THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 21.—The actual war situation of today caused a decline in the stock market. Some very heavy blocks were thrown over in the final hour and everything went to show that these were liquidations of long holdings, such market leaders as Burlington, St. Paul, Louisville and New York Central fell over 3 points below last night's close. There was no rally in the final dealings, the market continued active and weak and closing at the lowest. During the early part of the day selling for foreign account was large and offerings were well absorbed. The number of shares sold for this account is estimated at 30,000. Total sales of stocks were 304,000 shares.
