Celestial Lodge of Odd Fellows Celebrates Its Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

HELD IN COMPANY H ARMORY

The Event Was One of the Most Notable in a Social Way That Has Taken Place in North Scranton Lodge Circles for Some Time. Marriage of Miss Winifred Durkin to James Ferguson in the Holy Rosary Church.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Celestial lodge, No. 833, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was celebrated with pomp, belitting the occasion, last evening in Company H armory. Seldom has there been seen such elaborateness in decorations as adorned the walls and ceiling. The stage was decorated with a large size flag and a wealth of plants and hot house flowers.

The large audience was seated in the center of the hall, with the banquet tables on either side, exquisitely arranged in twos and laden with delica-cles which had an inviting appearance.

When the chairman, W. C. Cowles, called the meeting to order, the seating espacity was taxed and many were compelled to stand. After a brief speech, in which he outlined the programme for the evening's enjoyment, Mr. Cowles introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Attorney Geo. D. Taylor, who delivered an eloquent and thoughtful address. Mr. Taylor's remarks were greeted with tumultous applause. The chairman then called | nished bail in the sum of $500, upon the talented elecutionist, Miss Cora Griffin, who completely captivated her audience by her eleverness. To an encore she responded with a timely Thomas Middleton then favored the audience with a song which was appreciated, and this was followed by a mer-itorious recitation by G. E. Heynolds, Del. Rowley and his daughter, Mrs. Walter Evans, favorites with North Scranton people, delighted the audience with some excellent musical selections. A soprano solo was rendered in fine style by Miss Rose Aragoni. She was compelled to respond to an encore. A recitation entitled "Come" was fulfilled by Tallie Williams.

The audience, after this number, was favored with a whistling selection by Miss Minerva Hoop. John Roberts, of Dickson City, rendered a cornet solo ir a pleasing manner, and a recitation by Miss Clare Slocum concluded the entertainment part of the celebration.

A brief reception was held before the guests sat down to the repast. After all had been seated George D. Taylor, toastmaster of the evening, proposed a number of toasts, which were most happily responded to. County Superintendent J. C. Taylor responded to the toast "Our Lodge," and dealt briefly with the history of the organization. "Our Grand Lodge" was allotted to Grand Master W. Gaylord Thomas. O. P. Miller took "Our Past Grands' as his theme and proved very inter-"Widows and Orphans" was responded to by William Morgan and produced from the subject much food for conjecture among the frater-

Vosburg. He eloquent y responded and his remarks were conctuated with applause. J. R. Thomas was given the "Veteran Odd Fellows." The last toast of the list vas "Patriarchai Degree" by Grand

Representative Edward C. Dean. Celestial lodge was instituted twentylive years ago last evening, with the following, but few of whom now surive: A. H. Winton, G. A. Kemmerng, D. N. Swan, C. W. Millard, Major f. B. Fish, O. P. Miller, G. H. Wells, Pharles W. Zeigler, E. E. Corwin, H. Whitney, Henry Schrimser, William Love, C. E. Anderson, J. C. Reynolds P. J. Detweiler, A. C. Snyder, E. C. Crollin, S. F. Mall, George Andrews and T. R. Lillie. Since that time the lodge has thrived and numbers today

140 members in good standing.

The committee who had charge of last evening's affair was: S. Wells Corwin, G. C. Rogers, E. D. Corwin, Otto D. Myers, M. V. Handrick, To them much credit is due for the manner in which they disposed of the arduous duties attending such events. The elaborate supper was served by the Ladies' Ald society of the Methodist Episcopal church.

District Deputy Grand Regent Geo. r. Bugden, of Green Ridge, was among he visitors, and he delivered a speech replete with data of the order and ncidentally told good stories. Deputy Clerk of the Courts Emil

Bonn gave his friends an agreeable surprise by rendering in faultless manner popular ballads. Mr. Bonn's vocal qualities were quite unknown until last night, and Chairman Hertz stated that was Mr. Bonn's modesty that forade him coming forth as a singer

Attorney John F. Murphy, of the central city, made a pleasing address, and Henry Muskett, the well known passo, sang two selections. Klauminzer sang also and the session ame to a close. At the meeting Danlel Mahlmann was initiated.

FIGHT DECLARED OFF.

The sparring tournament arranged by the South Side Sporting club, for Monday night, has been declared off. Sheriff Pryor has notified "Moxie" Jordan, manager of the club, that the affair would not be permitted to go and that sufficed. The more conservative members of the Workingmen's society objected to the boxing match, as the last one conducted by the South Side club in their hall was not, in their stimate, very creditable.

At the time the question was raised n the meeting of the Workingmen's ociety, as to whether the hall would be again rented for such purposes. Golden's hall in Bellevue will be used for the tournament Jordan stated last night. The date has not been decided

NUBS OF NEWS.
