THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1898.

DIME BANK BUILDING.

SCRANTON, PA.

Matters Solicited Where Others Failed.

Clifton, Madison and Lehigh. There were no contests. The chairman appointed the following committee on resolutions: H. E. Harris, Taylor; Dr. N. C. Mackey, Waverly; R. Willis Reese, Old Forge; W. K. Beck, Cov-of Bellevue, boy and girl, was brought to the attention of the board. Both of the children are covered with running President, Rev. E. M. Beysher, of Hobsores. The boy's nose is almost entirely rotted away and he presents a Scranton; recording secretary, Francis frightful appearance. Although the Kauter, of Wilkes-Barre: German sec-

Good Shepherd, two to the Hillside father has promised to properly care retary, John Gahnn, of Scranton; corfor his children they are about the worthy features of the convention. The elections resulted as follows bie; vice-president, Edward Eyers, of Philo" Settles Your Stomach.

An effortvescent pleasant tasting pow-r. for the almost immediate cure of sudache. Neuraigia and Eackache. Philo" is effectual in all cases of Sleep-Headache. essness, Indigestion, Heartburn and Alcoholic

"Philo' is positively the best remedy I have yet used for my headaches." Vic-tor Koch, Jr., Scranten House, Scran-ton Pa

"PHILO" MFG. CO., 125 Clinton Place. New York City.

MCMULLEN & GO. Have opened a General insurance Office in The Traders' National Bank Bida.

Eest Stock Companies represented, Large Shes especially solicited. Telephone 1863.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Zehnder and Miss Zehnder are home from a visit to New York city.

J. Augustus Schmidt, formerly of Hazleton, now with Wheaton, Darling & Wood-ward, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday with J. Bartholomew Grambs, of Adams ave-

Mrs. Talbot, wife of Bishop Talbot, left yesterday for their home at South Both-lehom. Miss Talbet will remain here un-til Thursday as the guest of the Misses Jermyn.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of George Bentley Poore, formerly of this city, now of Johannes-burg. South Africa, to Miss Ida May Webber, daughter of George Edward Webber, president of the Rand Mining company, in the service of which Mr. Poore is engaged.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Parke, of Scranton, have been spending the past two months in Jamaica, West Indies, On April 7, with other passengers, they were on board the steamer Boverly in Kingston harbor expecting momentarily to sail for Boston. Just before starting the United Restor. Just before starting the United States consul came on board and all the passengers were notified that they must go ashore, as the vessel had been char-trong to the the start of conducting and resultating pri-mary elections by the Republican county fore be it. tered by the United States government to go to Cuba and take the Americans there back to the United States. The passengers of the Deverity are all guests of the United States of America at Kings-ton until the saling of the nExt steamer for Boston .-- Pittston Gazette,

FUNERAL OF J. D. CLARK.

Held Under Direction of Peter Williamson Masonie Lodge.

The funeral of J. D. Clark was held yesterday afternoon at the house, 719 Madison avenue, Poter Williamson lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, of which Mr. Clark was a member, had charge of the funeral. The brief service at the house was conducted by Rev. Dr. James McLeod.

tion of the resolutions with reference Special cars conveyed the Masons present to Dunmore cemetery, where the committal of the remains was made ducting primaries. He said that for a long time the conventions of the disaccording to the Masonic ritual. This trict have been held in Scranton, the storm center of political corruption. Every convention held there had felt service was conducted by C. L. Van Buskirk, secretary of Peter Williamson lodge. The pall-bearers, members of the Masonic Veterans' association. the effect of influences outside the district. They were trying to get away were John J. Marshall, Manuel Morris, O. B. Wright, E. C. Browning, Thomas E. Lyddon and E. C. Hughes.

ington; James Morris, ir., Taylor, No business was transacted while the constreets daily selling matches, papers, vention was waiting for the report of etc. They are considered a standing menace to the health of those with the committee on resolutions. Before the committee on resolutions whom they come in contact and the eported a permanent organization was agent was directed to have steps taken effected by the election of James E. to place them in some suitable institu-Watkins as chairman. W. K. Beck, of Covington, was nominated by Edward The report of the agent of the soci-Harris and James E. Watkins was nominated by William Bennett, Mr. during the month she investigated Beek withdrew and Mr. Watkins was twenty-nine cases and gave assistance chosen by acclamation, W. K. Beck to twenty-two. Seven of the applicants tor Koch, Jr., Scranton House, Scran-ton, Pa. "For Neuralgia and Headaches Philo is perfection." Anna E. Huber, C. C. Uushman, 208 Adams St. Sold by all first class druggists. Price 10, 25 and 50 cents and $1.00. Scrantown Headaches Philo RESOLUTIONS.

We, the Republicans of the Third leg

omination

MR. HOLGATE OBJECTED.

R. H. Holgate objected to the porto the Crawford county plan of con-home, one to the Foundling home and islative district of Lackawanna county in convention assembled, renew our al one to the Home for the Friendless. Two children were taken from jail, legiance to the matchless principles opublicanism as promulgated in the St two were sent to relatives and medical wuis platform. We unreservedly and unqualifiedly en aid was furnished to three persons. dorse and commend the wise, able and statesman-like administration of Presi-dent McKinley. He has proved himself eminently worthy of the great confidence ACTION OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES. Adopt Resolutions on the Death of and trust reposed in him by a loving, generous and patriotic people. Firm, dig-nified, wise and fearless, he has met the highest anticipations of the Republican

William T. Smith. At a regular meeting of the public library trustees, on April 16, the followparty and the American people. His manly and sagacious conduct in these soul-stirring and epoch-making times has ing minute was unanimously adopted: The board of trustees of the Scranton won the plaudits of a great nation and unstinted admiration of the civilized We ratify and endorse the admirable record of our own representative in con-gress. Hon. William Connell. His firm adherence to the principles of a protective tariff, his carnest advocacy of an honest financial polley and his determi-nation to represent his constituency entitle him to the appreciation of the whole death; and was greatly interested in the institution and maintainance of the pub-lie library, to which he gave much thought and time. To that interest, and to his generous spirit, we are especially indebted for the line portrait of Mr. J. J. Albright Gy Chartran) which adorns the walls of our reading room. Wise in judgment, sound in discretion, sincere in expression, and firm in de-cision, none of the many organizations with which our associate and friend was We therefore, instruct the delegates this day elected to vote first, last and all the time for the nomination of Hon. William Conneil for the office of governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to use all honorable means to secure his

Whereas, At the last preceding county convention a code of rules for the election of delegates known as the Crawford counwith which our associate and friend was connected will feel his loss more, or sympathize more sincerely with his af-flicted wife and family, than this board. The secretary is directed to have a ty system was presented and referred to a committee for consideration, and Whereas. The adoption of these rules would insure uniformity in bolding primary elections and have a tendency to remove the baleful and debasing influ-ences of bribery and corruption, thereby of this minute properly transcribed d presented to his widow in assurance of this fact.

They were married March 9, 1878 and lived together until May 3, 1882. He left her she says, without cause or provocation. George D. Taylor is her cates for the legislature shall in their respective yours be held at the times and places fixed in said years for holding primaries for nominating the Republican county ticket and the returns of such elections shall be made at the same time and place indicated for county returns. attorney.

Not Ailected by War. The Prudential Life Insurance company has issued a circular to its superintendents, stating that all the policies which may be in force at time of eclaration of war will remain good with no extra premium charged, and that it will not be necessary in such case to send in any policies for end-r-betsent. Book Auction, 427 Spruce Street. Beginning this afternoon at 2.30 and 7 o'clock evenings for a few days only. Large miscellaneous stock of standard authors. Albert Harris, aucfrom this and do as every legislative tioneer.

scoretary, Mrs. E. sher, of Hobbie; treasurer, Miss Jo 5. C. SNYDER, D. D. S., sephine Rohrwasser, of Scranton; national delegates, Rev. H. F. J. Sencker, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. E. M. Beysher, of Hobble; Rev. A. L. Ramer, of Scranon; state delegates, Miss Josephin Rohrwasser, of Scranton; Rev. H. F. J. Seneker, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. E. ety, Mrs. W. B. Duggan, showed that M. Beysher, of Hobble; Rev. A. L. Ramer, of Scranton; Rev. Mr. Speicher, of Scranton.

THE NEXT CONVENTION. were found to be unworthy. Transpor-St. Peter's church, Hughestown, was tation was furnished to nine persons elected as the place of holding the and employment was secured for seven. Lodging and meals were furnished for text convention. two, one was sent to the House of the

At the evening session, in addition to he devotional and other convention exercises, there were selections by the choir, a vocal solo by Miss Pichel, a violin solo by John Brunner, and a quartette by F. J. Widmayer, John Gahnn, John Bruner and Otto Stoeckel. The convention closed with the singing, League Rally hymn.

Its New Quarters.

Life Insurance company of New York Public library. Albright Memorial build-ing, desires to record its deep sense of the affliction which befell it in the death in its new quarters on the eighth floor of its esteemed vice president. William Taliman Smith, March 25, 1898. We re-alize that he has left a vacancy on our board, and in our hearts, which it will Superinterdent William Hodby had

Mr. Smith was vice president from the time of our first organization to his death; and was greatly interested in the institution and maintainance of the pub-methy of the com-pany's 65 local agents, with an equal pany's 65 local agents, with an equal number of their lady friends, attended.

BISHOP TALBOT WAS BUSY.

He Paid a Visit to Various Parts of of the City.

Eishop Talbot was a very busy man yesterday. He spent the day touring the city and succeeded in getting a good idea of local conditions. This information was desired by him that he might know just what policy is ad-

E. G. Coursen

district in the state does, hold its con vention within the confines of the dis- | Music, skating, dancing; Armory Th'ad'y.

by the congregation, of the Luther INSURANCE MEN BANQUET. Metropolitan Company Celebrates in

The local branch of the Metropolitan idence in the Library building. Superintendent William Hodby had

MALONEY OIL AND MANUFACTURING CO.

BURNING, LUBRICATING

AND CYLINDER

PAINT DEPARTMENT .- Linsoed Oil, Turpentine, White Lead Coal fan, Pitch

406=408 Lacka. Ave.

Siebecker & Watkins

000000000

THE KERR STOCK has proved a veritable Klondike of Bargains, where every purchaser makes a lucky strike. Here's some valuable nuggets that await your picking up today :

Cottage Striped Curtains

321 Spruce St., Opp. Hotel Jermyn.

50 or 60 pairs of these pretty little draperies that Kerr & Co. sold for $1.35 go on sale today at 35 cents a pair.

Lace Bed Sets

Three pieces-spread and two shams, 6 styles go on sale today at exactly half of Kerr & Co.'s price, 75c, 85c, $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $2 a Set.

Mantel Draperies

Embroidered China Silk Mantel Draperies, with fringe, that are worth $1.75, go on sale today at $1.00 each.

BARBOUR'S HOME CREDITHOUSE Is the place to get our Furniture; we can pay a little every month and have the ads all the time we are paying for them. and shat's where we're going.

Scranton Bicycles,

Sama and a substant of the sub

Iron and Steel,

in all colors and prices. I have besides Hazelton Brothers, Baus, Whitney, Hinze, Richmond, etc., at prices from $200 unward, and payments $6 a. month or more. Send direct to Wilkes-Barre, I am prepared to give liberal discounts to those who buy direct.

THE WESTON MILL CO

Scranton, Carbondale, Olyphant.

Old Instruments

George H. Ives

9 West Market Street, Wilkes-Barro,

SOUND ARGUMENT.

Taken in Exchange.

