WILL LEAVE TOMORROW.

Stalwart Young Unrboudalians Who Will Defend Their Country.

A number of this city's stalwar young men will leave for the front tomorrow. Among them will be H. F. Clark, whose connection with the Methodist church has brought him into more than usual favor.

Mr. Clark is employed by Frank E. Dennis and has many friends who regret his departure, if only for a shor period.

Others who will go are Hal Jadwin son of Henry B. Jadwin, who is well known in social circles throughout the He is an employe of the Hendrick Manufacturing company's works, and when he goes he carries the wellwishes of a host of friends and fellow workmen.

A. J. Vandermark, who is also one of the city's leading social workers, a telegraph operator of excellent speed, now employed by the Ontario and Western Railroad company.

Thomas Morgan, the efficient salesman at Alvord & Male's, whose affable manner and kindly attention to pa trons has won for him a large number of friends.

George Terry, who is employed by G. Fulkerson as traveling salesman, and whose abilities as a hustler are known throughout the county

It is needless to say that the entire city unites in well-wishing all the young men and that they feel sure that ever the oportunity presents itself they will distinguish themselves in a manner that is right.

FIELD DAY.

On Saturday, May 20, High School Classes Will Compete.

On Saturday, the 20th of this month the classes of the High school will hold their field day. The boys are doing what training they can in this inclement weather. The High school base ball team will probably play the Scran-ton High school team on that day. The following is a list of the events:

Two mile bicycle race, one-half mile btcycle race, 120 yards hurdle race, 100 yards dash, hammer throw, shot put, pole ault.

The class that makes the largest number of points will be entitled to fly their colors under the flag on the High school building, as is done by the large colleges throughout the country,

SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

Two Young Men in Jail Charged With Highway Robbery.

Two young men were arrested Saturday afternoon by Chief of Police Mc-Andrew and Constable Neary on suspicion of being the perpetrators of the Kearnes. daring burglary, committed Thursday night between the pours of 8 and 9. in yesterday's Herald.

Bill" Higgins and Edward Gorman. both of whom are well known about the city, are the persons suspected of the crime. They were arrested Saturday morning, but on account of a paucity of evidence were released. However, since then some valuable evidence has been secured which warrants their holding and which, it is thought, will term has expired.

Footgear and Hendgear Both of the Best Kind.

In 1820, a boy of 14 was apprenticed to a shoemaker in Brattleboro, Vt. At that time, he had received only such an education as the common school could give. He resolved, on going to his trade. to read and study one hour each day At 19 he had mastered the whole cours of Hutton's mathematics and gained some knowledge of astronomy and the natural sciences. Becoming dyspeptic from too close confinement to his bench, he was advised by Dr. Willard Parker to walk one hour every morning and evening in the fields, and study botany. He did so, and became in-tensely interested in botany, says Success, Sending to London for a standard work on this study, he found, on its arrival, that it was written in Latin. He bought a grammar, and in six months could read his new book. In the same manner he mastered French and
