AN IMPORTANT TEST.

Which, It Successful, Will Cause a

Suspension of Buny Crews. Engine 391, with Frank Steldel at the throttle and Conductor Elmer Renert, of the Central railroad, left Mauch Chunk at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Penobscot, which place they left yesterday on a test run, which consisted of taking a train of loaded coal cars all the way through to tidewater, at Elizabethport. The run was made in eleven hours, the engine pulling a train equal to 165 old-style cars. Considering that the distance run was 155 4-10 miles, this was exceedingly rapid time and was only accomplished owing to the fact that the train was given a clear track all the way through, and the only stops made were such as were necessary to take water and coal.

At the same time the train left Penobscot a train of 220 empty cars pulled by engine 529 left Elizabethport. The run was made in fifteen hours and forty-five minutes. This was also considered a phenomenal run, as nearly the entire distance is up grade. One of the best crews on the road was in charge of the train and the strain on the men can be imagined from the fact that the fireman, one of the most experienced men on the line, collapsed totally at the end of the run. The crews were started out again this morning and will attempt to duplicate the runs of yesterday. The outcome of the test is awaited with inverest by railroad men, for if it is successful and the company decides to run their coal trains through direct from Penobscot it will necessitate the buspension of from five to fifteen crews and will undoubtedly do away with the yard at Mauch Chunk, which at present is the terminus for trains leaving Penobscot, all trains being pulled to that place and shifted and taken from there to the various points at tidewater by other crews.-Wilkes-Barre

CASE OF ROSENAGLE AGAINST HANDLEY

Supreme Court Sustains the Action of the Court of This County.

In a short time the girls of SAYS THE CASE WAS FAIRLY AND CORRECTLY TRIED-IT WAS THE SECOND TIME THE CASE WAS RE-VIEWED BY THE HIGHEST TRI BUNAL IN THE STATE-HISTORY OF THE CASE WHICH IS FAMOUS IN THE LEGAL ANNALS OF THE COUNTY OF LACKAWANNA.

Prothonotary Copeland yesterday reelved from the Supreme court the opinion in the noted case of Mrs. Mary Ann Rosenagie, of New York, against the late ex-Judge John Handley. It says that the law was correctly stated by the court to the jury, and no evimaterial and relevant; and that if there was any mistake in the trial it is charged not to the court, but to the jury; and the Supreme court is not the proper place for the correction of such an error, if any exists. This was the second time the case has been passed upon by the highest tribunal in the state.

It came up for trial first in April, before the late Judge Connolly The jury returned a verdict for the defendant. The Supreme court in October, 1892, reversed the judgment on the ground that Judge Connolly in his charge referred to Judge Handley's position as a judge, and pointed to his high standing in the community,

In January, 1894, the case was tried before Judge Edwards and a verdict was again found for the defendant. In May last year the executors of the estate were substituted as defendants.

EMPLOYED JUDGE HANDLEY. Mrs. Rosenagle in 1866 secured the services of Judge Handley, then a practicing lawyer in Luzerne county, to collect the premium of $4,000 upon an insurance policy on the life of her nother, who had died. Before he was able to enforce the collection of that claim according to due process of law, he was elected additional law judge of Luzerne county and subsequently be-came president judge of this county. After he entered upon the judgeship the money was recovered through an amicable arrangement and on Dec. 18, 1883, she met him in his chambers in the court house and she was paid $3,000,

The balance was to pay the judge for certain moneys he had expended for Mrs. Rosenagle, which amounted to He, it is alleged, charged her nothing for his services.

The evidence showed at the trial that the settlement was satisfactory and narmonious to both parties.

She alleged that, being desirous of nvesting the money thus paid to her, she asked his advice and he counseled her to put it in United States bonds, Lackawanna county bonds, in bank stock, or in the stock of the Wyoming Manufacturing company. He told her, she said, that he had $50,000 then invested in the company, that he was its president, and that it was a solvent corporation; that he would guarantee 6 per cent., and a probable 10 per cent.

SHE INVESTED HER MONEY.

By reason of these inducements and the confidence she had in the judge, she parted with her $3,000 and invested it in the Wyoming institution. It was that at the time the judge sold the certificate of stock to Mrs. Rosenagle the company was insolvent and that the stock was selling at 50 cents on the

The defense was that Mrs. Rosen agle subscribed her money for Wyoming stock of her own free will and that the company was on a substantial basis when she did, but that two or three years later, through mismanagement it went to the wall, which was no fault of his. Hon. H. W. Palmer, in arguing before the Supreme court, went so far as to say that Judge Handley continued to pay the dividends out of his own pocket on her investment long after corporation became insolvent, rather than see her suffer by even an indirect act on his part. The disposition now made will in all probability be the end of the case. The Supreme court will hardly grant a rehearing. Attorneys J. W. Oakford and C. H. Soper represented Mrs. Rosen-

THAT NEW ROAD TO NEW YORK. What the New York Commercial lins to Say About It.

"The announcement of a new road having been projected to run from Scranton to New York by a route shorter than 144 miles has been received with keen interest," says the Philadelphia Stockholder. "Among some railroad men, according to the New York Commercial, the scheme is regarded as an attempt by the independent anthracite operators to scarthe interested roads, some of which are paying the operators for their product 60 per cent, of the tidewater price and there has been some talk of reducing this figure to 55 per cent.

"The operators who are back of the corporation declare that they will either build the road or be given lower freight rates. Either one or the other will work an important change in the anthracite industry. It is asserted that with modern methods of railroad building the new road can be finished for less than $10,000,000. A conservative claim is that 3,000,000 tons yearly can be controlled by the new road, some dence was admitted except what was of the interested parties claiming 4,-000,000 tons, and the more sanguine are placing the controllable tonnage at 5,-000,000, though the latter is probably too high.

"The independent operators assert that an exceedingly conservative estimate of the freight rate that could be made by the new road would show a reduction of at least 33 per cent, as compared with prevailing tariffs,"

BATTLE COMMITTED.

Bust Answer at Court the Charge of Killing Paul Stravaniski.

Patrick Battle was taken from the ounty jail to Alderman Kasson's office yesterday afternoon and given a formal hearing on the charge of having killed Paul Stravaniski in the White House saloon April 2. He was committed without ball to await the action of the grand jury.

Battle was ejected from the saloor by William Traduoski, one of the bartenders. After being put out he went into Center street and with a big stone in his hand re-entered the place through a side door leading into a refreshment room at the rear of the main barroom. From the doorway connecting the two apartments he hurled the stone with terrific force at Traduoski. The aim was bad and the missile hit Stravaniski in the left temple.

Stravaniski fell to the floor uncon clous. He was carried to a room upstairs and a few minutes later removed to the Lackawanna hospital, where he lingered in a semi-conscious state for two weeks and a day and died,

Meanwhile, the surgeons had re-moved from off the brain a piece of bone nearly the size of a 25-cent piece The autopsy showed that the immediate cause of death was septic poisoning of the brain substance, a condition caused by the fracture and consequent laceration. Battle, handcuffed, was brought by Warden Simpson to the alderman's office. He apepared to be a young man of ordinary intelligence and realized the seriousness of his case. Also present were County Detective Leyshon, the complainant; District Attorney Jones and Coroner Longstreet. The district attorney examined the coroner and Traduoski and Andrew Phalen, the wo White House bartenders on duty the night of the trouble. On their eviience Battle was re-committed, to the wound and cause of death. The evidence of the bartenders was conclusive that Battle had thrown the stone and was responsible for the kill-

ORIGIN A MYSTERY.

Destruction of Riverside Breaker Entailed a Loss of $70,000.

Nothing new was learned yesterday with reference to the origin of the fire which destroyed the Riverside breaker at Winton Wednesday night. It had its origin on a bridge connecting the breaker and washery but just what caused it no one seems to be able to

The breaker and washery were en tirely destroyed as well as part of the tower over the shaft. The total loss is $70,000, on which there is an insurance of $55,000. The breaker was owned by the Riverside Coal company, of which Dr. J. N. Rice, of this city," is president. He said yesterday that 600 men and boys will be thrown out of employment by the burning of the

The intention is to rebuild at once, Dr. Rice said, and he thought a new breaker could be completed within three or four months.

DIRECTORS VISIT HILLSIDE HOME

Informat Periodical Inspection Was Made Vesterday.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS, ADDI-DITIONS AND NEW WORK HAVE BEEN ACCOMPLISHED OR ARE IN PROGRESS-HOME NOW BELIEVED TO BE SECOND TO NO INSTITU-TION OF THE KIND IN THE STATE. DIRECTORS PLEASED WITH AD-MINISTRATION OF AFFAIRS.

One of the periodical visits of the board of poor directors to the Hillside Home was made yesterday. In the party were Directors Brooks, Painc, Fuller and Murphy, and Secretary Langstaff. President Langstaff and Directors Terppe and Shotten were unable to be present.

The visit was essentially one of observation. The result fully satisfied the board as to the splendid squipment of the big institution and its fine management under Superintendent Beemer and Mrs. Beemer, the matron. The property contains 300 acres and is considered by poor and charity officials throughout the state to be the best establishment of the kind in the commonwealth.

The big barn has been moved to its new foundations, on which masons were at work yesterday. This and other buildings of the kind whose rearrangement was made necessary by the moving of the roadway farther away from the main buildings are being put in first-class shape for harvest time. About two-thirds of the grading necessary on the new road has been accomplished. The laborers employed are inmates, sane and insane.

THE GRADING WORK In the grading work hundreds of vagon loads of stone have been taken off the beautiful farmlands, which were previously very free from such material. About fifty shade trees which had been lined along the old roadway were set out along the new route.

Nearly all of them are alive and growing nicely, thanks to the long spell of wet weather. Three thousand feet of iron fencing vill be built around the main buildings, enclosing them in a vast iron square, the fence of which will be eight feet high. It was decided by the directors no to build this year the proposed addition to the main dining room. This conclusion is due mainly to the various expenses involved in other im-provements under way or contemplated, but the addition will be built next year. The directors viewed with no little satisfaction the renovation of the attics over the male and female departments. Every stroke of the work, flooring, plastering, etc., was performed by inmates. The attics will be occupied by the attendants and the rooms now ccupied by the latter will give increased facilities for housing more in-

HEAT, LIGHT AND POWER. The directors have given particular ittention to the heat, light and power equipment during the past two years. The accomplishments in this line were Coroner Longstreet, who made the carefully inspected yesterday and with post-mortem examination, testified as much self-congratulation. It is the directors' opinion that no institutions of the kind in the country-institutions which have been built an equal length of time-have better light, heat and power facilities than those at the Hillside Home. The directors left Scranton at ! o'clock yesterday morning. They were accompanied by several newspaper representatives. The party had dinner at the Home and returned to Scranton at 2 o'clock.
