

TOO MUCH SUGAR AND BUTTER

Dr. Paine Thinks They Are Not Classified as Necessaries of Life.

THE QUESTION OF WHAT ARTICLES SHOULD BE BOUGHT WITH POOR ORDERS WAS DISCUSSED AT THE POOR BOARD MEETING—MR. TERPPE WAS IN A PHILOSOPHIC STRAIN AND GAVE SOME INTERESTING EXPLANATIONS—MANY APPLICANTS FOR RELIEF.

Dr. Paine raised the question at the meeting of the poor board yesterday concerning whether or not the board should restrict the order of outdoor relief to the necessities of life.

Director Terppe indicated in a philosophical strain for ten minutes and did not entirely agree with the doctor. First of all, he did not believe in dictating to people what they should buy.

If they put the money to extravagant use it would be better to restrict the order the next time, or cut it down. He said he saw an item of tobacco on an order he once gave. He didn't mind that, because, from being a smoker himself, he knows that it is a great comfort to a man to smoke.

HE DID NOT OBJECT.

Dr. Paine said he did not object to that, but he objected to the purchase of tobacco. Mr. Terppe said the tobacco might have been for some sick person. He cited another case. A woman whom he knew to be very needy came to him and got an order. When the order came back he found she had indulged in a doll baby. At first he was inclined to say a cross word, but she explained that she could keep her baby quiet with it and be able to do some work to help support herself.

Mr. Reemer was asked if there was not a rule in effect some years ago covering this matter. He said there was, but on the back of each order was a printed list of provisions outside of which the purchaser could not go. This rule was enforced, though, from abuses that crept in. There were instances where the list was purchased including such luxuries as embroidery and lingerie. There was no action taken.

The applicants for relief were more numerous than usual. When one man was being questioned about not having work, Mr. Langstaff said it was very difficult for men now to get work. The board decided to purchase an acre of land adjoining its tract. The owner is Mr. Twining. A communication was received from Attorney A. C. Van Wormer, of Monticello, who wants to send an insane patient, a woman 75 years old, to the Asylum. Secretary Langstaff will correspond with him. An order was drawn to pay the face of a check showing a balance from the Pennsylvania Institute for the blind.

NOTHING TO EAT.

Jacob Lauterman came here ten weeks ago from Toledo, and could not find work. He has a wife and three children, and nothing to eat in the house. Director Terppe will help him out temporarily. Lauterman said he was informed that he could not work easily in this city. Mrs. Annie Stanavich, wife of the man who gave Detective More a trip to Kansas City and who was brought back to answer a trumped-up charge of stealing $500 from a trunk, wanted the board to help her. Her husband is in the Hillsboro house now, and cannot have his son home. Director Shotton will tend to the case. A number of other applications were heard.

SPRINKLER DID THE WORK.

A fire broke out yesterday morning at the factory of the Scranton Wood Working Company, on Penn avenue, below Vine street. The blaze began on the second floor, and was assuming alarming proportions when the flames met the wax plugs of the automatic sprinkler. This gave an outlet to an immense volume of water, which so subdued the flames that the firemen had little to do on their arrival. The damage by fire amounted to only about a hundred dollars. The damage occasioned by water has not been determined. Insurance fully covers the total loss.

THE CHEMICALS, UPON RETURNING FROM THE FIRE, RECEIVED A SILENT ALARM FROM KROON'S CLOTHING STORE, ON LAKEWATER AVENUE.

Two murder cases will come before the jury. KILLED WHILE AT PRAYER.

Authenticated Women Meets Tragic Death in a Storm. A terrific storm in the vicinity of Hazleton, Thursday morning, caused much damage in that region. At Auderick, Miss Sarah Jane Phillips, while kneeling in prayer, was struck by lightning and killed. Miss Phillips was a janitor in the main office of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company. She finished her work at 8 o'clock and, as was her custom each morning after returning home, was saying her prayers when a mighty bolt of lightning struck a chimney, 22 feet above the roof, and penetrated the attic where the woman was kneeling. Her body was disfigured and her clothing ignited.

Was Conducting a Game That Chief Currier Had Not Approve. Chief of Police Currier served twenty-four hours' notice on a man named Bayless holding forth in the old post-office building on Spruce street to get out of town or submit to arrest. Last night the chief went to the place and found him gone. Bayless was operating some kind of a game of chance. He offered bottles of cologne and small knick-knacks for sale, and gave a lottery ticket for some prize with each purchase. The chief simply watched him, and the game, becoming unprofitable to Bayless, he quietly told Bayless to pack up. He told the chief he would visit Wilkes-Barre next.

CUT HIS FOOT WITH AN AXE.

Employe at the Car Shops Injured While Chopping Wood. Martin Rubica, of the South Side, was chopping wood at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops yesterday morning, and one of the blows of the axe struck his left foot and slashed it an inch and a half deep and three inches long. The wound is on the side of the foot below the ankle. He was brought to the Moses Taylor hospital. The report there is that he will be able to work in a week. Rubica is one of the prominent members of the Independent Polish church.

POLICE ARE IDLE.

They Have Nothing to Do in the Central Precinct. The police department is not making much of a record for itself these days, thanks to the good behavior of the city's mixed population. Up to midnight last night not an arrest had been recorded at the central police station since 11:30 o'clock Tuesday night. Two arrests on Monday and three on Tuesday make the even total since Sunday in the central precinct. Veterans on the force say the period covered by the past three days is a record-breaker.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION

Swallow and Nichols Will Be the Standard Bearer.

NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR RESPECTIVELY—DETAILS OF THE MEETING—THE FULL TEXT OF THE PLATFORM.

Harrisburg, May 20.—Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, was nominated for governor by today's state prohibition convention. Dr. D. Nichols, of Wilkes-Barre, was named for lieutenant governor; Sterling W. Dixon, of Berwick, secretary of internal affairs; George H. Garber, of Pittsburg, and Dimock E. Sharpless, of Warfles, Delaware, were elected congressmen-at-large. Lewis D. Vail, of Philadelphia, superior court judge. The nominations were made by acclamation, except for lieutenant governor. Nichols defeated Dixon on the first ballot and won the convention.

The candidates, with the exception of Mr. Vail, who was called to Philadelphia this morning, made short speeches of acceptance, promising to make an energetic campaign. Dr. Swallow, who had previously been nominated by the Populists and Honest Government party, was received with wild enthusiasm when he was introduced to the body of the convention. He accepted the nomination as well as that by still being on the one plank platform of "honest government."

All differences not absolutely essential to the one temporarily dominant issue of overthrowing the state thieves must for the time be laid aside. Nichols, it is held, "that the essential principles of American citizenship is, and must forever be, that no man and no set of men shall be politically dependent of any other man or set of men, but that each shall be answerable for himself."

PLATFORM

The Prohibition party of Pennsylvania in state convention assembled acknowledge Almighty God as the rightful and Supreme Ruler of the universe to whose laws all human enactments should conform. We declare the purposes for which it was organized and exists: 1.—We are in hearty accord with the declarations of principle of the National Prohibition party. 2.—The legalized traffic in intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes is a public nuisance, a great source of social corruption, and produces poverty, crime and unjust taxation. It is antagonistic to the moral, intellectual and commercial interests of the state; the progressive extension of the same is contrary to the governmental policy, which seeks the greatest good for the greatest number. The license laws existing in this state should be repealed and replaced by legislation prohibiting the traffic, and we pledge ourselves, if elected with approval, to bring about the prohibition of liquor traffic through effective legislation and to see that the same is faithfully enforced. 3.—We declare our hearty sympathy, expressed and down-trodden inhabitants of Cuba. We deeply regret the failure of the government to peacefully adjust the differences with Spain, but as lovers of our country and its flag, we pledge our support to all efforts to secure to the down-trodden and oppressed Cubans fair and humane treatment and to put an end to the tyranny and brutality that has been visited upon them by the Spanish government, and to do so we will use every means in our power for governmental protection. From this worse than Spanish tyranny, this son of all villians, the legalized liquor traffic, which the people of this state have tolerated, we demand the immediate repeal of its law making power, foster and protect for the revenue it apparently yields and the political power it concentrates regardless of the suffering and destruction it produces. 4.—We reaffirm our belief in the justice of equal suffrage, regardless of sex. 5.—We declare that the taxing, extravagance and recklessness of appropriation of state funds for quasi public institutions to the prejudice of the masses of people who are directly and indirectly taxed to produce sufficient revenue to meet the same, have grown to be an abuse that demands attention and reformation. 6.—We declare for the maintenance, economy and care in the management of affairs of state as prudent business men require, and set forth for the successful management of their own business affairs. 7.—We declare that the late legislature and the present assembly will go into the history of the Commonwealth as the most reckless, incompetent, extravagant and venal that has ever disgraced the fair name of our state. 8.—We declare that the present political oligarchy which dominates and controls in all legislative and official affairs in this state is directly and indirectly responsible for the present state of affairs, and we pledge ourselves to the principles upon which our government was established, and through which legislative corruption and venality in public office, under the name of expediency, will have become the order of the day, resulting in unparalleled extravagance in the use of public funds and property, the needless multiplication of public offices, the making of salaried political henchmen, the unwarranted increase of salaries of persons holding public office, and a general increase of the burdens of taxation. 9.—The Prohibition party pledges itself, when vested with necessary power, to abolish all unnecessary public offices, to eliminate from the pay roll of the state the names of all whose services are not personally rendered and actually necessary for public purposes. 10.—We declare that failure of the state administration to promptly pay appropriations to the public schools and to the courts on the contract, while large balances are maintained in the public treasury and kept on deposit in banks controlled by members of the political oligarchy of the state, is evidence in its example of dishonesty and one of the sources for the existing political corruption. 11.—We declare that our naturalization laws should be so amended as to provide for a higher standard of alien intelligence. 12.—We declare for all reasonable liberty looking toward increasing the usefulness of the common schools of the state, but no public funds shall be appropriated for sectarian purposes. 13.—Capital and labor are bound together by common interests. Neither can prosper without the other. We favor arbitration as the most effectual remedy for differences between employer and employee. 14.—On these principles we stand and invite to their support all the friends of morality and honest government.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM.

The convention was the largest and most enthusiastic state gathering in the party's history. Over 500 delegates were in attendance, the only county without representation being Greene. Over $10,000 was raised for campaign purposes. The National Chairman, Dickey, pledged $250 to be raised out of Pennsylvania, as a fund in memory of the late James Black, of Lancaster, the first Prohibition nominee for president. As usual in conventions of the cold water party, there was singing and prayer at the opening and close of the sessions.

The officers of the convention were: Permanent chairman, Levi Bird, Scranton; Vice-presidents, Dr. S. C. Swallow, Harrisburg; A. A. Stevens, Blair; G. S. Yarnall, Delaware; A. R. Ayers, Cumberland; J. A. Bailey, Lawrence; Thomas P. Hershberger, Pittsburg; James Mansell, Williamsport; J. Henry, Scranton; Samuel D. Robinson, Philadelphia; D. C. Robinson, Allegheny; H. Foster Mullin, Cumberland; James S. Bellott, York; Rev. George Acorn, Chester; Hiram Dewalt, Philadelphia; S. M. Caldwell, Milton; L. L. Crandall, Lebanon. A mass meeting was held at the opera house tonight at which addresses were made by John G. Woolsey, of Maine, and National Chairman Dickey.

The state committee met this evening and organized for the fall campaign by the re-election of Charles H. Jones, of Philadelphia, chairman, and George Hoffman, of Bryn Mawr, secretary.

DUNMORE.

William Seagraves, who has been confined in the Lehigh hospital for the past two weeks returned home yesterday afternoon. He was found to have a bullet in his leg. It was the intention of the surgeons to extract the bullet, but when the wound was opened it was found that the bullet was embedded in a nerve, and such a way that if it were taken out he would probably lose his leg. The surgeons then thought it would be best to clean the wound out and let it heal.

The members of the borough council reviewed the various streets of the borough last night. The Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Taylor Lavender, at Webster avenue, yesterday afternoon. Martin Richards, who was arrested Wednesday night for assaulting a young lady, was given a hearing before Borough Judge Thursday night. The young lady not appearing against him, the charge was made drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5 and allowed to go.

The Young Ladies' Mission circle of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Miss Florence Fowler, of Cherry street, last night. Some time ago it was decided that each member should "mark" a dollar for the missions. The object of last night's meeting was so that each member could tell how they carried their offering.

The Improved Order of Red Men of this place were visited by some of the high officers of the order Thursday. They were returning from the annual which was held at Hazleton this week and expected to go through to Wilkes-Barre, but on reaching Scranton it was found that they would have to stay over. As it happened that the Borough order was the only one in this section that met Thursday night they made the local order hold a social session. The object of last night's meeting was so that each member could tell how they carried their offering.
