MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAMME.

Preparation for the Honoring of Our Soldier Dead.

Hearquarters of William H. Davies Post, 157, Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic.
Special Order No. 1.

Comrades and Cogeners: With the unceasing march of time, another year has gone since this post was called on to attend divine service in a body on the Sunday evening preceding Memorial Day in accordance with rules and regulations.

Therefore, the comrades of this post will assemble at the post room on Sunday evening, May 29, at 6.45 o'clock and accompanied by the Woman's Relief corps and also the Sons of Veterans, both of which fraternal organizations are hereby invited to accompany the post to the church of St. Rose, from whose pastor, the Rev. Father Coffey, we have received the usual annual invitation to attend the service this year in the said church. The post will be in uniform and white gloves.

Consequently the comrades and visiting attendants must leave the post room on the said evening of Sunday at the above mentioned time. Be on hand promptly, comrades, so that we may occasion no unnecessary delay by our tardiness.

Yours in F. C. and L.,
Robert McHale,
Attest: Post Commander.
Josiah Vandermark, Adjutant.

Special Order No. 2.

Comrades, the march of another year is ended. The Grand Army will again gather in groups—though smaller than ever before—mustering in the cemeteries throughout the land, and in reverent silence placing tokens of affection and gratitude on the graves of their departed comrades. In memory we will again "touch elbows" with the departed. Our thoughts will be again arrested from the din and push of a busy life, and will be with the nation's dead who sleep beneath the soldiers' "windowless palace of rest."

The tribute of love they so lovingly paid others, we will with devotion pay now to them. Therefore strew their graves over with beautiful flowers; plant the flag, the "Emblem of equal rights and national unity they loved so well, and make the place where they rest, the shrine of renewed devotion to the cause of American liberty and union."

Since the instituting of Memorial Day, we have met around our post altars and offered the usual invocation of thankfulness, a part of which was these words, "We thank Thee that out from the carnage of war, we have come to these days of peace, that the passion of war is stilled." These words are no longer applicable to these days, war is again abroad in the land, and the same spirit that animated the days of sixty-one and five has been rekindled and breathes a new life in the hearts of the young men of the nation, in the cause of human liberty and justice.

Since we last visited the bivouac of our dead, the numbers have increased in the names of Comrades Truman Whipple, T. D. Bradley, James V. Irwin and veterans of the war, John Scanlon, James Duffy, Lewis Silsbee, Patrick O'Rourke, John Weidner, Patrick Brennan, Thomas Kirkwood are the additionals for the year.

Therefore, for the purpose of properly observing the day, the post will assemble at 8.30 a. m., and meet the Woman's Relief corps, who will arrange the flowers and flags for the veterans, also the class of Miss Hattie Hutchins' pupils of the high school, Sons of Veterans and the firing squad. At 9 o'clock they will proceed to Memorial park where the following exercises will take place:

Song, "National Memorial Hymn."
By High School Pupils
Invocation .....Rev. Charles Lee
Reading Lincoln's Gettysburg Address,
J. M. Alexander
Calling the "Silent Roll,"
Adjutant Josiah Vandermark
Song, "Salute the Old Flag."
By High School Pupils
"Firing Salute," P. O. S. of A.,

Robert McHale, Commander.
Attest: Josiah Vandarmark, Adjutant.

YOUNG AT SIXTY.

Serene comfort and happiness in advanced years are realized by comparatively few women.

Their hard lives, their liability to serious troubles on account of their peculiar organism and their profound ignorance concerning themselves, all combine to shorten the period of usefulness and fill their later years with suffering.

Mrs. Pinkham has done much to make women strong. She has given advice to many that has shown them how to guard against disease and retain vigorous health in old age. From every corner of the earth there is constantly coming the most convincing statements from women, showing the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming female ills. Here is a letter from Mrs. J. C. Orms, of 220 Horner St., Johnstown, Pa., which is earnest and straight to the point:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women that I think your remedies are wonderful. I had trouble with my head, dizzy spells and hot flashes. Feet and hands were cold, was very nervous, could not sleep well, had kidney trouble, pain in ovaries and congestion of the womb. Since taking your remedies I am better every way My head trouble is all gone, have no pain in ovaries, and am cured of womb trouble. I can eat and sleep well and am gaining in flesh. I consider your medicine the best to be had for female troubles."

The present Mrs. Pinkham's experience in treating female ills is unparalelled, for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge of the correspondence department of her great business, treating by letter as many as a hundred thousand ailing women during a single year.
