While in the neighborhood of Rugby, Indiana, recently, a reporter was told that Miss Clara Hopkins, daughter of Mr. Dennis Morkins, a prominent farmer of Bartio-lomew County, had been the subject of a remarkable transformation. The reporter decided to investigate and learn the particulars. He was driven to Mr. Hopkins' splendid country home, where he had an interesting conversation with that gentleman regarding the illness of his only daughter.
"You have been correctly informed," said Mr. Hopkins, "for Clara has indeed had a severe siage. FUNERAL OF MRS. J. ELLENWOOD

The funeral of the late Mns. Joseph Ellenwood, who met such a tragic death by being burned by a fire at her residence last Friday evening, was held from the residence, 446 North Eighth street, yesterday afternoon. The remains were borne to St. Luke's church where the Impressive Episcopalian funeral service was conducted by the rector, Rey, Rogers Israel, Many friends and relatives were in attendance and the floral offerings were numerous and exquisite. At the conclusion of the services, the remains were borne to the Dunmore emetery where interment was mad.

Rev. E. J. Haughton, curate at St. Luke's conducted the burial service. The ball-bearers were: Phillip Goerlitz, E. Smith, August Piltz, Albert Roos, H. Clayton and George Ansrell. The flower-bearers were James Wilbur and James Boom.

Thomas O'Malley was arraigned before Alderman Edward Fidler last evening at the instance of a neighbor, Thomas Moran. The men, it appears, had a dispute over a chimney, which came to blows. Alderman Fidler held O'Malley in $400 ball for his appearance at court. Dr. D. H. Jenkins preferred charges against George H. Gardner, before Al-derman Fidler yesterday. From the testimony submitted to the alderman cial and entertainment a It was learned that Gardner was guilty of criminal libel, he having written and published a malicious statement reflecting upon the doctor's character. At the hearing Gardner expressed penitence, and after retracting all that he was amicably settled.
