INSTRUCT YOUR COUNCILMEN.

A Plain Duty Stands Before Every Progressive Resident.

There are much needed improvements are being provided for in city council—the pavement of South Main street and Eighth avenue; North Church street and Sixth avenue and Park place—and every progressive resident of this city ought to instruct his representative on the local body of law makers to vote for them. There are a few kickers, as is the case with every public improvement undertaking. Hard times is the lever used against the work. Not that those involved in the assessments are oppressed, but because hard times constitute a forceful argument by these opponents. No one will be hurted by these improvements. In the first place the city at large and the Traction company settle for the lion's share. Property owners will be given ten years in which to pay their assessments. In view of these facts the principal objection ought to lose all its weight.

The projects mentioned go hand in hand and the failure of one will jeopardize the success of the other two. The greatest howl comes from Fifth avenue where the improvement is needed most. The city will cost more than $5,000 in constructing a handsome bridge at that point. A few feet of pavement will connect it with Main street and as soon as that is laid the residents between the river and the gas house will improve their portion of the street and make it one of the finest thoroughfares in the city.

The city fathers cannot afford to take a backward step in this matter. The councilmen who hold out and do the right thing will be praised by the obstructionists in less than a year after the completion of the job. History is certain to repeat itself.

The city's share of the Sixth avenue and Park place pave will be nearly $1,000 and that will make it very easy for the property owners. The North church street ordinance is understood to be looked upon with unanimous favor.

STOLE THE SILVERWARE.

Landlord Williams Missed $100 Worth Yesterday Morning.

Landlord Williams, of Hotel American, discovered yesterday morning that table silverware had been purloined. The booty consisted of six dozen teaspoons, three dozen knives and forks and three dozen tablespoons. Most of it was sold away, though there was some playing in it.

The thieves were evidently acquainted with the place. They made an entrance through the kitchen window, which was left open. Some dishes that had been left in the window were carefully moved aside. The thieves commenced at one end of the room and stripped each table as they went, to the number of six in all. There were four tables left untouched, which gives rise to the belief that the marauders were frightened away. But every table that was touched was stripped clean. Nothing but the silver was disturbed. No clue has been discovered as to the identity of the burglars. Mr. Williams, however, thinks that it was some person familiar with the premises. He does not think the silver was lost because it was all plainly marked "Hotel American," and would be extremely difficult to dispose of. He says he thinks that the job was done by somebody with a grudge in his mind, and with intent to embarrass his business. The silver cannot be replaced for $100, he says. The police are working on the case, but so far have succeeded in establishing no clues.

SUPT. FLYNN'S GOOD WORK.

Traction Company Transports Immense Through, Without Delay.

One of the hardest working men in the city circuit was Superintendent Flynn, of the Traction company. An immense throng was transported to Antietam park and return and it was handled without the annoying delays common to the early history of the road.

The superintendent, with his horse and carriage, was rushing back and forth through the city all day and until late at night directing the movements of cars. He happened to be right on hand when the unfortunate little South car was stuck in the eighth avenue and he carried her in his arms, and galloped his horse to the doctor's office, giving her medical aid in the shortest possible space of time.

ACCIDENTS.

Harry Perry, aged eighteen years, was struck by the 11:34 express on the Ontario road yesterday morning, at the Belmont street crossing. He was out bicycling when the accident occurred. He was knocked from his wheel but fell under the car. He was picked up unconscious and carried to the home of his brother, A. J. Perry on Park street. Dr. Malin is attending him, but it is too early to predict the outcome of his injuries. He is evidently suffering from concussion of the brain. He has a large laceration on his forehead and his shoulder is also bruised. He is in a semi-coma, and his friends are very anxiously awaiting developments.

Philip Hogan, a young man of Forty-second street, was hurt in Wilson Creek mine yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the hospital. He has several severe scalp wounds, and possibly concussion of the brain. The result is doubtful, though indications are for ultimate recovery.

Paul La Drill, a miner at the Last Chance, was injured yesterday morning while at work. His foot was badly squeezed. His wounds were dressed at the hospital where he will remain for a few days.

NOT PART OF THE PROGRAMME.

Two incidents in connection with Wednesday's wedding failed to get into print today. The first was at the Limer-Church nuptials. Just as Rev. Mr. Lee commenced his opening remarks, Matt's collapse turned the corner at the Presbyterian church and the player rendered "Boogie O'Grady" in true hair-raising style. At the Baker-Jadwin affair in the afternoon the contracting parties stood before the altar at least three minutes without the presence of the officiant. Finally they seated themselves and after a wait of a couple minutes more the vic-
