouraging report concerning the Auxiliaries, Bands, and Christian Endeavor societies was made by Mrs. C. H. Gregory, secretary, of Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. William Little, of Honesdale, made a deeply interesting address, talking as he thought "Jesus, the Ideal Missionary." After the singing of a hymn these present enjoyed the short sketches of the missionaries now in foreign lands who were sent out by this society.

Mrs. H. B. Gaylord, of Wyalusing, spoke of Mrs. R. H. DeHeer, who is in Africa; Mrs. W. E. Frisbie, of Carbondale, spoke of Mrs. E. D. Vandenburg, of Hainan, China; Mrs. J. A. Pritch, China; and Mrs. H. S. Blackburn, Persia. Mrs. H. Bunnell, of Scranton, spoke of Mrs. H. W. Luce, the wife of Rev. Harry Luce, who went with her husband to the mission fields in China last fall.

Mrs. J. G. Watson, of Pottsville, Mrs. J. H. Doolittle, a vice president of the Montrose district, made some remarks concerning the late Mrs. True, who was stationed at Tokio, Japan, and was a personal friend of hers.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED. The following resolutions were submitted and adopted: Resolved, That we extend to the ladies of Scranton our heartfelt appreciation of the cordial way in which they have welcomed us to their hearts and homes.

WOULD FRIGHTEN SPANIARD'S ARMY

That's What Supl. Howell Said of the Teachers' Singing.

MEANT AS COMPLIMENT, OF COURSE.

Fourth Day of the City Teachers' Institute Opens with a Season of Patriotic Singing that Evokes from the Superintendent the Remark: "If Spain Heard You Sing It That Way, There Would Be No War"—Doctor Sprague on Literature.

The singing at the opening of yesterday's session of the city teachers' institute was one of the principal features of the day. When the opening song had been concluded Superintendent Howell requested Professor Derman to have "The Star Spangled Banner" sung. It was given with such a spirit as to call from the superintendent the remark: "If Spain heard you sing it that way there would be no war."

THE BRYAN RECEPTION. Democrats Were Actively at Work Yesterday Arranging for It.

Arrangements for the Bryan meeting next Monday evening are being completed by a committee composed of members of the city and county committees met in C. G. Poland's insurance office yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and elected C. G. Poland, president; M. A. McClintock, secretary; and E. J. Lynett, treasurer.

PROF. WELLS' DISCOURSE. Prof. A. H. Wells, instructor in chemistry in the high school, gave an interesting discourse on "Great Principles and Simple Experiments," illustrating it with practical experiments.

THE THIRD WOMAN. By the author of "Quo Vadis;" paper. 17c. Ladies' Wool Waists. Here is a two-days' sale in Ladies' Wool Waists—about 200 of them, that we'll close at a bargain.

WELL-KNOWN CLARINET PLAYER. Clarence E. Knowles Will Be Heard on this Party Orchestra.

Clarence E. Knowles, the well-known solo clarinet player, has returned to Scranton for good. He has been permanently engaged with the Symphony Orchestra society of Scranton.

SUCIDE'S BODY BURIED. Last Hope of Identification Was Abandoned Yesterday.

The last hope of identifying the remains of the McKeever's held suicide was abandoned yesterday on receipt of a letter from the New York city detective bureau. The body, which had been lying in Price's undertaking establishment, was buried in Washburn street cemetery.

FUNERAL OF WALTER DAWSON. Services Held Yesterday Afternoon at St. Luke's Church.

The funeral of the late Walter Dawson, a former resident of this city, who died in New York city last Monday, was held here yesterday afternoon. The remains were brought to this city by funeral director Raub and borne from the station to St. Luke's church at 2 o'clock.

COLLINS-HALE TROUBLE AGAIN. The Hale Faction, It is Claimed, Refuses to Keep Promises.

A. L. Collins, W. W. Van Dyke and W. F. Van Dyke secured, yesterday, a writ of alternative mandamus on John Kosenbach, C. E. Spoel and C. E. Hale, compelling them to show cause why they do not attend a meeting of directors of the Collins-Hale Manufacturing company.
