

DAY'S DOINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

Sixteenth Anniversary of Ladies' Aid Society of Primitive Church.

ADDRESS OF THE EVENING WAS DELIVERED BY REV. CHARLES PROSSER, PASTOR OF THE CHURCH—FURNAL OF MRS. CHARLOTTE ANDERSON MAISH FROM THE HOME OF HER BROTHER—JESSIE G. COLVIN PLACED UNDER ARREST—OTHER NOTES.

The sixteenth anniversary of the Ladies' Aid society of the Primitive Methodist church was celebrated last evening under auspicious circumstances. The large church auditorium was filled with a jovial throng, all bent on enjoying the festivities in connection with the celebration. Rev. Charles Prosser, pastor of the church, officiated as chairman and delivered the address of the evening.

He briefly outlined the successful career of the society, how they surmounted difficulties and how beneficial they had been in reducing the debt of the church, which is now entirely free from any incumbrance. Then followed a programme which has rarely seen its equal in brilliancy and excellence. Each number was loudly applauded by the enthusiastic audience. At the conclusion of the programme a social time followed, at which greetings were exchanged.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MAISH.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Charlotte Anderson Maish occurred last evening at the home of her brother, W. H. Anderson, of 2036 Main avenue. Rev. William Edgar, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated and delivered a brief but sympathetic funeral sermon, dwelling on the exemplary character of the deceased. The floral offerings were many and exquisite.

The remains were taken to the Delaware and Hudson railroad station, from where they were conveyed to Le Roy, N. Y., where interment was made.

LAW BREAKERS.

Jesse G. Colvin was arrested at the instance of Gertrude Colvin, who alleges that he committed an assault and battery. When arraigned before Alderman Roberts last night he was intoxicated and was remanded until today.

Young boys have of late made it notably disagreeable for the occupants of the House of the Good Shepherd. They persisted in tearing down the fence surrounding the enclosure. Reese Evans, aged 14 years, was seen to deliberately batter a gate to splinters, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. He was given a hearing last evening before Alderman Fidler and was given some fatherly advice. The authorities of the home refused to prosecute and young Evans was discharged.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

The funeral of Mrs. Eleanor Jenkins was held at the home of Benjamin Richards, near of Oak street, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Services were conducted by the Rev. Thomas Watkins, and were largely attended. A large number of people from this place accompanied the remains to Plymouth, where interment was made. William Lynott and George Loftus will represent the Father Whitty society at the Diocesan convention, which will be held at Kingston this week. Andrew Maloney, of this place, called on friends in Jersey yesterday.

Thomas Williams, Reese Davies and Miss Hannah Williams will represent the Welsh Congregational church at the conference of Welsh Congregational churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania, which will be held at Pittston, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Miss Williams, who has much experience in teaching juveniles, will give black-board talks at the conference.

Thomas Harris, a miner, while returning from work yesterday, was suddenly seized with convulsions in front of the Bristol house. He was carried to one of the benches on the veranda of the hotel and there lingered in intense agony for some time. He finally recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home, where he recovered rapidly under the care of a physician.

One of the large Traction company cars jumped the tracks near Park street Sunday and crashed into the fence, skirting the eastern side of North Main avenue. Luckily only a few passengers were seated in the car at the time. The occupants escaped injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins, of Putnam street, and Isaac Price leave tomorrow night for the Old Country, where they will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Owens and Mrs. Richard Thomas, all of this place, leave today for Mt. Gretna, where they will be the guests of their sons, who are members of the Thirteenth regiment.

The St. Veronica Ladies' Temperance society will meet at Father Whitty's rooms this evening for the purpose of transacting important business.

Richard Thomas, of Spring street, has returned from a visit spent with his son, Richard, a member of Company A, Thirteenth regiment, at Mt. Gretna.

Miss Annie Broderick, of Hawley, who has been visiting relatives in this place for the past week, returned home yesterday.

Charles Williams, of Nay Ave. avenue, is confined to his home with a severe attack of typhoid fever.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mrs. J. L. Ford and children, of Money avenue, left yesterday for Fort N. Y., where they will spend the summer with relatives.

E. H. Stevens, of Canouse avenue, was in Wyoming Sunday.

T. W. Watts and family have gone to Glenburn, where they will spend the summer.

E. F. Huffing, of Money avenue, is spending a few days at Middletown, N. Y. Colonel F. L. Hitchcock is attending the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Warsaw, Ind.

Mrs. Mary C. Follett, aged 55 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Webster, of Canouse avenue, yesterday afternoon. The funeral services will be tomorrow afternoon. Interment at Glenburn.

J. M. Devine, of Dickson avenue, is in Homestead on a business trip.

Rev. Mr. Ford, of Money avenue, left yesterday for Rochester, N. Y., where he will attend the anniversary of the Baptist church which is being held at that place.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Gipsy Fortune Tellers Fell Into the Hands of Officers of Law.

THEY TRIED TO READ THE FUTURE FOR CONSTABLE TIM JONES BUT DID NOT DO IT CORRECTLY AS THEY AFTERWARDS LEARNED TO THEIR GREAT SORROW—SAVINGS OF THE SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE GROWING—OTHER EVENTS OF THE DAY.

That "fools rush in where angels fear to tread" is a saying which is often brought forcibly to one's attention and yesterday an instance of this fact was the outcome of the visit to West Scranton of two gypsies, members of a gang now located at or near Harbor-town. The two, both women, were going the rounds of all the public places on this side and had reached Whetling's lunch cafe. Their mode of procedure was like this:

Whenever some one entered the place who seemed worth their attention they greeted him with "Tell your fortune!" "Aha!" quoth the constable, in an inaudible voice, "this is easy." And so it was. He was directed to place a small coin on his right hand and then listen. Then the swarthy exponent of the science which reveals the hidden things of the future and recalls those of the past, did open up a vision to this plain, matter-of-fact constable.

"You are in love. She is a widow; blue eyes, dark hair, and of a divine contour, and she half loves you. She is worth much of money and land and—"

here the constable drew a deep breath. "If you more money will sell you the rest," said she. He left ostensibly to get more money, but really to get a warrant. Meanwhile he delegated a friend to go and get his future divulged. The friend went and when the constable, armed with his warrant, returned, woman and friend had disappeared. However, the other woman was able and willing to continue the "next chapter."

Worried about his friend and also whether the future which had been disclosed to him was really his, the constable Jones told the woman to get down to the present and see if she knew what was going to happen right away. No she could not. He served the warrant and acted to let Alderman John tell "fortunes" to them. The other woman was found and both taken before the alderman and given a hearing. They could not pay the fine which is rather heavy for their offense, on in other words, they would not be able to pay to have their fortunes told.

They gave their names as Mary Ann and Louisa Hanson. Good names and applicable to both women. They were placed in the West Scranton police station. Then there was a rumour. Such howling has not been heard hereabouts for several days. Rates each paid about $10.00 and seemed about to die. To make the best of a bad bargain, they were allowed to go, the lesson being considered sufficient punishment.

PENNIES SAVED ARE EARNED. Steadily and by gradual increase each week the credit of each pupil who is depositing with the school "savings" fund mounts up. Possibly some of them in the near future will be able to purchase some of the bonds which it is said that "Uncle Sam" is going to put on the market, at least, of the lower denominations. At any rate each pupil who is making great headway in his or her account, and are leaving no stone unturned to increase it. This energy has all the force of a good example and many others are beginning to deposit, too. The deposits yesterday were as follows:

For No. 12, Principal David Owens, $5.10; Miss M. Watkins, $1.95; Miss E. Lewis, 75c; Miss A. Evans, 40c; Miss Bertha Kelly, 60c; Miss Nellie Richards, 40c; Miss C. Phillips, $1.00; Miss N. Kelly, 50c; Miss E. Price, $1.47; Miss S. McDonald, $1.35; Miss Mary Harris, 50c. Total, $14.20.

For No. 13, Principal Miss Josie D. Lees, 47c; Miss Fellows, 25c; Miss Nichols, $1.10; Miss Bennish, 54c; Miss Morgan, 50c; Miss Flynn, $2.38; Miss Broadbent, 50c; Miss Agnes Evans, $1.70; Miss Murphy, $1.37; Miss Wade, 82c; Miss Della F. Evans, $1.38; Mrs. Ferber, $1.60. Total, $12.97.

For No. 22, Principal H. L. Morgan, 25c; Miss O'Connor, $2.57; Miss Jane Fellows, $2.12; Miss Evans, 32c; Miss M. Lewis, $1.95; Miss M. Magrath, $1.51; Miss Kate Mallen, 75c. Total, $8.90.

FAST ASSUMING SHAPE. West Scranton may yet enjoy the distinction of having the first company of men ready to respond to the second call which, if the future portends anything, may be made before this month closes. A meeting of those who have already become enrolled on the list was held last evening at Company P's quarters, St. David's hall. Much enthusiasm was displayed. Twenty more were enrolled and now there are about sixty on the list. Ex-Captain John H. Lewis and Sergeant Major Albert Davies are urging things along.

The roll list will be found at Jenkins' pharmacy, corner of South Main avenue and Jackson street, during the day and each evening during this week. Messrs. Lewis and Davies will be found at the company's quarters at St. David's hall, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. Any young man who is free to go and up to the requisite standard or nearly so should avail himself of this opportunity of going under pleasant conditions and with friends.

ENTERPRISE SOCIAL SESSION. Regular business was quickly disposed of last evening at the session of Enterprise lodge, No. 21, Loyal Knights of America, at Redmen's hall. Those present in addition to several visiting brethren from Kingston lodge, No. 37, then enjoyed a short social session. James Leyshon presided, and cigars were passed. Thomas A. Davies sang and recited. William Lewis also sang. Aaron Jones gave a comic recitation and John Thomas a political speech. William Evans and Thomas Richards sang a duet and Daniel Clements gave several of his inimitable whistling solos. The number of the evening's exercises was, however, delivered by Rev. Thomas DeBruin, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church. The address was very interesting and provocative of much enthusiasm.

for last evening they held a regular meeting and adopted the name or title of "West Side Reserve Corps," and they will hereafter, either for wear or woe, be known by it.

They also selected a chaplain in the person of Rev. Thomas DeBruin, pastor of the church, and Peter Lewis was made a first sergeant. An hour's drilling was then gone through. The young men of West Scranton are invited to become members of the "corps."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Attorneys John R. Edwards and E. W. Thayer, of South Main avenue, have returned from a trip to Mt. Gretna.

Peter Baker, of North Bromley avenue, is visiting members of Company F at Mt. Gretna.

Thomas E. Williams, of Hampton street, is representing Silurian lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at the Grand Lodge at Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. W. Wilkins, of North Main avenue, is entertaining Mrs. Almira Bruno, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. J. Armour, of Mt. Pocono, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Dean, of Keyser avenue.

Common Councilman Joseph Oliver, of Hampton street, is attending the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Wilkes-Barre.

Thomas Murphy and Richard Longan, both of Jackson street, are home again after a vain attempt to become soldiers. Their parents said nay.

Daniel Robertson, of North Rebecca avenue, is at Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes, of North Garfield avenue, is visiting friends at Pittston.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Owen Davies, janitor at the West Side police station, was commissioned special officer yesterday by the mayor and chief of police, Council Mr. Davies particular duty will be to impound all cows found at large.

Preparations are being made for the unveiling of the statue in honor of the Sacred Heart next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. The statue is the gift of the Sacred Heart league which was organized only a year ago, but is very strong, both financially and numerically.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Ellenwood will be held this afternoon from the residence, 446 North Eighth street, at 2 o'clock. Services will be held at St. Luke's church. Interment at Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. George W. Powell gave a delightful thimble tea at her home on Bellevue Heights. The ladies present were: Mrs. Rev. D. Jones, Mrs. John R. Davies, Mrs. D. D. Evans, Mrs. Daniel Davies, Mrs. Owen Thomas, Mrs. Evan Davies, Mrs. Daniel James and Mrs. James Davies.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Chief Hickey received a postal yesterday from Hot Wirth, who is now at Mt. Gretna. At the time of his enlistment he was foreman of the Century company. Hot, who is noted for his wit, gave a lively account of the short career of paper of his life and first experience as a soldier and his description of the fare given them was extremely funny. The missive was eagerly read and the company roared with laughter and it is not amiss to state that a more sincere volunteer is not in the service of his country and that his brother members of the Century are proud of him. Henry Helms, another member of the company, who has enlisted, has written to his parents in a similar vein.

The excursion committee of the Neptune Engine company will visit Lake Ariel Thursday and view the picnic grounds to ascertain if any more refreshment stands and other incidentals are necessary other than the present accommodations now at that resort.

Frank Shoen returned from the Roaring brook dam yesterday with a large mess of trout and among the batch was one 15 inches in length that Mr. Shoen presented to City Controller Edmund Robinson.

DUNMORE.

Mrs. Conroy, of Chestnut street, who has been visiting friends in New York for the past few weeks, has returned home. Miss Mary Van Clift, of Blakely street, is quite ill.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will run an excursion to Lake Ariel June 12.

William Brider, of Blumington, made a business trip to this place yesterday. The school board will hold a special meeting tonight.

No. 3 colliery, which will be idle today, will resume work tomorrow.

P. J. Burns, conductor of electric car 28, leaving the Corners 8:10 p. m., had a lively time last night. Three young fellows board the car at the brewery and stood on the steps. When the conductor asked them for their fares they replied that they were not going to pay any. He stopped the car and ordered them to get off, but the other fellow wouldn't get off and told the conductor that he couldn't put him off. After reasoning with him for some time the conductor went to shove him off when the fellow sprang up on the platform and struck at him. A lively scuffle ensued in which the conductor came out best. Officers Weaver and Sawyer then arrived on the scene and took the fellow to jail. He said that he was from Hyde Park but refused to give his name. He will be given a hearing before Burgess Powell today.

Sarah, wife of A. A. Wright, who lives on the boulevard, died Sunday afternoon, aged 56 years. The funeral will occur this morning and interment will be made at Hollisterville.

Sword to Be Presented.

A gold mounted sword, with belt and gauntlets, and Colonel Dougherty's name engraved upon the blade, is to be presented to the colonel before the regiment leaves Mt. Gretna.

JONAS LONG'S SONS. THE GREAT STORE. JONAS LONG'S SONS.

BECAUSE WE'RE THE BIGGEST

Isn't the only reason we sell the most merchandise. It takes more than ordinary business to create demand. You wouldn't buy here if you couldn't save money—neither would your neighbor. Nor would price littleness act as a trade magnet, unless quality was in the goods.

We Aim to Give You the Best

Of everything—no matter what—for the least money. If you are disappointed with what you get, our broad business policy permits you to bring back and exchange for other merchandise or cash. No one must be dissatisfied. Nothing would be a greater favor to us than your personal report of unfair treatment by any of our staff. No one is infallible, but we like to be fair and honorable with our trading public—and we want our corps of willing-workers to be equally so.

Price Cut in Lace Curtains

If you've a thought of new curtains, don't miss this chance. For price littleness, they are wonders. They're mostly popular lines that have been reduced to small lots—so come early for the choicest.
