NANCE HEAVILY TAXING THE SCRANTON RAILWAY COMPANY.

Charges of bribery were made open and above board at the meeting of select council last night during the consideration of some amendments to the ordinance granting a franchise to the new telephone company. Wade Finn, member from the Second ward, said:

"I believe we had better pass all these amendments together. They paid the price and can have them adopted, anyhow."

Mr. McCann, of the Fourteenth, who was spokesman for the amendments, became very indignant and responded: "Mr. Chairman, are you going to allow such talk as that to be used here? If you do, I'll not stand for it. If he says a price was paid, he lies."

Mr. Finn got up and repeated his charge and said he knew what he was talking about. Mr. McCann got up from his seat and walked threateningly toward him. Chairman Chittender rapped the gavel with vigor, and Mr. Sanderson, as if he feared a display of fisticuffs, got between the two and follows: gently but firmly pushed Mr. McCann back to his seat.

The excitement was intense, Com mon council members came over with a rush to see what was up, and the men lobbying around the corridors came into the chamber three at a time. It was all over in a minute, but it was hot while it lasted.

high school building. It was for the purpose of gaining information as to the needs and requirements of a modern high school structure that the trip to Scranton was made. The examination of the building here suggested much praise and favorable comment. After inspecting the High School building, visits were made to the Scranton Public library, City Hall and Elm Park church. In the evening a trip was made through the steel mills.

This morning the officials will begin their return journey to Wilmington. They will stop at Wilkes-Barre and Easton.

ferent persons to supply them with telephone service for five years. The burden of Mr. Finn's charges last night was that the present company is putting up money to have the franchis of the new concern so loaded down with restrictions that it will kill the new company off as a competitor. When the ordinance was called up Mr. Sanderson proposed several amendments. In substance they were that the maximum rates for services would be $36 for a business place, $24 for a residence, $50 for business place and residence combined; that at least 2,000 feet of the wires be put underground within three years; that a bond of $10,-000 with two sureties be furnished to the mayor; and that space for one cable for fire alarm and cable purposes for the use of the city be set aside in the conduits. The motion to adopt these amendments was lost by the following score:

Ayes-Ross, Finn, Wagner, Robinson Sanderson, Schrader, Coyne-7. Nays-Kearney, Thomas, James, Roche, Melvin, Shea, McCann, Fellows, O'Boyle, Frable, McAndrew-11.

Messre, Williams and Lansing were absent, and Chairman Chittenden excused himself from voting.

MR. M'CANN'S AMENDMENTS.

Mr. McCann then walked briskly to City Clerk, Lavelle's desk and laid down some papers and moved that the amendments he submitted be read. The first one was the all-important one. It is the one that will break the new company's back if any of them will, It proposed that the company be required to lay its wires underground within a radius of 1,000 yards from the court house.

Wires will have to be conduited in the central city and as far over as North Main avenue in Hyde Park, as Phelps street in Green Ridge, as Clay avenue on the "hill," and as far as Birch street on the South Side.

Ex-Mayor Connell said after the meeting that the company will proceed anyway. The new concern, he said. proposed to bury its wires eventually, but it was too much to ask it to do it right away. Mr. Connell was on the point of addressing the council, permission having been asked by Mr. Robinson, of the Eleventh, but Mr. Mc-Cann objected, and as it requires unanimous consent the address was not made. It was Mr. Connell's intention to lay facts that would prove the new company is no wildcat concern seeking a franchise with the view of seiling out at a good price later on, but bona-fide corporation that means business.

The amendment to require the system to be put underground within a radius of 1,000 yards from the court house was carried by the following

Ayes-Kearney, Thomas, Roche, Mei-vin, Shea, Sanderson, McCann, Fellows, O'Boyle, Frable, McAndrew, Chitenden

Nays-Ross, Finn, James, Wagner, Rob-inson, Schrader, Coyne-7.

MATTER OF TOLLS.

The next amendment was that the tolls be not greater than $3 a month for business houses and $2 for residences. It passed without any oppo sition. The company proposes to charge no more than that. The amendpurposes was concurred in. ment next read was that a bond of $20,000 be furnished to be secured by at least two sureties, approved by the in this city. city solicitor, to indemnify the city for
