Telling Bargain Truths

The last week in May has come, and we're getting anxious about our Fancy Dress Goods Stock; not, however, because it is any larger than usual at this sea-son of the year, but because there's always so many odd lots and seasons lines to clean up before our semiannual inventory comes along on the first of July next. All strictly summer fabrics in this department are marked at clearing prices from this day forward.

As a Proof of Our Earnestness to make a clean sweep throughout the department before we take stock, we submit the following remarkable price-cutting examples, and assure our friends that there are many more in the store just as good in every way, which lack of space forbids our mentioning, Statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Unveiled in St. Patrick's Church.

SERMON IN CONNECTION WITH THE EVENT DELIVERED BY REV. FATHER GREGORY OF THE PASS-IONIST FATHERS-FOUR-YEAR-OLD GIRL SWALLOWED AN IRON JACK. TROUBLE CAUSED BY THE SEWER ON ROBINSON STREET - OTHER NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Impressive services were held last evening at St. Patrick's church, the ecasion being the unveiling of a beautiful bisque statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The statue was presented to Rev. J. B. Whelan, rector of the church, by a friend who requested that his name be withheld. The auditerium was crowded by those in attendance and the sanctuary was beautifully decorated with potted palms and

Rev. Father Gregory, of the Passionst Fathers, New York city, officiated and in the sanctuary were Rev. J. B. Whelan, Rev. D. A. Dunne, Rev. A. T. Broderick and Rev. J. J. B. Feeley. The children's choir from the parochial school sang. The unveiling was performed by Master Joseph McCann. After this part of the ceremony was concluded, Rev. Father Gregory preached a sermon. The reverend speaker drew many lessons from the service and the meaning of the statue. He also pronounced the benediction at the close of the service.

PROTHEROE WILL BE THERE.

Preparations are almost completed for the concert which will be given next Thursday evening at the First Welsh Baptist church on South Main avenue. The adair is being arranged by a large committee, of which J. C. Powell is chairman, from the South Main avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church and is for the benefit of the above church.

A well selected programme to be given by the best obtainable talent in the city will be carried out. In addition to Mrs. A. E. Connell, Mrs. Jeseph O'Brien, David Stephens, P. H. Warren, and other well-known vocalists, Prof. Daniel Protheroe, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, will take part. Prof. Protheroe was formerly the church chorister and is well known here. Since going to Milwaukee, he has become very popular in musical circles not only in the city, but throughout the whole state. He and his family are going to Wales on a visit and will stop over here to visit friends and relatives and has consented to appear in concert here once

SPANISH SPECIES OF FUN. Complaints have been made of the annoying actions of a crowd of young men and boys who are continually making trouble for Mrs. B. Duggan, an widow lady, residing at 118 South Filmore avenue, and it is likely that unless the business is stopped arrests will follow. Only Saturday evening Mrs. Duggan fled from her home almost distracted and in terror from abuse hurled at her by a crowd who had congregated in front of the house. Not satisfied with this, a furious bornbardment of stones was hurled against the house, and almost frightened the old lady into hysteria.

It seems that the only reason for all this is that the old lady is rather eccentric and remains much of her time within her doors.

Orlimary dark hair is far finer, and over hree dark hairs take up the space of one red one; 105,000 is about the averige. But fair-haired people are still better off; 140,000 to 160,000 is quite a common number of hairs on the scalp of a fair-haired man or woman. A curious calculation has been made to the effect that the hairs on the head of a fair-haired person, if they could be platted together, would sustain a
