JERMYN AND MAYFIELD. The funeral of the late William Pol-

Boys' Blouse Waists, ard took place from his late home on Third street yesterday afternoon. The remains were followed by a concourse of relatives and friends. Court Lily of the Valley, No. 75, Foresters of America, and the Miners' Accidental fund turned out in a body. The service was conducted in the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Benjamin preached a very impressive cormon taken from the Epistle of James, 4th chapter and 4th verse. The pall-bearers were William Tennis.Philip Tucker, Thomas Pritchard, James Kelly, Steve Moreom, Richard Hughes, Interment was made in Shady Side cemetery. The residents of Mayfield were aroused about 2.30 o'clock Saturday morning by the alarm of fire. It was located at the store of Alexander Shlanto, of the East Side. How the fire originated no one knows. Mr. Shlanto said that some young men got into the cellar and lit some rags and straw and which was quickly discovered by him, and only in time to save the building. A large portion of the floor was on fire when he discovered it. The fire was put out by a bucket brigade. Thomas Grady, of Mayfield, was arraigned before 'Squire McGown, on a charge of stealing a keg of beer from the Delaware and Hudson depot on Saturday last. Grady pleaded guilty and was sent to jail in default of
