Y. M. C. A. TEAM LOST TO THE ROCHESTERS

But the Score Up 10-3 Was No Discredit.

LOCAL PITCHERS SOMEWHAT WILD

This Weakness Coupled with Some Costly Errors Explains the Professionals' Nine Uncarned Runs. Small Crowd Present Owing to the Military Excitement -- Plays by Peatures.

Morton's crowd of immigrants or emigrapts-its difficult to determine which, ere or in Rochester-at last got an ideal day and ideal opportunity yesterday to limber up after nine days of dampness, cold and mactivity. But other things did not correspond to the weather. The present international crisis and the Thirteenth regiment, of Scranton, which left last evening for Mount Gretna, detracted interest from the game and unless Morton had a guarantee he will leave here with only the proceeds from an audience of about a hundred persons.

The Young Mon's Christian association team opposed to Rochester is probably the best amateur team in this part of the state, bu the wildness of the pitchers, Mulderig and O'Neil and some costly errors removed all doubt that Rochester would win, though the was close until the sixth inning. Rochester was first at but and had three on bases and two out with Clymer up in the first inning, but the usually reliable Clymer forced Schffler at second. Clerman's walk and steal and Walter's single with two out in the second, scored the first run of the game. In Scranton's third two runs were curned of Yorkes by a single, double and single consecutively. In the fourth Rochester scored three and got a lead of two on Boyd's walk, Yerkes' single, an outfield error. Walter's single, Lugan's life and Massey's single with two out. . A walk to Bonner Facan's single and a double play on the latter and Big Bill developed a run early in the sixth. Scheffler went to first on an error, stole second and came to on Clymer's single. Rochester opened the eighth with four on velvet. Four runs were tallied on an error, Messey's single. Griffin's double to right-center, two infield errors and Gillon's single. Two singles put Scranton men on first and third at the opening of the last of the eighth. The runher on third scored on the other's steal and German's fumble during the chas-

Yerkes pitched four innings and gave six hits for seven bases. Gillon in five innings gave five hits for six bases. Sensational catches by Eagan and Griffin and Clymer's one-hand blocking f a fly hit in shorr right were the Manager Morton says he has not settled upon the right field candidate. He will not do so nor make any changes until after a long spell of favorable weather.
