Five-Year-Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles Was Badly Burned.

PATRIOTIC RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY LACKAWANNA COUNCIL, BOY-AL ARCANUM - FUNERALS CON-DUCTED YESTERDAY - MEETING OF THE PICKWICK CLUB - Me-MANUS COMMITTED TO THE COUN-TY JAIL-MRS. THOMAS JEFFRIES INJURED BY A FALL.

Terribly burned and suffering from a severe shock, little 5-year-old Oliver A. Miles lies at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles, 1211 Price street, in a precarious condition. The child's injuries, which consist of deep seated burns about the right shoulder, neck and right cheek and ear, were the result of playing with matches, Oliver was up the street a short distance from his own home playing with other lads at the time and whether he set bimself aftre or some of the other hove did could not be learned.

The child's heartrending screams attracted the attention of a neighbor. She ran out of the house and rushing to the child, extinguished the flames. burning her hands slightly in the effort. She then carried the little fellow to his home and Dr. J. J. Roberts was sent for. He made the injured boy as com-fortable as possible. The terrible accident occurred at 12.45 o'clock yesterday

DOES THEM AN INJUSTICE.

An impression seems to have gone abroad that the Howard Davies who answered "No" when volunteers were called for from Company F at Mt. Gretna, is Howard Davies, of Eynon street, a brother of Druggist John J. Davies. This is, however, not the fact, the Davies who said "No" resides on Eynon street, but is a married man, and it was this that compelled him to forego the trip to the front.

The other Heward is a member of Company C and answered "Yes,"

BROKE HIS ARM.

Thomas, the 8-year-old son of Mrs. Daniel Davis, of 150 Morris court, fell and broke his right arm while playing with some companions yesterday afternoon. They were running along the rails of the Washburn street car line and young Davis slipped upon the rail and in falling twisted his arm beneath him in such a manner as to break it above the elbow.

The injured lad was taken to his home and a physician was called to set

MRS. PINKHAM'S ADVICE. DAY'S DOINGS IN

What Mrs. Nell Hurst has to Say About It.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-When I wrote to you I had not been well for five years; had doctored all the time but got no better. I had womb trouble very bad. My womb pressed backward, causing piles. I was in such misery I could scarcely walk across the floor. Menstruction was irregular and too profuse, was also troubled with leucorrhœa. I had given up all hopes of getting well; everybody thought I had consumption. After taking five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I felt very much better and was able to do nearly all my own work. I continued the use of your medicine, and feel that I owe my recovery to you. I cannot thank you enough for your advice and your wonderful medicine, Any one doubting my statement may write to me and I will gladly answer all inquiries. - Mrs. NELL HURST, Deepwater, Mo.

Letters like the foregoing, constantly being received, contribute not a little to the satisfaction felt by Mrs. Pinkham that her medicine and counsel are assisting women to bear their heavy burdens. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass. All suffering women are invited to write to her for advice, which will be given without charge. It is an experienced woman's advice to women.

CLASS NO. 8 ENTERTAINED.

The large audience which assembled in the fecture room of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evenng were given a treat by the entertainent afforded them by the members of that church. The members of the class, all young ladies, and their teacher, Miss Sara A. Jones, had made every preparation and their success was merited. W. T. Burral presided. Thus every number of the programme was enjoyable the fancy drill "Revel of the Natada," given by Misses Elias, Boldry, Edwards, Williams, Davis, Tanfield, Jenkins, Burral and Hutton, with the Misseg Gertrude Barrowman and Edna. Just as accompanists; the Indian club drill by the Misses Short, Osland and Porcher, of the Young Women's Christian association, and the drift "Comin" Thro' the Rye." by the Misses Carson, Doud, Slocum and Krane, with Mrs. Stratton as accompanist, evoked the greatest applause.

The remainder of the programme consisted of pinno duet by Misses Judd and Swartz; recitations by the Misses Clara Slocum, Geraldine Phillips, Katharine Steinecke and Maud Estelle, solos by Edwin Bowen; violin solos by Miss Clara Long, and a dumb belt strill by the Misses Carson, Doud, Slocum and Kana. Miss Bessie Sloat was to have given several of her recitations and posings but is seriously ill at her home and could not appear,

EMERSONIAN PHILOSOPHY.

Captain S. Wells Corwin is Recruiting Members for His Company.

MANY YOUNG MEN ARE ANXIOUS TO ENLIST BUT THEY ARE NOT OF AGE AND HAVE NOT THE CON-SENT OF THEIR PARENTS-PICE GRAMMES THAT WILL BE OB-SERVED IN SOME OF THE CHURCHES TOMORROW - MILES BARRETT INJURED.

The announcement of the return of Captain S. Wells Corwin to the city from Mt. Gretna and that he would be at Company H armory to receive names for enrollment to fill the ranks of Company H, attracted a number of men to the armory last night. When Captain Corwin appeared at the company headquarters about 7.30 o'clock there greeted him a large crowd of patriotic young men, all desirous of becoming members of Uncle Sam's army solely for the purpose of defending Old Glory. The captain in-mediately got down to business, and explained to the men what was expected of them. He stated that only able-bodied men were wanted, only ones who will do their duty.

He set forth plainly the requirements expected of each man who volsubject of protecting the flag and some at 7.30. of his remarks were greeted with much applause.

Then came the time for enrollment. The first man to register his name was Thomas Mills. It was very trying for Captain Corwin when dozens of youths pushed to the front and expressed themselves as ready to enrole, when their age was given it proved a barrier for they had not the written consent of their parents. The men secured last evening were as fine specimens of manhood, their weight average about 160 rounds to a man.

They are: Thomas Mills, Joseph B. Birtley, David Evans, Gwillym Davis, John H. Evans, Alvin H. Price, John Finnegan, John Smith, William H. Baker, William Kennedy, Lawrence McTigue, Frank Jordan, Martin Gairnes, James Atkinson, Robert Guthberton, Henry Stanton, Bernard Berry, Reuben Williams, John D. Jones, David R. Watkins, Harry Quinn. Isaac N. Mills and William Bowen. About twelve more men are needed and Captain Corwin will be at one armory this forenoon at 11.30 o'clock and this evening between 7.30 and 9 o'clock, when it is presumed those who have registered will undergo a physical examination. Captain Corwin was assisted last evening in registering by Lieutenant Eugene Corwin, If accepted the recruits will probably be sent to Mt. Gretna on Monday.

SONG SERVICE.

According to their usage of having an occasional Sabbath evening praise service, the Providence Presbyterian people will have a service of song tomorrow evening commencing at 7.30 o'clock. This will be the first of these services with the new large organ, and the enlarged choir of twenty voices, led by C. F. Whittemore, the choirmaster of that church.

exercises, will be in charge of the pas-tor, Rev. George E. Guild. He will located the bullet. As soon as he is also give an address. The hymns sung rested sufficiently they will try to exwill include two patriotic selections, "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and Warren's national hymn, "God of Our Fathers." The special music will also include the following:

Trifling Matter Leady to a Number of Warrants Being Issued.

JOHNSON AND CAMPBELL ARE DE-TERMINED TO KEEP APACE WITH ONE ANOTHER IN THE MATTER OF SWEARING OUT WARRANTS. MEETNIG OF THE CENTURY HOSE COMPANY-RECEPTION TO REV. F. P. DOTY AT CEDAR AVENUE M. E. CHURCH TUESDAY NIGHT.

A warrant has been issued by Alderman Ruddy, of the Twentieth ward, for the arrest of W. R. Johnson, of Franklin avenue, on the charge of perjury, preferred by Patrick Campbell, of Pittston avenue. The trouble, it ap pears from the statement of Mr. Campbell, had its origin in twenty cents that Johnson spent of his money.

Johnson is a collector of an installment house, and came to Campbell's home to collect the monthly install-ment of $5. On the day in question Mrs. Campbell presented to the collector $20 bill and he, not having sufficient change, went to a nearby saloon, and when he returned he gave the lady he change, but was twenty cents shy Mrs. Campbell called his attention to it and Johnson explained that he spent the amount for drinks, and when she told him that she was not furnishing liquor for collectors, it is alleged John son became abusive. Mr. Campbell was in an adjoining room and, emerging, ordered the collector from his residence. A few days following a war-rant was served on Campbell, charging him with robbery, but the bill was Ignored by the grand jury, and recently another warrant was issued at Johnson's instance, charging Campbell with assault and battery. Now Mr. Camp-bell charges him with being a perjurer, but up to last night Johnson had not been apprehended.
