

DAY'S DOINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

House of Patrick O'Brien Entirely Destroyed by Fire.

FIRE COMPANIES WERE USELESS

Owing to the distance of the building from the nearest fire hydrant, a stream of water could not be secured.

People residing here were attracted late Saturday evening by an intense red glow from a fire in the heavens to the northwest.

Their services were useless owing to the great distance to the nearest hydrant. The house was totally destroyed.

THREE FUNERALS.

The funeral of George Emery took place Saturday afternoon from his late home on East Market street.

The funeral of Annie, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kohnansky, who was fatally burned on Tuesday last, took place Saturday afternoon from the home of Mrs. O'Brien.

Not since the consecration of St. Mary's German Catholic church has there been such a throng in that large and beautiful edifice as was yesterday at 1:30 o'clock mass.

The girls, robed in the handsomest of white dresses, and the boys, attired in black clothes with spotless linen and white neckties, presented a beautiful picture.

REBUILDING OF THE OXFORD FIRE

Clearing Up the Debris About the Scene of the Oxford Fire.

PROBABILITIES OF REBUILDING

There is an impression that the coal taken out through other openings—Small Fires in the Residence of John Thomas, of North Bromley Avenue—Two Largely Attended Funerals.

Saturday morning a large force of men were put at work clearing away the charred debris which remains after the disastrous burning of the brick breaker on Tenth street.

The purpose is to get the loose stuff out of the way so as to get at the large quantities of marketable coal which the breaker "pockets" contained at the time of the fire.

Temporary pockets will be erected and the coal stored therein in regard to the other arrangements for the weather.

Through the Oxford workings are known as "wet" in mining parlance, no difficulty has ensued thus far in handling the water.

The main shaft of the breaker is in a bad way and will be replaced. The shaft is situated north of the destroyed breaker and some distance away.

Naturally the above work is necessary at this time, but the serious question which confronts the officials and men who are employed in the mines and breaker is that of re-building.

So far as the necessity of re-building is concerned as regards the getting out of the coal, other arrangements are possible.

There is a coal enough to mine for years to come, and of course will not be abandoned.

As was stated in the report of the fire, the large "ashery" breaker adjoining the other breaker, was also destroyed.

The plan was to erect a new brick breaker, and this was to be built on the site of the old breaker.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Thursday evening next an entertainment and social will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Amley.

Mrs. M. S. Jacobs, of Lafayette street, spent yesterday at Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Travis, of North Main street, are entertaining Mrs. Silas Smith and son, of Mill City.

Mrs. W. A. Reid, of Jackson street, has returned from a trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. George Beeze, of North Lincoln street, is the guest of relatives in Bloomsburg.

The beautiful cantata, "David, the Shepherd Boy," will be rendered next Wednesday evening at Meier's hall by a choir numbering sixty voices.

The solo parts will be sung by local vocalists of note and the rendition of the cantata will in all probability be the greatest ever given.

John Thomas, of Bromley avenue, narrowly escaped serious injury to himself and the burning down of the house he resides in, yesterday afternoon by a very peculiar accident.

Shortly before 2 o'clock Mr. Thomas went into the sitting room and lying down on the lounge, struck a match to light his pipe.

In throwing the match toward a spittoon, sitting near by on the floor, it clung to his fingers and then dropped onto the lounge.

The flame of the match ignited a heavy fringe on the lounge and almost instantly the whole top was ablaze, the excelsior stuffing being highly inflammable.

Mr. Thomas jumped away and thus prevented his clothes from becoming ignited. He did not lose his presence of mind and, opening a door which led to the outside, he dragged the blazing lounge into the yard, where it was partially consumed before the flames could be extinguished.

Neighbors seeing this, became excited and an alarm was turned in from Box 32, corner of Bromley avenue and Seward street, to which the Firemen and Columbia responded.

Their services were not, however, needed. This is the first alarm of fire from this side since the Oxford fire, and all alarms on this side will now be still "a few pointers."

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may come with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases.
