FROM CAMP ALGER.

Letter Stating the Soldier Boys Are Anxious to Go to Manila.

LeRoy Bunnell in writing from Camp Alger, among other things says: "I just returned from a twenty-eight hour protest guard detail and we were about four Virginia boys from camp. We were guarding a strawberry patch and I never knew what hospitality was before. We were used as lords. The best the people had was not good enough for us. We had three good meals of old Virginia hot cakes, brown bread and butter, veal, jelly, strawberry short cake and strawberries with cream and sugar. It was a regular banquet after camp life.

"There are about 20,000 men here and they are still coming. I think from the president's call we will leave here before long and we know not where we shall go, as they are mixing up our officers in great shape. But our colonel wants to go to Manila and I think he will make his point, as he is second ranking colonel in the corps. All the boys are anxious to go there. If they go we shall certainly serve our two years and perhaps more.

"Hon. G. A. Gray was up to visit Company G last Sunday and I had some visitors from Montrose. I shook hands with Governor Hastings at Harrisburg and presented to him a small silk flag. As I was on guard on the train I saw most of the scenery on the way here.

"We have not received our state pay yet, but would have received it if it had not been for a mistake in the payroll of the First Regiment, which is making all of the Pennsylvania boys wait. We have something coming, that is one consolation, but it will not buy extras.

"Three men have been arrested for trying to poison the springs around here and they had to take them to Washington to keep the boys from lynching them."

FROM HOSPITAL TO JAIL.

Gallagher, Who Was Seriously Stabbed, Locked Up Yesterday.

Tribune readers will recollect the Malloy-Gallagher stabbing affair which occurred a couple of weeks ago. The men are brothers-in-law and their altercation resulted in the serious stabbing of Gallagher. He was sent to the hospital and Malloy was committed to the county jail.

Yesterday Gallagher left the hospital only to be arrested on a charge of assault, preferred by Malloy. Being unable to furnish bail he was taken to Scranton last evening by Chief of Police McAndrew.

THE SECOND OFFENSE.

Harry Martin, a lad sixteen years old, was put under bail at Alderman Jones' court last evening for throwing stones at a root cart and hitting a motorman at Simpson. This is the boy's second offense and Superintendent Flynn is determined to discourage this dangerous practice prevalent in the northern suburbs.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Campbell Ditchburn moved his wholesale flour and feed store from South Main street to the Anthracite building on Sixth avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Al G. Watts' new shoe store has been thrown open to the public. The establishment is a model of neatness and is one of the handsomest business places in the city.

An Afton correspondent says: "On Wednesday, May 25, 1898, Miss Lillian Carter, of Afton, and Charles M. Davey, of Carbondale, Pa., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. B. B. Carritt. The bride is well known in Afton, while the groom is a popular young business man of Carbondale, where they will make their future home. The best wishes of their many Afton friends go with them."

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Martin Deegan were Mrs. John McPeters and son James, Mrs. William Wagon, George Devlin, of Port Griffith; Miss Agnes Hannah, of Inkerman; Mrs. Joseph Passone, of Pittston; Miss Mary Connelly, Mrs. John Shea, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Dora Fox, Mrs. Burns, of Providence; Mr. and Mrs. William Wagon, of Wagonville; Theodore Lelch, of Pittsville; Miss Lizze Lenahan, of Pittsville; Master John Connelly, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Miss Cora Moss has returned from an extended visit with Scranton and Wilkes-Barre friends.

Dr. J. J. Thompson is entertaining his brother, of Philadelphia.

Benjamin L. Singer, of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, arrived last evening to spend his summer vacation with his parents in this city.

PERIODS OF PAIN.

Menstruation, the balance wheel of woman's life, is also the wheel of existence to many because it means a time of great suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical pain, it does not seem to have been a plan that women otherwise healthy should suffer so severely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It relieves the condition that produces so much discomfort and robs menstruation of its terrors. Here is proof:

Mrs. George Peters Slightly Injured.

Personal and Other News of Interest.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred at the North end of this borough on Monday afternoon. One of the Scranton Traction Company cars was wending its way down the hill near Alderman's farm when from some unknown cause the car left the track and slightly injured Mrs. George Peters. A number of other passengers were on the car at the time, but all escaped uninjured. But for the careful work of the motorman, Michael Lynch, something more serious might have occurred. The car was in charge of Conductor Barney McGill. Dr. J. W. Houser attended to the injuries of Mrs. Peters, which were not considered very serious.

FACTORYVILLE.

Several hundred patriotic citizens of this town unfurled to the gentle breeze on Memorial Day a magnificent flag of the Stars and Stripes.

The flag, which was a magnificent one 55 feet long, was raised at 10:30. The flag, measuring 15x25 feet, was placed upon the ropes and hoisted to the lofty position by six little girls, aided by the booming of cannon and the band playing the "Star Spangled Banner." Rev. W. M. Hiller, of the Methodist church, made a short address. At 2:30 the parade and decorating ceremonies at the cemetery took place. Captain E. J. Rice post and the Ladies' Guild, G. A. M., having charge. Rev. M. J. Watkins, of the Baptist church, delivered a very patriotic and able address. Miss May Wright recited an appropriate poem. The exercises at the graves of our departed heroes was interspersed with patriotic songs and the playing of music. A salute was fired from the G. A. R. cannon. In the evening at the Baptist church Comrade Dodd delivered an able address, subject: "Personal Experiences in Rebel Prisons."

At 7:30 Monday afternoon a closely contested game of base ball was participated in by the Tunkhannock High school vs. Keystone Academy, resulting in a victory for the former club; score 5 to 7.

Among the list of town visitors here on Memorial Day were noted the following well-known people: Mrs. O. B. Wright, Mrs. N. E. Rice, Mr. Stephen Rice, Mr. J. N. Carwell, Mr. S. S. Seaman, of Scranton; Captain and Mrs. S. H. Briggs, of Carbondale, and Mr. John Grant, of Pottsville, Pa.

HALLSTREET.

Memorial day was more fittingly observed in this place Monday than it has been for years. In the grand parade were Simrell post, Hallstreet band, Great Bend drum corps, prominent citizens, clergymen and nearly all the members of the society in Hallstreet or Great Bend. The graves of old soldiers in the cemeteries were visited and soldiers' honors paid them. In the afternoon patriotic speeches were made by Rev. C. S. Tiffany, of Kirtwood, and Rev. J. S. Pagan in Great Bend.

G. W. Ward is confined to his Pine street home by illness. The railroad is working almost full time.

Charles Rooney, the prohibition delegate to Harrisburg, has returned and expresses himself satisfied with the proceedings of the convention.

Roben Haywood is seriously ill. Miss Edna Ward is visiting in Binghamton this week.

Miss Esther Frederickson, of Susquehanna, spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Ora Van Loon, in this place.

An act of rowdiness and dishonorable tribute to the boys in blue took place along the line of march near the Mitchell House, Monday, in the way of a disgraceful fight. The young men should have been hurried to the jail for a week's vacation.

Editor Gelder, of the Forest City City, spent Sunday in town visiting Miss B. O'Malley, of Carbondale, wife of Thomas McArthur, the fore part of his son, Frank, in this place, Monday.

The many friends of Fred D. Gramb will be pleased to learn that he has secured a good position with the dry goods firm of Stills, McLean & Huskins, of Binghamton.

Mrs. T. Shannon is visiting in Susquehanna for a few days. Miss Myra Curran was a Parlor City caller on Saturday.

C. J. Langley was a business caller in Susquehanna, Saturday. The pretty row-boat of Miss Ora Van Loon has been stolen by parties as yet unknown. It is the second time that the same boat has been purloined.

A fire on Friday destroyed a small building near the Mitchell House. Some furniture stored in the building also was burned. The loss is small.

At a meeting of the council last night the sewer ordinance passed first and second readings. A bill from S. M. Speck for $100 was read and referred to the committee for investigation. Another meeting will be held on Friday evening, when the sewer ordinance will be taken up for final consideration.

Memorial Day was observed at this place in a patriotic manner. In the afternoon a parade was held by St. Patrick's church which proceeded to St. Patrick's cemetery. The procession was headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, followed by the Priebring band, Ancient Order of Hibernian society, Olympian drum corps and the scholars of St. Patrick's Sunday school. The parade was followed by a street with flowers and the following programme rendered: Solo, "Lead Kindly Light," Miss Anna Brown; hymn, "Jerusalem," choir; benediction, Rev. J. Shanley. In the afternoon a parade participated in by various societies and organizations of the town. The parade was headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Rev. J. M. Speck, J. R. Ellis, Peter Roberts, George H. Horgan, J. J. McNally, Lawyer Martin and Thomas Mason joined in line at the central school building and marched over the principal streets, accompanied by the central school where appropriate exercises were held, including singing, addresses and recitations.

Frank Lynch, who has been spending a few days at the home of his brother, of Yale college, returned home yesterday. The season of the forty hours devotion was commenced in the Holy Ghost church at 10:30 o'clock with a high mass. Rev. Father Hartinger as celebrant. The devotion came to a close yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jones, of Edwardsville, are visiting Miss Mary Roberts, of Delaware street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at "Glenholm" the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Gardner.

On Monday morning at 8 o'clock a delegation of G. A. R. men, accompanied by several of the Sunday school scholars and number of others, went with flags and banners to Fairview cemetery to decorate the graves of the thirteen soldiers who are buried there. A short service was held, led by Comrade Foley, assisted by Rev. C. A. Spalding and others. One pleasing feature of the programme was a recitation, "The Blue and the Gray," faultlessly rendered by Miss Bessie Buckingham.

Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded in our village and it was discovered that the large chicken house, cream and strawberries was on fire. The new hose cart was quickly gotten out and although it was a run of at least one half mile the members of the hose company assisted by a goodly number who are not as yet members of the company, made a gallant effort and in less than ten minutes had about 500 feet of hose laid and a stream directed upon the fire. The building had recently been erected and was over 100 feet in length, covered with tarred felt paper and, of course, made excellent food for the fire. The front end of the building was not far distant from a dwelling house owned and occupied by Mrs. Boardman, but under the skillful direction of Foreman Francis the fire was brought under control without damaging the dwelling. The loss to Mr. Swartz will be quite large. Aside from the loss of the building a large number of chickens were lost. He had about 150 in all stages of development and it was impossible to save them all. The efficiency of the new fire department was clearly shown and it would seem as though no better test could have been arranged.

Rev. James Fielding, the former pastor of the Baptist church, occupied the pulpit last Sunday and will preach again next Sunday. The church has extended a call to Rev. P. B. Weithman, of Lewisburg, who has accepted and will begin his pastoral labors the first Sunday in July.

Teachers' examinations were held in the graded school building yesterday under the direction of Superintendent J. C. Taylor.

The funeral service connected with the burial of Jason P. Colvin were held in the Baptist church yesterday afternoon.

J. W. Dersheimer rode his wheel from Wilkes-Barre on Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday and Monday with his family, at least that was his intention when he started, but unfortunately for his wheel, he met some other parties on wheels who did not get out of his way, and the consequence was a collision, resulting in his returning to Wilkes-Barre Tuesday morning by train.
