STATE CONVENTION HELD NEXT WEEK

Many Representatives of the German Catholic Union Will Be Here.

IT IS EXPECTED THAT TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DELEGATES AND HUNDREDS OF VISITORS WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE. EXTENSIVE ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE BY LOCAL SOCIETIES FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF THE VISITORS.

The conventions of the German Catholic union of this state, which is composed of various kind, will open in this city Monday next and will continue for three days. It is expected that 250 delegates will be in attendance at the sessions, besides hundreds of visitors. To look after the entertainment of such a throng will entail much work on the committees from this city, which are composed of members of the societies connected with St. Mary's church of the South Side, and St. John's of West Scranton.

The programme arranged for the event is extensive. The delegates will begin to arrive Monday morning early and at the stations reception committee will meet the arrivals, and headed by Bauer's band, they will be escorted to Music hall and an informal reception tendered there.

By midnight it is expected that the delegates from Pittsburg, Chambersburg, Allegheny, Harrisburg, Pottsville and the lower end of the state will have reached the city, and at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening the delegates will assemble in St. Mary's hall, South side, and Mayor Bailey will extend to them the freedom of the city. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the executive board, which is comprised of the following, who are also the officers of the union, will meet: Charles J. Jaegle, of Pittsburg, president; John Wagner, of this city, vice president; Christian Dulby, of Pottsville, second vice president; John F. Fink, of Pittsburg, recording secretary; Joseph Albrecht, of this city, corresponding secretary; and Michael Kraemer, treasurer. The meeting of these gentlemen will be to formulate a programme for the convention to pursue in discussing and acting on the matters that will come before the body.

PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS. Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock a pontifical high mass will be sung in St. Mary's church, which all the delegates will attend. Bishop Hoban will be celebrated at the mass. Rev. Peter Favro, of Hazelton, deacon; Father Goeckle, of Wilkes-Barre, sub-deacon; Father Nagle, of Wilkes-Barre, arch priest; Fathers Christ and Stoppet, of St. Mary's, will be first and second mass of ceremonies respectively.

Bayer's band mass will be sung, and the choir of St. Mary's will be accompanied by Bauer's complete orchestra. Bishop Hoban will be escorted from Father Christ's residence to the church by 500 children, attending St. Mary's school. Rev. H. J. Foster, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Pittsburg, will preach at the pontifical mass, and his subject will be "From Our Enemies We Learn That There Is in Union Strength."

The conclusions of the mass the convention proper will begin in St. Mary's hall, and the meeting will be presided over by Charles J. Jaegle, president of the union. The sessions will adjourn at dinner and reconvene at 2:30 o'clock, and finish for the day at 5:30 o'clock.

The evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, an open meeting will be held in the Lyceum theater, and the programme for that occasion was arranged with much care. The speakers are among the most prominent Germans in the country.

THE PROGRAMME. Michael Kraemer, of this city, will open the meeting and extend to visitors and introduce Mr. Jaegle as chairman of the evening. The opening number will be a selection by a male choir of 150 voices, under the direction of Prof. Henry Ackerman, consisting of the Scranton Scenic Guild, Scranton Liederkreis, St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association, and Arion society. Following will be an address by Rev. F. W. Lemmins, of Pottsville, pastor of St. John the Baptist congregation. His theme will be "To Whom Does the Education of a Child Belong?" At the close of his address Kraemer's orchestra will render two selections, and Dr. J. C. Hierholzer, of Allegheny, will speak to the delegates especially and urge the importance of fathers, who are members of societies, having their sons join as soon as they reach the eligible age.

The choir of St. Mary's and St. John's churches combined will render the one hundredth psalm, and the closing address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. J. Wilkes, of Allegheny, director of the Holy Childhood Home in Pittsburg. His discourse will be on the aims and objects of the state convention. Following the chorus "To Deum," and the gathering will disperse.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, in St. Mary's church, a solemn mass of requiem will be sung for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the union, and after the mass a short and final session of the convention will be held. At its close the societies and delegates will march to the Central railroad station, on West Lackawanna avenue, and meet the societies from Wilkes-Barre, Pittston and Hazelton, which will arrive to participate in the parade that will start at noon.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF FUND MOVEMENT

Was Given a Good Start by the Board of Trade Last Night.

PRESIDENT KELLER AUTHORIZED TO APPOINT A COMMITTEE OF NINE PERSONS WHO WILL DEVISE THE PLAN AND PUSH IT INDEPENDENT OF ANY ORGANIZATION OUTSIDE THE COMMITTEE. SOME STERLING SUGGESTIONS AS TO DETAIL WERE MADE.

The initiative toward forwarding a relief movement for the families of the Lackawanna county soldiers with the Thirtieth regiment and for the soldiers themselves, developed at last night's meeting of the board of trade. Many persons not members of the board were present. President Keller was directed to appoint a committee of nine persons who will prosecute the work independent of the board.

By invitation Rev. R. V. Y. Pierce, acting pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, was present and addressed the gathering. He suggested that any organization formed should be auxiliary to the National Relief commission or its Pennsylvania branch. He stated that such men as Rev. Dr. Henry McCook, of Philadelphia; John H. Converse, of the Baldwin Locomotive works; George H. Thomas, general manager for Drexel & Co.; George D. McCready, the New York dry goods merchant, and others equally well known were at the head of the movement which had been approved by the president and his cabinet.

The National Relief association included Levi P. Morton among its patrons and would next meet at his office. It proposed an alliance with the Red Cross society, it being intended that the latter's work should be with the sick and wounded at the front, the National organization to direct all other lines of work.

Mr. Pierce offered several well received suggestions for adoption whether an advance was made in the national movement or not. There should be a committee on roster, to keep an accurate list of the Thirtieth's soldiers at home; a Red Cross committee, to act with the society in the national movement; a correspondence committee, to follow the movements of the regiment and act as a medium of communication between the soldiers and their correspondents; a literary committee, to keep the organization supplied with funds.

GENERAL SUGGESTIONS. Among a number of general suggestions Mr. Pierce suggested a department of co-operation to provide for aid from the Grand Army of the Republic posts, Sons of Veterans, American Mechanics, Women's Relief corps, Benevolent secret societies, and other organizations, to keep the auxiliary department, a membership fund department, a patriotic bazaar or fair department and a regimental tent department, the latter to provide for the organization's tent on the field to be in charge of Scranton newspaper men.

Rev. George E. Guild was also present by invitation to supplement any suggestions that might be made by Mr. Pierce. Mr. Guild offered an earnest plea for immediate action along these lines. "This call is one of duty and humanity; duty, because those at the front were representatives of the war at home; humanity, because the war was not one of conquest, self-defense or revenge."

A motion was made by Captain W. A. Hill, president of the board, that the matter of plan be referred to a special committee of nine, not necessarily members of the board, and of which President Keller and Secretary Atherton should be members. An amendment offered by Colonel E. L. Hitchcock was accepted and added to the list of the board, and to the captain's motion was that the committee have power to act at once along the lines of any plan it might decide upon. The motion was then adopted.

President Keller announced that he would name the committee on or before Wednesday. He will choose representative and prominent men from each section of the city, from Carbondale and the region south of Scranton. According to the opinions revealed in the debate of those present the movement will be on a patriotic and not a charity basis. Subscriptions will be solicited through the committee and the newspapers as soon as the former is organized. The committee will then prosecute the work with vigor and without being tied to any organization or religious sect.

Quite a quantity of the usual kind of board of trade business was transacted in addition to promoting the relief movement.

F. W. PEARSALL CALLED.

He Will Assist in the Y. M. C. A. Work at Chickamauga. C. B. Miller, who is at the head of the army Young Men's Christian association work which is being promoted by the international committee of the association, sent a telegram yesterday to F. W. Pearsall, secretary of the National Young Men's Christian association of this city, directing him to proceed at once to Washington, D. C., where Mr. Miller will have a conference with him. Mr. Miller was at Tampa, Fla., when the dispatch was sent.

Recently Mr. Pearsall received a letter from the international committee, asking him if he would give his services in directing the Y. M. C. A. work in the big military camp at Chickamauga. He promptly replied that he would and yesterday the call came mustering him into service.

Mr. Pearsall is highly regarded in Young Men's Christian association circles and it is not strange that he was selected for this important work. He will leave for Washington today. During his absence from the city W. A. Berry, his assistant, will have charge of the local association work.

THE HAZELBURST.

A First Class Scranton Restaurant. Scranton can now boast of a first-class restaurant. The Hazelhurst, formerly the 45m Cafe, in the new building, which has been running since the first of the present month, has already built up for itself an enviable reputation. The opinion of all who have patronized it under the present management is that it is the best restaurant has ever had. It is the pleasure to those who cannot conveniently get home to lunch to have such a desirable place so centrally located to know that they can depend upon always getting a well prepared meal at the Hazelhurst.

RECRUITS FOR THE ARMY.

Lieutenant Dentler of the Eleventh Infantry Pays a Visit to This City. Lieutenant C. E. Dentler, of the Eleventh United States Infantry, with barracks at Atlanta, Ga., who was sent to this region to enlist 700 men for his regiment, which is now at Mobile, was present at a meeting of Phil Sheridan Council, Young Men's Institute, in Green Ridge, last evening.

Rev. R. A. McAndrews accompanied him from Wilkes-Barre, where he has a recruiting station and has received 42 enlistments. Father McAndrews addressed the members of the institute first and in eloquent style he dwelt upon the devotion of the Irish-Americans to the starry flag, whenever help was needed to preserve its folds unscathed. Lieutenant Dentler followed and spoke to the members on regular army life. He said the men who enlist with him will see active service before the volunteers now being mustered in from the general status. He will not accept any married men, those who have parents dependent upon them; no one will be taken who is under 5 feet 4 inches, and weighing less than 130 pounds or over 190 pounds.

Men under 21 years must have the written consent of their parents or guardian. The chest measurement must not be less than 32 inches. The pay is $15.00 a month and clothing to the amount of $100. He would rather have 50 or 50 from one place, as it has been found to be more satisfactory. Volunteers could aspire to a non-commissioned officer except first sergeant. Twelve members of the council gave their names as desirous of enlisting. He took their applications and will act upon them when he opens a recruiting office here in a week or so. He will attend meetings of the other councils of the Y. M. I. in the city and hopes to secure 200 of its members for the 700 he requires.
