come of yesterday's financial debate is that both Senor Pulgcerver, the minister of finance, and the Marquis de Villaverde, the Conservative leader, have agreed to oppose the impost on the national debt. The marquis de-clares the Silvelists will oppose the measure even to the length of obstruction, and Senor Pulgeerver declares the measure will not become a law while he is minister.

A crisis will be precipitated by the Carlists, Republicans and Romeroists, who intend to introduce a resolution in favor of the impost. This will divide the majority of the chamber of deputies, inasmuch as Senor Gamazo, the Liberal leader and minister of public instruction, has given notice that Heydler. he will resign from the ministry if the impost is not adopted. The alternative of Senor Gamazo's position is the resignation of Senor Puigcerver, whose following is less than that of Senor

In regard to those indications of a crisis, the Liberal remarks: "The sovereignty, perhaps the independence of the nation is hanging in the balance, Enemies menace it everywhere abroad and Curry. and there is famine at home. The flower of Spanish youth is giving its life-blood to carry on the war, and weakened mothers are nursing a new generation amidst this accumulation of evils, Paamidst this accumulation of evils. Patriotism demands our silent inactivity, while the rival partisans of the Liberal party squabble over petty questions, depriving the nation of a strong, united depriving the nation of a strong, united government capable of facing the present struggles. The country may wait while the government arranges its differences with party politics; Dewey, Sampson, McKinley and Salisbury are not likely to wait."

The minister of marine, Captain Aunon, was asked yesterday if it were true the Americans were blockading Santiago de Cuba, and he replied: "It is to be presumed the Americans will try to hinder our ships from leaving Santiago de Cuba, but I am not certain whether the Americans arrived in time to do so. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review

New York, May 26.-The movements of prices worthy of particular notice in the stock market today was confined to a few pecial stocks, as was also a large part of the activity in the trading. The majority of the list was somewhat dull and neglected. The fact of the matter is that the market has been expecting for some time a sensational naval victory and its failure to respond to the more prosaic re-sults of successful naval strategy is a disappointment to the bulls and gives somcouragement to the bears. There were, wever, very positive elements of however, very positive elements of strength in the market which served to life prices at one time quite materially above last night's close. The mainstay of the market was Rock Island which rose at one time 2½ points. The local traction stocks enjoyed their season of strength as well. Great Northern preferred ross an additional 4 points to 171, Illinois Steel mounted over 4 points with subsequent reaction. The reactionary tendency cen-tered in Manhattan which was active and feverish all day and fell an extreme 25 points with a net loss of nearly a point
