FEDERAL LAW PROVIDES FOR A BOUNTY OF ABOUT $185,000-RE-WARDS FOR SPANISH SHIPS SUNK, ALLOWANCE OF $100 FOR EACH MAN IN THE DESTROYED PLEET OF THE ENLMY-MANNER OF THE DISTRIBUTION.

Washington, May 11.-Rear Admiral Dewey and his men will not have been fully rewarded for their victory at Manila when they receive the thanks of to be struck for them. Under the Taw bounty.

Unless the numerical importance of the fleet of Admiral Montijo has been over-estimated, its losses overstated. the officers and men of the Asiatic squadron will be entitled to share among them, when the time arrives for a distribution, something like $185. 000 bounty money.

BOUNTY BY THE LAW OF 1864.

Section 4635 of the Revised Statutes the United States, which is just as law in 1864, provides:

A bounty shall be paid by the United States for each person on board any Main street, ship or vessel of war belonging to an Mrs. C. Di enemy at the commencement of an engagement which is sunk or otherwise destroyed in such engagement by any Mr. Rodney Smith. ship or vessel belonging to the United States, or which it may be necessary to destroy in consequence of injuries sustained in action, of $100, if the enemy's vessel was of inferior force, and of terday, $200 if of equal or superior force, to be Willia divided among the officers and crew in when the actual number of men on board any such vessel cannot be satmated according to the complement allowed to vessels of its class in the navy of the United States; and there shall be paid as bounty to the captors of any vessel of war captured from an one destroy, or which is immediately denction, $50 for every person who shall be on board at the time of such cap-

According to the reports from Manila, the Spanish fleet consisted of ten or eleven cruisers, gunboats and torpedo boats, with crews amounting in all to not less than 1,800 men. Rear Admiral Dewey destroyed some of these vessels, and perhaps all of them, but if he did not, then a number were destroyed by the enemy to prevent them from falling into the hands of the United States.

SPANISH SWELLED THE SUM.

Admiral Muntijo was unconsciously increasing the bounty fund with every vessel he sank, and Spain will undoubtedly have to pay for those losses in of the war. Under the law the officers and men of the United States vessels will get their bounty. So far as can be ascertained, the number of men on the Spanish ships agreements 1879. the Spanish ships aggregate 1872.

naval force the amount to be divided but not much either way, unless the Spanish ships were greatly overcrowdd or undermanned. The vesels of the United States were, if anything, undermanned, as the Navy department was not permitted, before the fleet was made up, to increase enlistments and fill up all the complements.

The numbers would be under rather The numbers would be under rather than over the following figures: Cruiser 2 red. $1.7515, f. o. b., ontions opened Olympia, officers and men. 415; cruiser stronger but reacted and comparatively Baltimore, officers and men, 386; cruiser Boston, officers and men, 285; cruiser Raleigh, officers and men, 222; gunboat Concord, officers and men, 193; gunt oat Petrel, officers and men, 132; gunboat McCulloch, officers and men, 100. Total, 1733.

POCKET MONEY FOR DEWEY.

The $187,200 will be distributed to the fleet under section 4631 of the revised statutes, relating to prize money Adn irai Dewey, under that statute, will get one-twentieth of the whole amount of bounty awarded to his command. That will give $9,300. It may be a little more or less, but this will be about the sum won by him on that hot Sunday in Manila bay. If he has a fleet captain, or what passes for one, he will have a share something like $1,800. There will be left to be distributed to their pay rolls about $175,000. This will go to seven ships, and in about the following shares: Olympia, $45,000;

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, May 11.-The active demand for stocks and bonds was renewed with great vigor and confidence today. An enormous volume of business was done on the stock exchange and prices are substantially higher all around. A large number of the leading stocks show net gains exceeding two points and a great many more have risen a point or more in the prices as a result of the day's tradings. The upward movement was not resumed until a period of hesitation and uncertainty at the opening during which prices in nearly all cases declined. There was a raid against a number of the leading industrial stocks. Sugar and tobacco were conspicususly singled out for this attack, but the bears were in haste to cover their short contracts even at the small decline achieved. Evidently many of the large bull operators who had takn their profits yesterday were also anxa their profits yesterday were allous our to get back and saw an inviting op-orthinity at the lower level of prices re-orthing from vesterday's decline. Alsuiting from yesterday's decline. Al-though there was realizing on a large scale at different times during the day he recessions in prices were insignificant. The day closed with a renewed burst of activity and prices at about the top level. A belief that the termination of the war is near at band, was the impeling mo-tive for the strength of the market. Total sales of stocks were 609,500 shares. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN ALLIEN CO., stock brokers, Mears building,

Chicago, May II .- Provision had a veritable boom on Change today. Pork at the close showed a not gain of soc. a barrel. Lard Sc. a hundred weight and ribs &c. The pronounced bull movement in spring | hog products was based on the lively cash demand by the government for army uses. Leading packers were all on the buying side and were assisted by a re-vival of outside speculation. The wheat pit was deserted for corn and provision but the market continued extremely erratic. July covered a range of 51₂c., closing at $1.101₂, a net loss of 31₂c. May declined 6c. while September, to which menth speculation is being transferred, closed at a net gain of 1%c.
