LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

Strong Manifestation of the Sorrow Felt at the Death of Thomas D. Davies.

SHORT BUT IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD AT HIS LATE RESIDENCE ON SOUTH MAIN AVENUE—WORK OF OPENING PRICE STREET HAS COMMENCED—COURT PRIDE OF LACKAWANNA OF FORESTERS CONDUCTED A PLEASANT AFFAIR IN IVORITE HALL.

Simple yet sad and impressive were the services which marked the final tribute of respect and love for the late Thomas D. Davies, and which were held yesterday afternoon at the residence, 769 South Main avenue.

It was utterly impossible to accommodate the immense crowd of friends at the house and many were compelled to remain outside. In addition to the relatives and immediate friends several prominent Delaware, Lackawanna and Western mine officials, representatives from Sturion lodge, No. 976, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Dowlant lodge, No. 59, Order of American Iovrites, and many persons from out-of-town were present.

In accordance with an oft-expressed wish, on the part of the deceased during his life, the services were short and simple. Rev. T. Morris, former pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, read a passage from the Scriptures. Short addresses were made by Rev. H. H. Harris, of Taylor, and Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the South Main Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. The former spoke in English, the latter in Welsh. Rev. William Lloyd, of Taylor, offered the prayer. The selections were sung by the choir of the First Welsh Baptist church.

The services concluded, opportunity was given the friends to view the remains. Nearly half an hour was consumed in doing this, though many had previously viewed the remains in the morning.

The remains lay in the calm repose of death, in a beautiful broadcloth casket, around and upon which were placed the numerous and beautiful floral offerings. Among these were an immense anchor of roses, the gift of the mine foremen in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company; a large bouquet of American beauties from W. R. Sperry, general superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western coal department; an emblem of calm illness from the Bellevue capitalist, Sabbath school, and a wreath of roses and palms from the employes of Lewis, Reilly and Davies' shoe merchants.

This part of the services concluded, the remains were borne to the Forest Hill cemetery, where interment was made. At the grave, Rev. James Morton, of Pittston, conducted the burial service. The pall-bearers were: W. H. Storrs, Benjamin Hughes, John H. Snyder, John Hale, Lewis Roberts and Henry P. Davies.

FORESTERS ENTERTAIN.

Members and their families and visiting brethren from sister lodges, were entertained at Ivorite hall, South Main avenue, last evening by the members of Court Pride of Lackawanna, No. 6, Order Foresters of America. The affair was arranged by a committee comprising E. P. Jenkins, W. Lewis, T. L. and J. R. Watkins, and William Kreinberg, and they did their work well. The rooms were artistically decorated with bunting and the national colors, palm and flowering plants.

An excellent programme was carried out. Thomas Edwards acted as chairman and Harry Edwards as accompanist. Solos were sung by the Misses Rhoda Clark and Marian Thomas and H. Hulley. Recitations were given by the Misses Elizabeth Moninger and Marian Thomas. Short addresses of a patriotic tenor were made by H. H. Harris and William T. Lewis. The Klondike quartette sang, Messrs. Cole, Stevens and Wilhelm gave several instrumental selections and Louis Lewis played a zither solo and photographic selections were given by J. T. Edwards. Refreshments were also served.

OPENING PRICE STREET.

After considerable delay, the opening of Price street between North Bromley and North Sumner avenues seems on a fair way to be completed. First a vexatious delay was caused in the purchase of the necessary property to ensure the opening. After this was brought about there were no funds available for the proper grading, etc. Though the small dwelling house and fence then standing on the property were torn down and removed, yet nothing further was accomplished. Recently a surplus of several thousand dollars was discovered in the city's treasury and a small appropriation from it was secured by Select Councilman Simon Thomas and Common Councilman W. V. Griffiths of the Fourth ward. Work was begun yesterday at the opening and it will now be in shape for vehicular traffic. The work is being done under the direction of the councilmen.

MRS. MURPHY LAID AT REST.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Murphy was held from the residence, 566 North Sumner avenue, yesterday morning. The remains were borne to St. Patrick's church, where at 9:30 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated. Rev. A. T. Froelich was celebrant and he preached an eloquent funeral sermon to the large congregation of relatives and friends who were in attendance. At the conclusion of the services, the remains, accompanied by a large cortege, were taken to the Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were William Clarke, Michael Logan, Thomas Diskin, Michael Cogan, James Buckley and Patrick Gaughan.

MINOOKA.

Peter Mullin, Jr., left last evening for Honesdale, after a few days' visit with his parents on South Main street. The South district of Lackawanna township will, from all appearance, gain a little notoriety in the Langstaff-Kelley contest, now in progress at Scranton, as nine-tenths of the voters have been summoned to appear at the court house, Scranton, Friday morning. The subpoenae are being served by ex-County Detective Reynolds. Many of the alleged illegal voters are some of the oldest residents of the town. The greatest will undoubtedly shake the recognized Democratic stronghold.

The St. Joseph society have changed the date of their excursion. The event will take place on July 25 instead of August 23, as heretofore mentioned. The objective point is Farview. The Lackawanna township schools will close Friday for a three months vacation. The Hasbencs challenge the Maroons for a game on the morning of June 5, Martin Phillip, captain; P. A. Mangsan, manager.

OBITUARY.

Professor A. J. Gallagher died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at his home on South Meade street, Wilkes-Barre, from an attack of heart disease. He had been in ill health for about eight months. Professor Gallagher was well known to the older residents of this part of the state. In politics he was a Democrat and was nominated two or three times as a candidate for the legislature, but without success. Mr. Gallagher for a number of years was principal of the Meade street public school. He was a close student and a frequent contributor to the public press and his articles on the subject of "Psychology" were of special interest. At the public school institutes he was often heard to advantage and was considered an able debater on all subjects. Deceased is survived by two children, George, a civil engineer in the employ of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, and Miss Stella, a teacher in the Wilkes-Barre Grant street public school. His wife died about a year ago.

Helen Mills, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills, of Monroe avenue, Dunmore, died after a brief illness on Sunday morning, May 28. She was within a few days of being five years old, and was for her age a remarkably bright and precocious child. Her death was caused by diphtheria, a malignant type, a circumstance which makes the bereavement of her parents and her grandmother, Mrs. Clark, the more pitiful. Her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at her late residence. The funeral was strictly private. Rev. William F. Gibbons officiated.

Farrel Jennings, one of the well known residents of Wilkes-Barre died last evening at his home, corner of Grant and Coal streets. He had been sick only a short time. He was in his fifty-fourth year and survived by a widow and seven children. For a generation or more he was a prominent figure at Democratic county conventions. The funeral will take place Friday morning.

Mrs. Joseph Willis died early yesterday morning at her home on Wilton street after a brief illness. She was 25 years of age and for many years resided in Audenrieth, where she was well known. She was residing in this city for the past ten years. A husband and five children survive her. Funeral notice will be given later.

Miss Elizabeth Logan died yesterday morning at the residence of her grandmother, Mrs. Hazen, 71 Prospect avenue, at 2 o'clock after a short illness from pneumonia. Deceased was only 15 years old but of an amiable disposition and beloved by all her friends. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Kate, the 15-months-old daughter of Christian Koelsch, of Prospect avenue, died yesterday. The infant had been ill for three months. The funeral will take place this afternoon with interment in the German Catholic cemetery at No. 2.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF WORK.

Many Applications for Aid Being Made—Some Unworthy.

The general committee of the Soldiers' Relief association will meet this afternoon in the board of trade rooms. Yesterday the applications for aid continued in such a stream that the proposed employment of an agent in a foreign country. From 8:30 to 12 o'clock Secretary Atherton's office was nearly always occupied with one or more petitioners for aid. Many cases of attempted fraud, or rather unworthy cases, have been detected. One of yesterday was a sample. It was that of a young woman who had written Colonel Coates that she had been ejected from the home of her husband's parents, was in want and was about to become a mother. She wrote that her husband had left with the regiment against her wishes. Investigation has revealed the fact that the wife is living happily with her husband's people and was married just before the departure of the regiment with the knowledge that the groom-elect was going to the front.

A letter was received yesterday from ex-Captain W. D. B. Alney, of Montrose, to the effect that the committee of that place had taken no action on the suggestion that they co-operate with the Scranton organization. They have indicated that they would keep their fund separate, as was expected, but they are silent on following the example of the Honesdale people in the latter's decision to co-operate with the Scranton organization as far as work at the front is concerned. Yesterday's statement of the fund was as follows: Previously acknowledged $12.11 H. W. Kingsbury " " 3.00 Total $15.11 Today the amount will be largely increased as a result of solicitations yesterday by the finance committee.

CHANGE IN RECORDER'S OFFICE.

It is to be kept open during business hours. Attorney J. H. Torrey yesterday petitioned to Recorder Warnke the cessation of seventy or eighty members of the bar requesting that his office be kept open during all business hours of the day. The request was received with entire courtesy and the recorder, after stating that he had already considered the matter, assured Mr. Torrey that he would, within a day or two, make such arrangements as would fully meet the wishes of the bar and the convenience of the public. The custom of closing the county offices during the noon hour is a legacy of previous administrations. It is now recognized on all points that Scranton has long since outgrown such provincial usages. It is to be hoped that other county offices, so far as they do not already do so, will follow the lead of the recorder, so that those who have business to transact in them will not meet the annoyance of finding during certain hours of the day an empty office and a locked door.

Among the ordinances before the committee are the following, all select council measures: Providing for repairs to North Main avenue and the West Mountain road; providing for sidewalks on Columbia avenue; pro-

MEMBERS ENTERTAINED A LARGE NUMBER OF THEIR FRIENDS IN THEIR CLUB HOUSE ON NORTH MAIN AVENUE—FRED WHITE THROWN FROM A WAGON AND BRUISED—FUNERAL OF MRS. ANN MULLEN FROM HER LATE RESIDENCE ON KEYSER AVENUE.

The Anthracite Wheelmen celebrated the first anniversary of their organization last evening on an elaborate scale. Everywhere throughout the spacious house the club colors, purple and white, were in evidence. Every minute detail had been effectively carried out.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

A joint meeting of the picnic committee of the Century Home company and the ladies who are to assist at the coming picnic of the company was held last evening and during the session many details were discussed and arranged, and the reports of the sub-committees indicate that the annual outing of the Century will be a success. Tomorrow evening a regular meeting of the company will be held and, inasmuch as it will be the last before the picnic, all members are earnestly requested to be present.

Joseph Kramer, of Prospect avenue, in responding to the alarm from Box 53, Monday evening, lost his timepiece, one that he values not for its intrinsic worth. The watch is of silver, and the finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to its owner. The directors of the new Germania Building and Loan association met in regular session last evening and granted five large loans. Scheuers Brothers, the wholesale bakers, held a large new American flag over their establishment yesterday.

TOWN OVER BY A WAGON.

Fred White, employed as a teamster by the Carter Axe company, of Capouse avenue, had a narrow escape yesterday from serious injury. He was in the wagon when the horse, a spirited animal, became frightened and gave a leap forward. White was unprepared for the move and was hurled from the seat, falling directly underneath the horse's feet and before the animal could be stopped the wagon, which was fortunately empty, passed over his body. Mr. White escaped injury save for a few bruises about the body.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.
