CHI UPSILON BRILLIANT AFFAIR. Few, if any, of the recent receptions held at the Washburn street Presbyterian church have attained the success which attended that of the Chi Upsilon's given last evening in honor of Rev. D. W. Skellenger, of Washington, D. C. Nearly every member of the solety was present and also a major porin of the congregation of the church mong the older people. The society's rooms in which the reception was held were artistically decorated for the affair. The national colors in the form of bunting and flags werre used to good effect. Here and there the Cuban Sag was added and at convenient places palms lent a tinge of color to complete the setting. After all had assembled and Dr. Skellenger, who was formerly pastor of the church, had greeted them, short but appropriate exercises were carried out. Harry Neimyer, president of the society, opened with a few remarks He drew a pleasant contrast between the time that the society was organized in February, 1895, by Dr. Skellenger, then the church's pastor, and the pres ent moment. Rev. Skellenger respond-He expressed himself as being ed. proud of the now full grown society and commended the present pastor. Rev. J. P. Moffatt upon his good for-
